REPORT ON FOREIGN MISSIONS

Your Committee on Foreign Missions makes the following report:

During the past year encouraging progress has been made in the work of our six foreign fields in spite of urgent need for reenforcements.

In Africa there were 1237 additions on profession and a 50% increase of contributions by the Native Church, which is supporting many out-stations. The whole Bible in the native tongue is now in circulation. More missionary doctors and nurses are sorely needed and the demand for native workers far exceeds the supply.

In our West Brazil Mission territory, equal in extent to Georgia and the Carolinas, there are over 100 preaching points reporting a total of 54 professions of faith.

In China practically all Mid-China missionaries are back at work. Some schools are closed, but all hospitals are running, manned by foreign and native doctors and nurses working in harmony. The great majority of the native church was notably faithful under recent persecution.

In North China conditions are rapidly settling to normal. Much mission property has been damaged or destroyed. The Senior High Schools are closed but many schools of lesser grade are open and practically all hospitals. Everywhere missionaries report large numbers coming for examination and reception into the church. While some fell away, many churches actually increased in number and attendance under persecution.

In Japan 40 students were enrolled in Kobe Seminary, 631 in Golden Castle College, and 19 girls graduated from Carrie McMillan Home. The kindergarten work continues to bring excellent results in reaching both children and parents. The great need is for more means to support the work of present forces and for many other promising fields to be manned.

In Korea the number of communicants shows substantial increase, mission schools report an enlarged attendance, and the hospitals report the best year's work in their history. There is desperate need for re-enforcement in the fields.

In Mexico, the work grows steadily in spite of revolution and the new laws restricting religious teachings and preaching by foreigners. Both Graybill Memorial and Zitacuaro Girls Schools report the best year in their history. However there are hundreds of thousands in parts of our Mexican fields yet utterly untouched.

In regard to finances, the report is not so encouraging. The cost of the regular work for the year was $1,209,205 and the total receipts for regular work was $1,111,245, thus leaving a deficit of $97,959 for the year. The deficit on April 1, 1928, was $131,898 which was reduced by $76,699, reducing previous deficit to $76,699. Adding this amount to this year's deficit, makes our total deficit $174,659, an increase of $42,760 over total deficit of previous April.

The receipts for physical equipment was $50,571. Added to the regular receipts, the total this year from all sources was $1,171,451. While some churches may not have been as faithful as they should, your committee believes the present financial depression to be the primary cause of the deficit rather than any want of loyalty. We pray the way may be opened for larger giving with a still more liberal heart by all the churches during the present church year.

WE RECOMMEND:

1. That the Presbytery at this meeting engage in special prayer for such an outpouring of the Spirit on our churches as will enable the Executive Committee to send to all our Missions the desperately needed re-enforcements for which they are pleading, and will bring our whole church into a deeper sympathy with Him on whose great heart lay ever closest and heaviest the burden of the unreached.

2. That all our ministers and church leaders utilize to the utmost the Foreign Mission programs, literature, stereopticon slides, and visits from foreign missionaries, offered by the Educational Department, in order that missions may be given its scriptural place in all departments of our church life.

3. That during January, 1930, every church, if possible, organize a Church Shool of Missions, using the approved Foreign Mission study books.

4. That Sunday Schools focus their attention this year upon the Foreign Mission Educational Work, designating their Foreign Mission contributions to the $100,000 being raised in the Sunday Schools for this work, such offerings to be credited to the local church Foreign Mission budget.

5. That Young People's Societies focus their attention this year upon the rehabilitation of our medical work in China, designating their Foreign Mission offerings to the $10,000 being raised in the Societies for this work, such offerings to be credited to the local church Foreign Mission budget.

C. B. CRAIG, Chairman.

Rev. B. F. Bedinger, D.D., presented a letter of dismisal from Roanoke Presbytery to this Presbytery. After an examination as required by the Book of Church Order which was sustained as satisfactory, he was received into the Presbytery and his name ordered enrolled after he has signed the obligation required of its ministers.

The Committee on Sabbath Schools made the following report which was adopted and it was ordered that the recommendations be read in all the Sunday Schools.

Your Committee on Sabbath Schools would make the following report:

We have examined the reports of the Sabbath Schools of 83 churches in the Presbytery and find 86 schools with a membership of 10,472.

There have been added to the communion from the Sabbath Schools 167 by profession of their faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. This is 81 less than the number last year.

50 churches reported no pupils from the Sunday School added on confession last year.

The total gifts to denominational benevolences during the past year from the Sunday Schools were $5,860, an increase of $17 over last year.

We note that only 11 Sabbath Schools have a workers or teachers conference held regularly and 3 others occasionally.

The Bible, Hymns and Catechisms are being memorized in most of the schools.

WE RECOMMEND THAT

1. Each Sabbath School make an earnest effort to have a workers conference meeting regularly to increase the efficiency of the school.

2. The Sabbath Schools be urged to contribute to the various benevolent causes of the church.

3. The Schools be urged to make an effort to secure Clark T. Carr to conduct a teachers training class.

4. Each Sabbath School endeavor to keep as accurate enrollment as possible.

5. The Sabbath Schools be urged to observe all special days set apart by the Assembly.

6. These recommendations be read to each Sabbath School in the Presbytery.

W. L. FOLEY, Chairman.

The Special Committee on the change of the hour of the meeting of Presbytery made report. The recommendations were taken up seriatim and the report as amended and adopted is as follows:

The Committee on changing the time of convening the stated meetings of Presbytery reports as follows:

I. Hereafter the stated meetings of Presbytery shall be convened on Tuesday at 10:00 A. M. instead of 8:00 P. M.

II. That the following general docket be adopted:

1. Presbytery constituted with prayer.
2. Roll Call.
3. Election of Moderator and Temporary Clerk.
4. Fix hours for daily sessions—report of Committee on Arrangements and orders.
5. Sermon by the retiring Moderator followed by the Presbyterial Communion and reading of memorials.
6. Recess for lunch.
7. Reading of unprinted minutes.
8. Report of Stated Clerk touching vacancies.
9. Appointment of Standing Committees:
10. Communications.
11. Sessional records received and referred.
12. Treasurer's Report.

(b) Foreign Missions—In the Spring a popular meeting to be the first order on Tuesday evening.

15. Report of Committee on Assembly's minutes.

III. That the following changes be made in the manual:

1. That Section 1, paragraph 3, read as follows: "At every stated meeting the retiring Moderator shall preach a sermon at the opening session; and at every stated meeting a minister shall be appointed to preach a sermon at the next stated meeting upon the subject chosen by the Presbytery."

2. That Section 1, paragraph 4, read as follows: "At each stated meeting of Presbytery, following the opening sermon, the Lord's Supper shall be celebrated."

IV. In regard to fixing the date of the Fall meeting of Presbytery we recommend that no change be made in our present custom.

G. F. KIRKPATRICK, Chairman.

A popular meeting in the interest of the state of Religion in the Churches was held at which a number of addresses were heard.

The Committee on Campbell's Cemetery made a verbal report which was received as information.

The Committee on Christian Education and Ministerial Relief made report which was received and the recommendations were taken up seriatim. The report as adopted is as follows:

In the General Assembly there are 694 candidates of which number 336 received aid to the extent of $42,564.00. Two hundred and seventy-one students received $39,615.00, while 53 were refused loans because of lack of funds. $13,958.00 were spent in University work.

178 ministers, 248 widows and 48 orphans (466 homes) received $193,596.00. The ministerial apportionment was reduced from $801.00 to $700.00. The allotment for widows remaining between $350.00 and $400.00.

The debt on the entire committee has been reduced but it still amounts to $26,235.00.

In our Presbytery there are at present 18 young men and 2 young women who are candidates for the ministry or mission service. At the comming commencement season M. P. Calhoun, Salem Fellow, completes his postgraduate course at Union. J. W. Bracey graduates from the same institution and W. L. McLeod from Columbia. Leaving 15 men and two women under care of our Presbytery.

Our ministers and widows were remitted $5,054.00, our candidates $1,500.00 and our students granted loans from the Loan Fund totalling $2,550.00.

We mention with regret that while the Assembly gave $24,520 more to C. E. and M. R. than it did last year our Presbytery gave $738.00 less, lacking $4,851.91 of contributing to this cause as much as we received from it. A partial explanation may be that only 55 churches out of 98 contributed anything to this Assembly's Committee.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. That the pastor and session who contemplate presenting a candidate for the ministry to Presbytery notify the chairman of this committee of that intention ordinarily at least one month beforehand.
2. That candidate W. L. McLeod be dismissed to the Presbytery of N. Mississippi.
3. That Presbytery endorse the Ministerial application of the following ministers: H. M. Dixon, R. E. Henderlite, D.D., and E. C. Murray, D.D., and widows: Nettie M. Goodman, Cornelia Fitzgerald Steele, Margaret Gilmour Wicker, and Flora McLauchlin.
4. That Presbytery approve the applications to the Donaldson Fund for loans for Clyde Faushee, T. A. Guiton, Allen Jones, and Barney McLean.
5. That Presbytery endorse the Minister's Annuity Fund.

F. C. SYMONDS, Chairman.

Presbytery took recess until 2:00 P. M.

Third Day—Afternoon Session

Presbytery reconvened at 2:00 P. M. and was led in prayer.

The Committee on Young Peoples Work made report which was received and the recommendations taken up seriatim. The report as adopted is as follows:

Your committee on Young Peoples' Work submits the following report:

47 Senior Societies made complete or partial reports.

37 Intermediate and Junior Societies made reports.

These together with 6 organizations listed under "other forms" make a total of 90 organizations for the young people in the Presbytery having a total membership of 3,064. These figures show a slight gain over last year, especially in membership, the increase being 664.

They reported gifts to benevolences totaling $955, to current expenses $815, and miscellaneous contributions of $248, making grand total to all causes of $2,018. This is a decrease over last year of over $700.

The first conference of the young people held last year at Flora Macdonald College has already been reported to Presbytery, showing that there were 110 registered delegates. Report was also made of the splendid rally held by the B. Y. P. L. the last day of the conference.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. That the Presbytery give the conference the same united support which it gave last year.
2. That there be a concerted effort to get more of our fine young people to attend the Synodical Conference at Davidson June 11-18 and the Presbytery's Conference June 20-27.
3. That we give more study to the Presbyterian Young Peoples' League, as it is well adapted to the needs of our Presbyterian young people. That we get their standards and their program material and give them a thorough trial.
4. That the churches strive to get the young peoples organizations to adopt a budget, embodying the causes of our church as a whole.
5. Whereas there has been collected $230.00 towards the salary for the employment of a director of Religious Education in the Presbytery, that the chairman of the Committee on Religious Education be instructed to continue the campaign until sufficient funds are in hand to employ such a director.
6. That the pastors seek the co-operation of the Secretary of Young Peoples' work in the local Auxiliaries in carrying out these recommendations and in promoting the whole program for the young people.

Respectfully submitted,

MURDOCH MacLEOD, Chairman.

The following memorial of Rev. V. R. Gaston was read and adopted by rising vote:

REV. VIRGIL RILEY GASTON

Virgil Riley Gaston was born in Spartanburg County, South Carolina, March 16, 1869, and died at the Manse at Aberdeen, North Carolina, June 20, 1929, where he had been pastor and lived since 1916. He had served the church at Aberdeen (Bethesda) in connection with Montpelier Church, Wagram, for thirteen years and had greatly endeared himself by his faithfulness and friendliness to the people of these two congregations and to people of all faiths in these two communities. His death was a great sorrow to his people and to numbers of others who respected and loved him as a man and a minister.

Funeral services were conducted in the church at Aberdeen, where for thirteen years he had been the faithful minister and pastor. His body was laid to rest in Bethesda cemetery by the side of his son David, who died in 1921.

It would be hard to think of a more grief-stricken people than the crowd which came to his funeral. Sometimes a few seats at the front of the church will hold those who mourn. This time the whole church could not seat the number who were sorrowing.

One of the touches at the funeral which reflected the character of the man was the lavish and beautiful offering of home grown flowers. He had requested that this be done and money that might be spent on flowers be devoted to some other cause.

Some account of his life and work, as the writer has been able to collect it, follows:

Brother Gaston was a graduate of Davidson College in the class of 1893 and he took his course in theology at Columbia Seminary, and was graduated in the class of 1896.

His first charge was Mt. Zion Church in Harmony Presbytery, where he was ordained and installed soon after leaving the seminary. After serving Mt. Zion Church for ten years, he moved to the state of Virginia to become pastor of Chatham and Spring Garden Churches, where he remained only three years and went to the Park Avenue Church, Norfolk, for a yet shorter time. His little son David was in bad health and the Norfolk climate made it necessary for him to leave. He was there for about one year.

From Norfolk he comes to Fayetteville Presbytery to live and to die. Antioch church near Red Springs is his next charge, with Montpelier Church part of the six years he served Antioch.

From Antioch he comes to Aberdeen, where he closes his ministry after having been in harness for thirty-three years and serving this group thirteen years. The writer has been for some years a neighbor to Brother Gaston and has heard from time to time many expressions of appreciation of his work as pastor and minister.

It is not possible nor advisable to give details of Brother Gaston's work in his several charges in this Memorial. To say that he was a faithful and effective worker in his calling tells the story of his life and states the fact.

As is true of all real men, his life and work were built upon the sure foundation of a strong character. A man of great gentleness and tolerance, yet a man of conviction, he never failed to make you feel the genuineness of his character. He also gave you the impression of reserved force that when occasion demanded he would always be capable of developing more power. And truly such was the man,—he was never mentally nor spiritually bankrupt.

Brother Gaston's home life was beautiful and happy. He was happily married in 1897 to Miss Mamie McCallum of Sumter, S. C., who throughout his life proved a capable and devoted helpmate in the work of Christ. Six children were born into the home, two who died in infancy, and one, his oldest boy David, in 1921. He is survived by his wife and three children, two girls, Misses Elizabeth and Virginia, and little son, William.

We shall miss this friend and brother sadly. We shall miss him at Synod and Presbytery, where he was always ready to work and counsel. He has entered into a rich reward and we may feel that what Paul says as he looks forward to his death is true of this man,—"I have fought the good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith—henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness."

R. G. MATHESON, Chairman.

The Permanent Committee on Synod's Home Missions was discontinued.

The Committee on Foreign Missions made the following report which was adopted:

FOREIGN MISSION REPORT

Throughout her whole history, our churrch has been a missionary church. With the exception of the United Presbyterian Church, no other body of our faith has surpassed her in her missionary zeal and in her proportionate accomplishments. Unquestionably she is still a missionary church even if reports show a decline in the work, so far as numbers is concerned. It is not lack of efficiency or manpower but lack of money designated for this cause coupled with the rising cost of operation in all the fields that has caused a decline in our work.

For the force that is at work, the results are truly marvellous. 3,495 persons were added on profession of faith by our foreign missionaries last year. It is smaller in number than for several years but is easily understood in the light of the chaotic conditions in China where two-fifths of our missionary forces are normally concentrated, and in Mexico where there are also disturbed political conditions. For nearly two years the majority of the China forces were withdrawn. Today there is every indication of increased interest by the natives in Christianity. In all other fields, the past year was the greatest ingathering in their history.

Instead of expanding, we are retracting in our missionary forces, with 517 in 1926 gradually declining to 452 missionaries in 1929 and 18 of these are indefinitely detained in America. Recently the Executive Committee authorized the sending of 22 replacements as soon as they can be secured and their support provided. Why this dwindled force? The answer is lack of money, enforced retrenchments. The receipts for 1928-29 were the lowest in ten years, $1,111,246. But during the past ten years there has been a 25% increase in the cost of everything entering into Foreign Mission work. Therefore to maintain the same level in giving and no more, means really cutting the work 25%.

General financial depression over the South will not adequately explain this condition when we examine the whole finance of the church. We are raising and expending a tremendous amount of money but it is not going to Foreign Missions in the same proportion. We are spending $12 of our benevolences at home and only $1 abroad. Foreign Missions is now apportioned as 53% of Assembly's causes but last year it received only 50.67%. Furthermore the trend for ten years in the church has been a steady scaling down of percentages allotted to Assembly's causes, in favor of local benevolences. Five out of every six Presbyteries have materially reduced the proportionate allotment to Assembly's causes.

A further explanation in all the causes of the church seems to be the fact that many churches have embarked on building projects or are now paying for some building that has taxed the financial ability of the people and has taken all the surplus benevolent money that might have been given in part to these causes. In most cases, such building was a practical necessity and has long been needed. It is a matter for the conscience of the church to decide how much it will spend on material equipment at home in the light of the need for sending the light to dying souls and of our opportunity to reach them.

Retrenchment has been the order of the day for some time. Our forces have been cut, every economy possible has been effected. Yet with all these cuts, the money going to maintain Foreign Missions is hardly sufficient to maintain the work. Surely there should be some genuine and conscientious study by our whole church on the question of proportion, not only as between the Assembly causes but also as to local causes and expenditures.

FOREIGN MISSION REPORT

RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. That Presbytery urge its pastors and churches to utilize to the utmost the month of January and the self-denial week, January 26—February 2, which the Assembly has appointed for church-wide observance in behalf of this great cause and also to organize a church school of missions wherever practicable.
2. That our ministers preach on the subject of Foreign Missions, remember it in their prayers, and seek the aid of visiting missionaries to inspire interest.

C. B. CRAIG, Chairman.

Your Committee on Bills and Overtures would submit the following report.

There came into our hands a paper from Dr. H. W. McLauchlin requesting that Presbytery appoint a Committee on Country Church Work.

Inasmuch as the appointing of this committee would in the opinion of your committee, result only in the multiplication of unnecessary machinery we recommend that such committee be not appointed.

Believing that the chart setting forth the standard for country churches might be used to an advantage we recommend that sessions procure this chart from the department on country church work and make use of same as far as practicable.

From Mr. S. M. Tenney came a paper asking that sessions and the Presbytery deposit with the Historical Foundation records of sessions and the Presbytery.

Inasmuch as this has to do with matters covered by previous action of the Presbytery we recommend that this request be not granted.

Respectfully submitted,

2. That sessions consider seriously the need of family religion in our churches and adopt some real plan looking to the establishment of a family altar in every home.

Respectfully submitted,

J. B. BLACK, Chairman.

The Committee on Bible Cause made the following report which was adopted:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON BIBLE CAUSE

One of the ways in which we can aid greatly in carrying out the Great Commission is by helping the Bible Society in their tremendous work of distributing Bibles to practically all the people of the earth in their native tongue. It is earnestly hoped that our Presbytery may contribute to this worthy cause the small amount which is asked each year and that we may observe Bible Sunday as a day in which to interest our people concerning the work done by the Bible Society. It is also highly desirable that our Presbytery strive to be a leader in reading the Bible and living its teachings.

The unfinished business was taken up and Presbytery heard Rev. Herman Jones on the Flora Macdonald College Campaign.

The report of the Committee on Schools and Colleges is as follows:

Your Committee on Schools and Colleges presents the following report:

Elise High School had an enrollment during the past year of 110. 23 of these pupils graduated and 10 of these students have entered institutions of higher learning. One new mission Sunday School was established by the students during the year and 15 homes were reached through this medium that hitherto had not been reached by Christian agencies. The school closed the year with a cash balance on hand of $54.50.

This school has an enrollment for the present year of 109.

The audit of Flora Macdonald College was placed in the hands of this committee and shows an operating loss during the year of $13,519.05. In addition to this amount there was a loss in the Presbytery account of $23,759.69 most of which was due to cancelled pledges made in the A. R. McQueen campaign. This school has an enrollment for this year of about 230.

The Presbyterian Junior College for Men, the other school located within the bounds of the Presbytery, has begun its work under very auspicious circumstances. This school has a faculty of 6 and a student enrollment of 85, 70 of whom are enrolled in the college department and 15 in the high school. Six of these students are candidates for the ministry.

WE RECOMMEND THAT:

Prof. K. A. McDonald be re-elected as trustee of Davidson College. Messrs. John R. McQueen and M. C. McDonald be elected as trustees of Elise High School and Mr. D. D. McRimmon in place of G. W. Hanna as trustee of this school.

The resignation of Rev. C. B. Craig as trustee of Elise High School be accepted and Rev. W. S. Golden be elected in his place.

Respectfully submitted,

W. L. FOLEY, Chairman.

A call for the pastoral services of Rev. Chas. A. Lawrence was received from the Cypress Church for one morning and one evening service at a salary of $500 per annum to be paid in regular monthly installments. This call was referred to the Committee on Calls and Supplies.

The Historical Committee made the following report which was adopted:

REPORT OF HISTORICAL COMMITTEE

In obedience to the action of Presbytery, we endeavored to obtain histories of the first six churches on the roll. Of these six churches, we find that history of Ashpole is already on file in our archives. We have obtained histories of Benson and Aberdeen Churches. These have been read to Presbytery and ordered filed. We have obtained promises of histories, at an early date, of Antioch, Barbecue and Bensalem Churches.

We earnestly request histories of the following churches for presentation at the next meeting: Bethel, Bethesda, Big Rockfish, Bluff, Bunnlevel and Buies Creek.

In regard to the letter of Mr. D. P. McDonald, referred to your committee, we recommend that the Stated Clerk be instructed to write him that we note with pleasure the fact that he has nearly completed the history of Barbecue Church, and Presbytery will be glad to receive a typewritten copy of the same for filing in our archives; but that with regard to printing this history, Presbytery regrets that it has no funds for such purpose.

E. L. SILER, Chairman.

The Committee on Campbell Cemetery made a verbal report which was received as information.

The Committee on Home Missions made the following report which was adopted:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON HOME MISSIONS

Three of the fields, Bluff, Flat Branch and Bensalem, have been vacant part of the time since the first of the church year. The Flat Branch group was very acceptably supplied during the Summer months by Mr. J. H. Caligan, a student of Union Theological Seminary, Richmond. This field has recently called a pastor, and is reasonably sure that he will accept. The Bluff group has had several visiting ministers but has not called either as yet.

The 25 churches and one mission point reporting show that in these fields 394 preaching services were held, 43 professions of faith in the Saviour were made, 37 additions to the church on profession of faith, 27 additions by letter, 24 Sabbath Schools were maintained, 21 churches made an every member canvass, and 2 paid their apportionments in full.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. That a committee consisting of Rev. W. S. Golden, with Messrs. J. T. Johnson, J. H. Suttenfield and J. W. Graham, be appointed to investigate the offer for the sale of the church property at Addor, and if they are satisfied that there is no further probability of our church being able to do further work in that community, to sell the property to the best advantage.
2. That Cypress Church be granted permission to join the Union and Vass group in calling Rev. Mr. Lawrence as their pastor as soon as they have discharged their obligation to their former pastor.
3. That the Presbytery instruct the Home Mission Committee to co-operate in the movement for the Ministers Annuity Fund by paying the required 7½%.
4. That Rev. M. D. Newton supply the Bensalem group, his salary from the church to be supplemented by $300 from Synod's fund and $325 from Presbytery's Home Missions Fund, payment from Synod's and Presbytery's funds to begin September 1, 1929.
5. That Rock Branch and Cameron Hill Churches be permitted to employ Rev. L. Smith as supply on terms agreeable to both parties.
6. That Rev. E. B. Carr's salary be supplemented $25.00 per month till the next meeting of Presbytery, beginning October 18, 1929.
7. That a commission consisting of Dr. C. S. Matthews, Rev. W. S. Golden, Rev. G. F. Kirkpatrick, with Ruling Elders J. P. Wiggins and J. M. Brown, principals, and Rev. W. L. Foley and Ruling Elders D. M. Fairly and John Hodgin, alternates, to visit the Parkton Church as early as possible, and that this commission be authorized to do whatever the good of the church requires.
8. That a committee consisting of the chairman of Home Missions Committee and Rev. F. C. Symonds and Ruling Elder D. M. Fairly be appointed to convey to Mrs. Percy Rockefeller the sincere appreciation of the Presbytery for the gift of the splendid manse erected at the Church of the Covenant.
9. That, in view of the fact that the Spiritual life of our churches seems to be on the decline, that Presbytery pause, and call upon the God of all Grace for an outpouring of His Spirit upon the peoples.

A. R. McQUEEN, Chairman.

Presbytery paused from business to spend a period in prayer for a deeper Spiritual life in the Church and for a spiritual awakening.

The matter of the establishment of a Presbytery's Work Committee was docketed until the next stated meeting of Presbytery.

A communication from J. Alton McIver, protesting against the appointment of a minister as chairman of the Committee on Men's Work was received, and the Stated Clerk was instructed to write Mr. McIver explaining the action of the Synod touching this matter.

The Committee on Thanks made the following report which was adopted by a rising vote:

RESOLUTION OF THANKS

On behalf of the Presbytery of Fayetteville, meeting in the Eureka Church, your committee wishes to express its thanks to these good people, members of this church and members of other churches, for the splendid hospitality accorded us, and for your untiring efforts to make us comfortable. We shall take away with us the most tender memories that shall linger through future days.

May the richest blessings of the Almighty God be on you and on your pastor.

Respectfully submitted,
CHAS. E. CLARKE, Chairman.

Cameron; after Tuesday night, J. P. Wiggins, J. A. Campbell, J. D. Shaw, J. Bruce Cameron, Chas. Rankin; after Wednesday noon, F. C. Croker and J. F. Lynch.

R. A. McLEOD, Stated Clerk.

It was ordered that when Presbytery adjourns, it adjourn to meet in adjourn session in First Presbyterian Church, Fayetteville, N. C., December 3, 1929, 2:00 P. M.

The minutes of today's sessions were read and approved.

The roll was called and the absentees noted.

HISTORICAL SKETCH OF EUREKA PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Eureka is one of the youngest churches in Fayetteville Presbytery, but for approximately fifty-five years a Sunday School has been conducted in the vicinity of the present church. Messrs. Daniel Blue and Malcolm J. Blue, ruling elders of Union Church, and others were the leaders of the early days. The Sunday School was conducted in the school building which stood near the present church building.

About 1915, the Rev. J. K. Roberts, D. D., then pastor of Carthage and Union Churches, began regular preaching services in the auditorium of the Sandhills Farm Life School. The growth of the school and the general progress of the community impressed Dr. Roberts with the desirability and necessity of an organized church there. Accordingly, a church was authorized by the Presbytery, and organized, in April 1916, with a charter membership of about forty-five. Most of these were members who came by letter from Union and Culdee Churches. Dr. Roberts was called in 1916 to serve as pastor of the new church, and the work well begun which has continued with such satisfactory progress until the present time. The fruits of the labors of this sainted man of God will long abide in this church and community.

In 1920 Dr. Roberts resigned to accept a Call in South Carolina, and in September of the same year, the Rev. C. K. Taffe took up the work as pastor, serving with ability, especially as an able preacher, until his call to Henderson, N. C., in January, 1922.

Rev. Charles E. Clarke, of Kenly, N. C., took up the pastorate in April, 1922, and a period of great progress began. Many were added to the membership. In 1924 the present building was erected, at a cost, including equipment, of about $9,000. The work was completely paid for as it progressed, and the congregation has never owed a dollar for building or equipment for any considerable period of time. Such liberality and co-operation on the part of a congregation, none of whom are wealthy, cannot be matched by many churches. The designing and erection of the church was done by the members themselves.

Mr. Clarke removed to Virginia to another pastorate in 1927, and the Rev. Charles W. Worth, a missionary to China who was compelled to sojourn in this country on account of the disorders in China when our missionaries were ordered out, became pastor in January, 1928, and continued as such until September 1, 1928, when he returned to take up his work in China. Mr. Worth's pastorate, while very brief, was marked by continued upbuilding of the church, upon which his consecrated character left a deep impression. Rev. W. S. Golden, of Richmond, Va., came to be pastor on January 1, 1929, and is now serving the church.

The destruction by fire of the main building of the Farm Life

School early in 1928 has seriously reduced the attendance of boarding pupils at the school, and had some effect upon the number of students in the congregation. But the work continues with vigor and encouragement. The present membership is 125. With a hearty welcome, the church and congregation open their doors to cordially receive the Presbytery as their honored guests on this occasion.

L. A. McLAURIN, Treasurer.

We have examined the books and annual report of the Treasurer and find them correct for the year.

C. J. McCALLUM.
C. D. SMITH.

Mr. George K. McNeill was appointed as a member of the Auditing Committee to fill the place of Mr. A. T. McKellar who is infirm.

The commission on Longstreet Church made a verbal report which was received as information. The commission was changed to a committee and Rev. R. A. McLeod was appointed chairman of the committee.

The following were elected commissioners from this Presbytery to the General Assembly to meet at Charlottesville, Va., on May 22, 1930:

Principals—Ministers: W. L. Foley, G. F. Kirkpatrick and A. D. Carswell. Ruling Elders: J. P. Wiggins, Ernest Graham and H. C. Cameron.

Alternates—Ministers: W. M. McLeod, L. A. McLaurin and J. Lee McLean. Ruling Elders: Dr. A. S. Cromartie, J. A. Hodgin and W. K. Bethune.

Rev. Edgar Alexander of Concord Presbytery was introduced to Presbytery and invited to sit as a visiting brother.

An overture touching the question of Organic Union with the Northern General Assembly was received and referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

It was ordered that the names of the ministers who have represented Presbytery at the General Assembly for the past ten years be printed in the minutes of Presbytery.

Presbytery took recess until 2:00 p. m.

First Day—Afternoon Session

Presbytery reconvened at 2:00 p. m.

The Stated Clerk made report on vacancies which report was referred in part to the Committee on Schools and Colleges, and in part to the Committee on Nominations.

The Committee on Assembly's Minutes made report, which as amended and adopted is as follows:

The Committee on General Assembly's Minutes has had placed in its hands the following resolution adopted by the General Assembly at its meeting in May, 1929:

"The Assembly gives it approval to the basis of union with the United Presbyterian Church, submitted by the committee, and hereby recommends its adoption and sends it down to the Presbyteries for their advice and consent to the same."

Your Committee recommends that Presbytery give its consent to the basis of union with the United Presbyterian Church.

G. F. KIRKPATRICK, Chairman.

The above report was adopted by a vote of 36 for and 22 against the report.

A request from the Pinehurst Church asking to be allowed to change the terms of its call to read $3,700 per year and free use of the manse instead of $3,400 per year and free use of the manse was granted and the church commended for this action, and Presbytery expressed its gratitude to Mr. Leonard Tufts, who made this change possible.

Presbytery expressed its appreciation of an invitation to hold its sessions of tomorrow at Flora Macdonald College and to have lunch at the College, but deemed it best for the work of the Kingdom to decline this most gracious invitation.

The Committee on Foreign Missions submitted the following report which was received and adopted:

REPORT ON FOREIGN MISSIONS

In reporting the work of Foreign Missions, if we consider the tremendous deficit, we may feel discouraged; but if we consider the success of the work done abroad on meager support, we may thank God and take courage, and pray that God may open the hearts of His people to give and provide them with the means for greater advance than in the past.

The work itself has been blessed abroad in spite of shortened forces and means.

Our Mid-China Mission reports, "Never before have we experienced such willing audiences or so many opportunities for preaching."

The great Five-Year Evangelistic Movement in China for deepening the spiritual life of the church and doubling its membership in the next five years, has met a widespread and eager response and is already bearing rich fruit.

Despite its depleted evangelistic force the Mexico Mission says, "Reports from all over the field show very encouraging results of the work done." Brazil and Korea sound a similar note.

Africa's report is almost a continuous pæan of praise. So numerous are its students for the ministry and so eager the native workers for a better knowledge of the Word, that around our Mutoto Bible School and Seminary "housing room has gone to such a premium," says the official report, "that it has been necessary to strain every energy, as well as the budget, to erect 100 temporary huts to care for the new families entering."

In Japan the great "Kingdom of God Movement" for winning 1,000,000 new disciples is under way. All the Japanese churches and missions are co-operating. It is led by Kagawa, one of our own mission converts and the outstanding Christian leader of the Orient.

If ever a church was summoned of God to go forward in its work abroad, it is the Southern Presbyterian Church.

In contrast with these joyful facts are six most painful facts.

To each one of these six the Presbytery is urged to give deliberate and prayerful consideration.

1. During recent years five-sixths of the Presbyteries have cut down their percentage allotments to the Assembly causes. Secretary R. E. Magill reports that official statements from the clerks of the 16 Synods, regarding the 1930 budgets which these bodies have adopted for Assembly causes, show a cut of about $800,000 from the $3,000,000 asked for by the Assembly.

2. During recent years the average cost of all that enters into Foreign Mission work has risen 25 per cent.

3. Hence the reduction of our missionary force since 1926 from 516 to 427, a loss of 89, and the number is still falling.

4. Hence also the swiftly multiplying breakdowns on the field as our shrunken force tries to keep the work going, while waiting recruits are held back by lack of funds.

5. The receipts for the regular work for the year ending March 31, 1929, were the lowest in many years.

6. The receipts for the year just closed were lower still, being only $1,079,904, increasing the debt from $174,659 to $245,505.

The above facts make it clear that the ecclesiastical arrangements in force are steadily strangling the Church's Foreign Mission work (the other Assembly causes being co-sufferers), and that worse is certainly ahead, unless immediate action be taken to remedy existing conditions.

As to the reasons for the decline in gifts, an experienced Secretary of the Department of Missions of the Protestant Episcopal Church, replies as follows:

"The following may be among the reasons for the decline in gifts for missionary work abroad:

1. Increasing secularization of life and thought in the United States, with the consequent emphasis upon personal pleasure and material welfare.

2. Inaccurate and misunderstood statements made by some missionaries and other Christian leaders, with regard to the good features of non-Christian faiths and culture. This leads to diluted convictions or even frankly expressed doubts as to the uniqueness and universality of the message for the revelation of which our Lord became incarnate.

3. Events in China during the past five years have led many people to think that the church's task is hopeless in that field and if that is true there, why not everywhere.

4. The merging of a number of interests and causes in the same appeal. This usually results in giving local projects first place in the thought of people.

5. The tendency to emphasize the importance of meeting quotas or budgets, which to most people are utterly impersonal, rather than the importance of making our Lord known and helping people to relate themselves to Him and to accomplish great tasks in His Name.

The statement of the foregoing reasons carries with it the suggestion of the remedies.

For several years I have had the pleasure and privilege of being chairman of the Foreign Mission Committee in this Presbytery. As I leave the Presbytery, it is with the prayer in my heart that God will bless us and that the zeal for Foreign Missions in our hearts will never decline but grow stronger in this Presbytery.

RECOMMENDATION:

That the Presbytery give itself to prayer and conference in behalf of the Foreign Mission work, which is its own work, and that it take such definite action as will in its judgment meet and remedy the situation and open the way for the advance to which God is calling our church.

C. B. CRAIG, Chairman.

Presbytery took recess until 7:15 p. m.

First Day—Night Session

Presbytery reconvened at 7:15 p. m. in the Maxton Presbyterian church.

Rev. Eugene Alexander presented a letter of dismission from Concord Presbytery to this Presbytery. After a satisfactory examination, Mr. Alexander was received and enrolled as a member of this Presbytery, after signing the obligations required of its ministers.

Calls for the pastoral services of Rev. Eugene Alexander were received from the following churches: Flat Branch Church for two morning services per month at a salary of $550.00 per annum in regular monthly payments; from the Church of the Covenant for one Sabbath per month (one-fourth of the time) at a salary of $500.00 per year in monthly payments and free use of the manse; from Mt. Carmel Church as stated supply at a salary of $150.00 per year. These calls were referred to the Committee on Calls and Supplies.

The Stated Clerk was instructed to have the usual number of copies of the minutes of Presbytery printed.

Presbytery heard the Presbyterial sermon by Rev. Carl S. Matthews, D. D., on the subject of "The Power of the Resurrection," text Phil. 3:10.

Following the Presbyterial sermon, the Presbyterial communion was conducted by Rev. R. G. Matheson and Rev. L. Smith.

The following memorial of Rev. R. E. Henderlite, D. D., was read by Rev. R. G. Matheson and was adopted by a rising vote:

REV. R. E. HENDERLITE, D. D.

The Rev. R. E. Henderlite was born at Marion, Smith County, Virginia, July 20, 1860. He was the first born son of George W. and Rachael Anna Kellinger Henderlite. From this home four sons, R. E., George E., Peter B. and James H., went into the service of the church, and one daughter was married to a minister.

He died at Jackson Springs, N. C., January 9, 1930, where he had made his home since the condition of his health had made it necessary for him to give up his work as pastor. During these years of retirement he was not idle, but preached whenever he had opportunity and was active and faithful in helping the local pastor and doing personal work.

He was a graduate of King College, Bristol, Tenn., class of 1884, from which college he also received his degree of Doctor of Divinity. His seminary course was taken at Columbia Seminary two years, and his graduating year at Union Seminary, Hampden-Sidney, Virginia, 1888.

He was married to Miss Maggie Stenhouse at Stirling, Greenville County, South Carolina, August 19, 1883. This good woman was a true and helpful wife and co-laborer with him to the end of her days. She died while he was pastor of the Fountain Inn, Fairview group at the manse at Fairview.

After years of restless loneliness he was again married. His second marriage was to Mrs. Ada C. Woodruff of Rocky Mount, N. C., in 1916. He was very fortunate in his second marriage as in his first. His last years were made brighter and were spent in comfort and with every tender care because of the love and attention of his wife and her children, who regarded him and loved him as though he had been their own father.

The writer has not been able to secure accurate data about Dr. Henderlite's pastorates and some other items.

He was probably ordained by Enoree Presbytery, as his first pastorate was Nazareth Church, Spartanburg County, S. C., in connection with a mission which became the Third Church, Greenville. Then he had only the Third Church, Greenville. He had two pastorates at Fountain Inn and probably served the Beaver Creek group in Washington County, Virginia, between these two.

About 1912 he went to Anniston, Ala., from Fountain Inn, and served a church there for a while,—and the next settled work he had was in Hyde County, N. C. Here he did a hard work. In the face of great difficulty he carried on in this hard field for six and a half years. With only one Presbyterian church in the county he preached at various points in different parts of the county in homes, school houses, or wherever he could gather a group of people. Often he would preach three times a day. The whole county was his territory, which entailed endless driving over rough roads not in a car—he never owned one—but with horse and buggy. He was never satisfied till he saw another church building on this field and "Henderlite Memorial" church stands today a monument of his devotion and perseverance, also his personal self denial for the work of Christ.

In 1920 he took the Little River group in Orange County, N. C., in Orange Presbytery where he had a happy and useful pastorate among a fine people.

In 1924 he undertook his last work. In Johnston County on the Home Mission field, he took up the work of the Providence Spencer Chapel group. He put all his heart and energy into this work, but here his health failed and he had to lay down active duty and seek a place to retire and rest.

In the providence of God he came to Jackson Springs where he lived till the day of his death, beloved and respected by a community of people who had received him with sincere and tender sympathy as an old servant of Christ and the church. Bro. Henderlite was a man of God. He loved the Bible and the church and the Lord's work and Kingdom as few men do. His daily and hourly thought was of Christ, His word, His kingdom. He had no other enthusiasm, no other objective, no other theme worth while to him than Christ and His kingdom.

Every day he spent hours with the Book and until recent months one hour every morning with the Greek Testament.

He was an earnest and convincing preacher of the word. His sermons were nearly all expository and carried the message of the Bible doctrines with them.

The church has had few men who have been more devoted servants to her Lord and all the interests of the church than Bro. Henderlite. He has given throughout his ministry a large part of his living back into the church. Foreign Missions made heavy demands on his heart and his means. In late years he was a great believer in the work done for our Jewish brethren and a liberal supporter of that cause.

His body rests at Jackson Springs near the church in the same cemetery with the bodies of S. W. Hassell and Knox Poole, two other faithful ministers of the church. What a holy place!

The services were conducted by the pastor of the church with friends and brethren from the Presbytery. He is survived by his widow, who continues to make her home in Jackson Springs in the cottage which was given to Bro. Henderlite and to her to make them a comfortable home for his declining age. It has proven a great investment, having brought untold comfort to their hearts.

"Servant of God, well done,
Rest from thy loved employ,
The battle fought, the victory won,
Enter thy Master's joy."

Presbytery adjourned with prayer to meet tomorrow morning at 9:00 o'clock in the auditorium at the Presbyterian Junior College.

tion was received and referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

The Committee on Men's Work made the following report which was adopted:

Your Committee on "The Men of the Church" presents the following report:

More churches have written to the Department of Men's Work about the organization, more field work has been done and more constructive results have been accomplished in the local churches than at any time since the program was adopted by the Assembly.

The Constitution of the Men of the Church and other helpful and suggestive literature has been published and can be had without cost upon application to the Atlanta office.

Your Permanent Committee had a meeting in the First Church, Fayetteville, to discuss plans for the promotion of the work in our Presbytery.

Mr. J. A. Naff, field representative, was invited to speak at an adjourned meeting of Presbytery at Maxton and was requested to visit the Men of the Church organizations in Antioch, Red Springs, Rowland and Fayetteville and to speak on Men's Work before the Men of the Church and others attending the mid-week services on Wednesday evening at Lumberton.

Your chairman has spoken at Laurinburg since his recent election and reports a splendid organization there.

We regret to announce the discontinuance of the men's work in Raeford but hope that it may be reorganized during the present church year.

A new organization four months old has been set up at St. Pauls.

Antioch, Fayetteville, Laurinburg, Maxton and St. Pauls have Men of the Church organizations and an average attendance for all the work of approximately 30.

The chairman wishes to commend Maxton, St. Paul's and Fayetteville upon the prompt remittance of the requested report.

RECOMMENDATION:

1. That each pastor and session endeavor to organize a Men of the Church group in his respective church.

Respectfully submitted,

F. C. SYMONDS, Chairman of Committee.

Rev. Lynn R. Walker, D. D., of Mecklenburg Presbytery, and Rev. J. R. Walker, of Granville Presbytery, were introduced to Presbytery and invited to sit as visiting brethren.

Rev. W. L. Foley offered his resignation as a member of the Parkton Church Commission which resignation was accepted, and Rev. G. F. Kirkpatrick was appointed to fill this vacancy.

The Committee on Christian Education and Ministerial Relief submitted the following report which was adopted:

Your Committee on Christian Education and Ministerial Relief submits the following report:

In the General Assembly there are 626 candidates, 296 being aided to the extent of $37,830.00.

The Student Loan Fund advanced $39,175.00 to specially recommended students but 65 were refused loans because of lack of funds.

The 494 minister's homes were given $198,168.00, seemingly a large amount, but only an average of $401.15.

$50,350.00 was received for this cause less than last year, a debt totalling $44,180.17 remaining, necessitating the reduction of loans to candidates and appropriation to disabled ministers, widows and orphans for next year.

In our Presbytery only 57 out of our 95 churches gave anything to this most vital cause. The 57 gave $3,364.75 and this Prestery asked and received from this committee $8,995.00. May we not through earnest prayer and effort in our respective churches endeavor to do more during the year upon which we are just entering?

Last Spring in our Presbytery there were fifteen young men and two young women in preparation for Christian Service.

During the course of the year, two have completed their work in school: Angus McBryde from University of Pennsylvania, U. S. Veteran's Hospital, for Medical Missions and Sara Pitza White from Flora Macdonald for Foreign service.

Allen Jones graduated from Union Seminary and was recently dismissed to Winchester Presbytery.

Three have been received under care of Presbytery:

1. Frank Smith Blue at Fayetteville, June 11, 1929.
2. Duncan Daniel McBryde at Vass, October 22, 1929.
3. David Fairley Blue at Fayetteville, December 3, 1929.

One young lady, Harriet Emaline Hanna, entered training school.

This totals 16 young men and a young woman in training for Christian service. A gain over last year of one worker for the cause of Christ.

Your chairman has investigated the scholastic record of each of our candidates at college and seminary and reports creditable work with very few exceptions.

Personal letters of recognition and esteem were written to each recipient of ministerial relief.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. That Ministers H. M. Dixon and E. C. Murray, D. D., be recommended to receive $60 each per month from the Ministerial Relief Committee.
2. That widows of ministers, Mesdames V. R. Gaston, J. W. Goodman, R. E. Henderlite, M. M. McIver, R. E. Steele and J. M. Wicker be recommended to receive $25 each per month from the Ministerial Relief Committee.
3. That Licentiate D. A. Blue be dropped from the roll and that a letter be written him commending him upon the splendid Christian work he is doing outside the active ministry.
4. That pastors and sessions be instructed to aid the Christian Education Committee in the collection of loans advanced to students recommended and endorsed by their respective sessions.

5. That the request of Barney Ellis McLean be sanctioned for a loan of $125.00 from the Christian Education Committee.
6. That the request of Barney McLean be sanctioned for a gift from the Donaldson Fund of $100.00.
7. That T. A. Guiton be granted a letter of dismission to Roanoke Presbytery.

Respectfully submitted,

F. C. SYMONDS, Chairman.

The names of the Ruling Elders who departed this life during the church year ending March 31, 1930, were read and the Stated Clerk was instructed by a rising vote to record these names in the minutes of Presbytery on a page set apart for this purpose.

The Committee on Orphans' Home made report which was received and the recommendation taken up seriatim. The report as adopted is as follows:

We are gratified to note that Fayetteville Presbytery has contributed the sum of $11,754.00 which is an increase over the year before of $609.00.

We are still short of the goal to the amount of $2,796.00, Fayetteville Presbytery being asked to contribute 15 per cent of $97,000.00, which is $14,550.00.

The great financial need of our Orphans' Home at present is distressing. Let us rally to its support.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. That each church have an orphanage agent, put the cause on its budget, and specially stress the special offering at Thanksgiving, and that the Thanksgiving offering be sent in as promptly as possible.
2. That each Auxiliary put the cause in its budget and appoint one or more active members to urge liberal giving to special offerings.
3. That each Sunday School and its classes set aside its offering on one Sunday each month for this cause. No cause will so appeal to children or cultivate in them the habit of giving as appeals for little children.
4. That individual members, men and women, be urged to make a regular contribution for the support of the home and to use it as a thank offering.
5. That as far as possible, the various organizations contributing be urged to send amounts in approximately equal monthly settlements, rather than deferring remittances till near the end of the church year.

Respectfully submitted,

F. M. BAIN, Chairman.

The Committee on Printed Minutes made the following report, which was adopted:

A copy of the printed minutes of the Fall Meeting of Presbytery of 1929 has been compared with the written minutes of the same, and the printed minutes have been found to be a faithful copy of the written copy approved by Presbytery. We therefore recommend that the printed copy be the official minutes of the Presbytery.

Respectfully submitted,

GEO. W. HANNA, Chairman.

The Committee on Religious Education made report. Pending the adoption of the report, an address on Religious Education by Dr. W. M. Fairley was heard. The report as adopted is as follows:

Section I.—Sabbath Schools:

The statistical report of the Sunday Schools is herewith submitted: Churches reporting Sunday Schools, 85; Sunday Schools enrolled, 90; pupils enrolled in the Sunday School, 10,385; added to the church from the Sunday Schools on profession of faith, 210; contributed by the Sunday Schools, $5,394.

Your Committee on Religious Education held a joint meeting in Fayetteville with the like Committee from the Presbyterial and appointed a sub-committee to put on a Conference at Flora Macdonald College, June 19-26. It was also ordered that if possible a Leadership Training School for Sunday School teachers and superintendents be arranged for at Flora Macdonald at the same time the Young Peoples' Conference is in session. Rev. E. B. Paisley of the Training School in Richmond, Va., has been secured and we hope to have at least three other teachers.

Your committee feels that the most important task before the church today is the religious education of the youth of the church, and the most imperative need is trained workers. It is with an ardent hope of answering this ever increasing call for competent leaders that your committee has planned for this Young Peoples' Conference and Leadership Training School.

WE RECOMMEND:

1. That the pastors, who are the official leaders in the church, as far as possible attend this Training School, themselves.
2. That the session of each church make an effort to have a good delegation of their young people attend the conference, aided by the church if necessary.
3. That an effort be made to get the superintendents, teachers and prospective teachers to attend the Training School.
4. That as much money as may be needed in conducting this school be appropriated for this purpose from the amount raised two years ago by a director of education.

Respectfully submitted,

W. M. FAIRLEY, Chairman.

Section II.—Young Peoples' Work:

The statistical report of the Young Peoples' Work is herewith submitted: 40 Senior Societies reported a membership of 1,052;

31 of these societies are Christian Endeavor Societies and 9 are P. Y. P. L.

Eleven Intermediate Christian Endeavor Societies with a membership of 219.

Twenty-five Junior Societies with a membership of 532. Two of these are P. Y. P. L.

A total of 76 societies with a total membership of 1,793.

Only 69 churches sent in Young Peoples' blank at all. Fourteen of these had no organization or no reports. About 50 churches evidently have no organization.

Total gifts:

To Benevolences	$ 814.00
To Local Church Work	571.00
Miscellaneous	467.00
Total	$1,852.00

Fourteen less societies reported in 1930 than in 1929, a loss of membership over last year of over 1,200, a decrease in total contributions of $166.00, and last year was $700.00 behind the previous year.

The second Young Peoples' Conference at Flora Macdonald had 158 delegates. The conference was a wonderful blessing to all who were there. There were about 400 people in attendance at the rally held the last day of the conference.

The conference dates this year are June 19-26. The rally will be held on the 26th of June.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. That the churches send as many of their choice young people to the conference as possible.
2. That the various Christian Endeavor Societies study the new plan and program for Presbyterian Young People, which is now ready for distribution from the Presbyterian Committee in Richmond, Va.

Respectfully submitted,

W. M. McLEOD, Chairman.

For the next Fall meeting we earnestly request the above named seven churches to furnish their histories and also request histories of the next six on the roll provided such are not already on file in the Stated Clerk's office. These six churches are as follows: Cameron, Cameron Hill, Campbellton, Cape Fear, Carthage and entre.

Respectfully submitted,

E. L. SILER, Chairman.

The Bluff Church invited the Presbytery to hold its Fall stated meeting in the Old Bluff Church. The invitation was accepted.

The Presbytery ordered that a special committee be appointed, of which Dr. A. R. McQueen will be chairman, to arrange if possible to hold at least one session of Presbytery at the grave of Rev. James Campbell, at which time a historical address shall be delivered by the chairman of the committee or some one selected by the committee.

The time of the meeting of Presbytery is to be fixed by the special committee and the church.

The moderator appointed the following as the above named special committee: Rev. A. R. McQueen, the pastor of Bluff Church, J. McN. Johnson and E. J. McKeithan.

The Committee on Schools and Colleges made its report which was received and the recommendations were taken up seriatim. The report as adopted is as follows:

Your Committee on Schools and Colleges makes the following report:

Elise High School reports an enrollment for the year of 109, 22 of whom are in the Senior Class. The student body represents 10 counties in North Carolina and the State of South Carolina. Eleven acres of land have been added to the property this year. The new administration building will be ready for use the first day of May. Dedication of the building will take place the last day of commencement, May 20th.

It is the plan now for the school to hold a six weeks summer high school this summer. It will be run on the summer camp plan and will make it possible for students to get credit on one whole or two half courses.

Flora Macdonald College wishes to stress the necessity of the pledges made to the Endowment Fund being paid up if possible before September 20th. On September 30th, the Carnegie Corporation offer of $50,000 if we raise $150,000 closes. There are 1,409 pledges made in Fayetteville Presbytery, 309 have been paid in full and 765 are overdue and not paid.

We rejoice in the progress being made by the Presbyterian Junior College for Men at Maxton. They have had a splendid session so far this year. Seven states are represented in the student body. The majority of the students come from the rural districts and small towns. The outlook for next year is very encouraging. From present indications, it is evident that all available space will be taken.

WE MAKE THE FOLLOWING RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. That the pastors call the attention of the churches to the importance of raising the necessary $150,000 for Flora Macdonald College by September 20th, in order to save the $50,000 offer from the Carnegie Corporation.
2. That Rev. W. M. McLeod be elected trustee of Flora Macdonald College in place of Rev. C. B. Craig removed, and that Messrs. Edwin Morgan, Jno. M. Brown and Hon. A. W. McLean be elected as trustees of Flora Macdonald College to succeed themselves.

The Committee on Home Missions made the following report which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON HOME MISSIONS

For the six months ending March 31, 1930, your committee reports that two of the ten fields receiving aid from the Home Missions Fund have been vacant since the Fall meeting of Presbytery, the Blue and Manchester groups. Rev. Eugene Alexander moved to the latter field the first of April, but the Bluff group has made little progress toward securing a man.

Twenty-nine churches have been served and one mission point. There were 449 services held, and 17 professions of faith. There were 13 addditions to the church on profession of faith, and 32 by letter. Twenty-one Sabbath Schools were maintained. Repair work was done on two churches. Twenty-seven churches made the Every Member Canvass, and three paid their apportionments in full.

Rev. Dixon McDonald has made spendid progress in his field. The Providence congregation has secured another acre of land, and is greatly in need of a larger church building. Part of the material has been provided for, and the Presbytery must shortly face the alternative of providing equipment for this field, or lose the results of the time and money already expended on it.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. That a commission be appointed to dissolve the church at Coats, if the way be clear, dispose of the property, and turn all proceeds over to the church at Erwin, to be used in the erection of a new church.
2. That a loan of $1,000 be made to the church at Erwin as soon as the money is available.
3. That $100.00 be added to the amount paid by the Presbytery's Home Mission Fund for the first six months of the church year to Rev. D. M. Clark's field.
4. That Rev. E. L. Barber be requested to supply the church at Naomi for one year on terms agreeable to himself and the church.
5. That Rev. A. R. McQueen supply the church at Grove on terms agreeable to himself and the church.
6. That the trustees of Presbytery be instructed to transfer the church and property of Community Church to the trustees of Granville Presbytery.
7. Galatia Church was given leave to change the terms of its call to Rev. F. M. Bain to read: $1,100.00 for one half his time, and that Mr. Bain serve the Rex and Lumber Bridge Churches for one year on terms agreeable to himself and these churches.

Respectfully submitted,

A. R. McQUEEN, Chairman.

The Committee on the Campbell Memorial Service made a verbal report which was received as information.

Presbytery took recess for five minutes to prepare for the Communion Service.

Presbytery reconvened and heard a sermon by Rev. W. L. Foley, the retiring Moderator, on the texts, Gal. 6:2 and 5, and Ps. 55:22.

Following the sermon, the Presbyterial Communion was conducted by Rev. L. L. Little, D. D., and Rev. L. Smith.

The following memorial of Rev. E. C. Murray, D. D., was read by Rev. W. L. Foley and was adopted by a rising vote:

REV. EPHRAIM CLARK MURRAY, D. D.

Ephraim Clark Murray was born February 5, 1861, on Edisto Island, South Carolina. He was the son of Dr. Joseph James Murray, Confederate army surgeon, and Susan Jane Clark.

He graduated from Union College, Schenectady, New York, in 1882, and from Columbia Theological Seminary in 1885. He was licensed by Charleston Presbytery on April 14, 1885, and ordained by Concord Presbytery on October 17, 1885.

He served during his ministry in the following charges: Marion and Old Fort, N. C., 1885-1887; Summerville, S. C., 1887-1891; Alamance Church, near Greensboro, N. C., 1892; Mebane and Bethlehem, N. C., 1893, during which time he was also Principal of Orange Presbytery's High School at Mebane; president of the Presbyterian College of South Carolina, Clinton, S. C., 1894-1897; Mebane, Bethlehem and Saxapahaw, N. C., 1897-1900; Graham, N. C., 1901-1914; Alamance Church, 1914-1919; St. Pauls, N. C., 1919-1926.

His health gave way at St. Pauls in 1925 and he resigned July 1, 1926, after forty-one years of active service. He continued to live among the people whom he loved until his death, which came just before midnight on Sunday, May 18, 1930.

He received the degrees of Doctor of Divinity from the Presbyterian College of South Carolina in 1897.

Dr. Murray was the author of one book, "The Pastor's Bible,' published in 1888, and of numerous articles in church magazines and theological quarterlies.

In 1889 he married Miss Lillian Lebby of Summerville, S. C., who survives him.

There were born to them three daughters, two of whom are living, Miss Florence Murray and Mrs. W. L. Cooper; five sons, Rev. J. J. Murray, D. D., pastor of the First Presbyterian church, Lexington, Va., Rev. E. C. Murray, missionary to Mexico, Rev. Marion Murray, pastor of the Presbyterian church of Faison, N. C., Dr. Robert Murray, physician at Raeford, N. C., and Hugh Murray of Charlotte, N. C.

Dr. Murray bore his own burden well by being a faithful and zealous pastor, a splendid preacher and a good Presbyterian.

He fulfilled faithfully the law of Christian helping others to bear their burdens by his sympathy with the members of his congregations, by his wise counsel and encouragement of his younger brethren in the ministry, and by his helpful co-operation in the work of the church.

He also knew how to cast his burden on the Lord to find sustaining strength, so that when confined to his room and forced to live a life of inactivity the last three years of his life, he was always cheerful and uncomplaining.

A loyal and faithful servant of Jesus Christ, no more fitting eulogy could be given him than that found in the words of an old hymn:

Servant of God, well done!
Rest from thy loved employ:
The battle fought, the victory won,
Enter thy Master's joy.

The voice at midnight came;
He started up to hear:
A mortal arrow pierced his frame;
He fell, but felt no fear.

At midnight came the cry
"To meet thy God prepare!"
He woke, and caught his Captain's eye,
Then strong in faith and prayer,

His spirit with a bound
His tent, at sunrise on the ground
A darkened ruin lay.

The pains of death are past;
Labor and sorrow cease;
And life's long warfare closed at last,
His soul is found in peace.

Soldier of Christ! Well done!
Praise be thy new employ;
And while eternal ages run,
Rest in thy Saviour's joy.

The Committee on Schools and Colleges submitted its report. Pending the adoption of the report, the following educational institutions were heard from, Flora Macdonald College, the Presbyterian Junior College and Elise High School. The report as adopted is as follows:

Your Committee on Schools and Colleges makes the following report:

The three schools in which Fayetteville Presbytery is particularly interested, Flora Macdonald College, Presbyterian Junior College and Elise High School, report a very healthy condition in the matter of attendance and work being done.

Flora Macdonald, under the leadership of its new president, reports an unusually large enrollment and the work is going on splendidly. Dr. C. G. Vardell is teaching Bible and the religious activities of the College are moving forward. The time limit for securing the $50,000 from the Carnegie Foundation has been extended.

Presbyterian Junior College has an enrollment of 87 for the present year, an increase over the enrollment in the College department of 15 for the past year. Rev. R. A. McLeod, the president, is teaching Bible. The religious activities are being cared for by a Y. M. C. A. that meets twice each week and a ministerial band that assists in the prayer meeting and religious services at the college and in the surrounding community.

Elise High School reports the largest enrollment since the grades were eliminated from the school. Elise has adopted the Dalton plan of individualized instruction which makes it possible for the bridght and over-averaged student to progress at his own speed without being held back by less brilliant or less ambitious classmates.

Mr. E. A. West is teaching the Bible course. The Christian Endeavor Society is in a flourishing condition, and a series of evangelistic services is conducted at the school each year by some minister from the Presbytery.

The school closed the past year with a debt of $87.00.

We recommend that:

1. Rev. W. M. Fairley, D. D., be elected trustee of Davidson College to succeed himself.

2. Rev. W. S. Golden, A. B. Cameron and C. D. Hutaff be elected trustees of Elise High School to succeed themselves.

3. Pending the adoption of this report, Rev. H. G. Bedinger be given 10 minutes to speak in the interests of Flora Macdonald College, Rev. R. A. McLeod 5 minutes in the interests of Presbyterian Junior College and Mr. E. A. West 5 minutes in the interests of Elise High School.

D. L. JONES, Chairman.

The Committee on Bible Cause made the following report which was adopted:

Your Committee on Bible Cause has met during this meeting of Presbytery and submits the following report:

This committee has done no promotional work for this cause. We call attention of Presbytery to the great work our church is having a part in accomplishing through supporting the American Bible Society. The Society in the year 1929 issued over eleven million and one hundred thousand volumes of the Scriptures. These were issued in 179 languages and dialects, besides 89,254 volumes for the blind. No one can properly estimate the value of this service to the Kingdom of God. The Bible Society has kept out of debt by rigid adherence to the policy of keeping its expenditures within the bounds of its receipts. Their total receipts last year were $1,076,377. The work can be enlarged, and the great opportunities embraced only as the support is available. We urge all pastors and churches to see that the full amount of our benevolent askings, which is six tenths of one per cent of the whole, designated for this cause be forwarded to The American Bible Society, New York City.

J. L. McLEAN, Chairman.

Presbytery heard Dr. C. G. Vardell on the matter of his resignation as the President of Flora Macdonald College, and Presbytery expressed its appreciation by a rising vote to Dr. Vardell for the splendid work which he has accomplished as President of the College.

Your Committee on the Printed Minutes make the following report:

We have compared a copy of the printed minutes of the Spring meeting of Presbytery of 1930 with the written minutes of the same meeting and we find that the printed minutes are a true copy of the written minutes approved by Presbytery. Therefore, we recommend that the printed copy be the official minutes of the Presbytery.

Respectfully submitted,

J. N. CLEGG, Chairman.

Your Committee on Bills and Overtures presents the following report:

We recommend that the overture from the Historical Foundation be answered in the affirmative and that the records of Presbytery be deposited with the Foundation at Montreat.

Respectfully submitted,

W. L. FOLEY, Chairman.

The Committee on Orphans' Home made the following report which was adopted:

Your Committee submits the following report:

Barium Springs Orphanage has at present 366 children. The health of the children for the past year has been comparatively good.

The Orpahange does a great deal in helping to support itself, something over thirty-two thousand dollars worth of food stuff being made on the farm.

The financial condition is bad on account of the falling off of the gifts from our churches. It seems that Fayetteville Presbytery stands at the bottom of the list of all the other Presbyteries in their gifts per member to the Orphanage.

Since the Orphanage receives about half of its support from the Thanksgiving offering, let us keep this before our people, urging them to make this offering as liberal as possible, and if no Thanksgiving service is held to take this offering the Sunday before or after Thanksgiving Day. Also to reread to our Sunday Schools and Churches the resolutions adopted at the Spring meeting of Presbytery.

Respectfully submitted,

F. M. BAIN, Chairman.

The Committee on Foreign Missions made report. The recommendations were taken up seriatim and adopted as follows:

Your Committee would report the facts of our Foreign Mission Work as given to us by Dr. Egbert Smith, our Ex-Secretary of Foreign Missions:

On the foreign field the work is successful beyond precedent. Mission reports show an unparalleled willingness, and often eagerness ,to hear the Gospel. Especially in war-torn, bandit-ravaged China the people's extremity is proving God's opportunity. The Foreign Mission Committee has just received a most urgent letter from the North Kiangsu Mission, dated July 11, begging for 15 more evangelistic missionaries, five more doctors, and three more nurses, and saying:

"In every Station our present force is working to the limit of strength. Yet in our Mission are tens of thousands of absolutely untouched towns and villages, a large number of wall cities of from 25,000 to 100,000 in which no work is done for lack of force to do the work. In one field,within a small area, there are 5,000 villages and in only 150 are there Christians living. In another field a missionary from one road counted in a distance of seven miles 256 untouched villages. We urge the necessity of large reenforcements.

"The mass of the common people have never seemed as willing to listen to the Gospel message as now."

Turning from the work abroad to the situation at home, we note a startling contrast. For two and a half years receipts for the regular work have been steadily falling. Year before last they were the smallest in seven years. Last year they were smaller still. Up to August 1 of this current year they are $16,716 smaller even than last year's receipts to the same date.

This decline is mainly due to the fact that five-sixths of the Presbyteries have been reducing more and more their percentage allotments to the Assembly causes in order to answer the appeals of the more near-by causes in Synod, Presbytery, and local church. For this current year three-fourths of the Synods, including the strongest Synods, have cut their alloted apportionments to Assembly causes by more than half a million dollars, apportioning the remainder to their Presbyteries.

As regards the Foreign Mission cause, the difficulty due to dwindling receipts is augmented by the fact that in recent years the cost of everything that enters into Foreign Mission work has risen 25 per cent.

To meet this double difficulty our missionary force has been reduced from 516 to 425, a loss of 91.

But the question may be asked, Is not our Foreign Mission work as at present conducted too big for our Church? This question is answered by the fact that the actual cost of the regular work for this current year, $1,217,629, is almost exactly the same as the average annual receipts for the regular work for the last seven years, showing that the work is not beyond the accustomed Foreign Mission giving of our people, to say nothing of what they are able to give.

Unless Synods, Presbyteries, and local Churches increase their Foreign Mission percentages and gifts, the work can not be sustained. The sharp decline of the last two and a half years has so undermined its support that unless receipts take a tremendous upward turn before next April 1, there will be required the most drastic Foreign Mission cut ever known in our Church's history.

Shall our Lord's work be drastically cut, or our Church's gifts greatly increased? That is the question for the Presbytery to decide. We simply set before you the facts and ask for ACTION.

To use a Bible figure, there is your Foreign Mission work, unprecedentedly successful and blessed of God, yet, because of our Church's dwindling gifts, wounded, bleeding, growing steadily weaker and weaker. This Presbytery is certain to do one of two things. Either it will act the part of the Good Samaritan, or it will act the part of the Priest and Levite. Which shall it be?

Your Committee would call attention to the Missionary Congress to be held in Chattanooga February 16-19 and urges all Churches to send representatives if possible, to read the reports of the Congress as well as to pray for God's guidance and blessing upon the Congress.

We recommend:

1. That Presbytery appoint one or more representatives to the Congress at Chattanooga.
2. That the pastors keep the cause of Foreign Missions before their churches, securing the services of returned missionaries for their pulpits as often as possible.
3. That Mission Schools be held in Churches where practical, and that we pray most earnestly for the blessing of God upon our workers and their efforts.

J. F. MENIUS, Chairman.

The Home Missions Committee made the following report which was adopted:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON HOME MISSIONS

All Home Mission fields in the Presbytery are occupied at the present time, the pastor-elect for the Bluff grant having arrived about three weeks ago. These workers supplied 32 churches and 1 mission point, conducting 575 services. There were 70 professions of faith, 60 additions to the church on profession of faith, and 41 by letter. One Sunday School was organized in the Church of the Covenant group, and 29 were maintained. On the Erwin field a handsome brick church, to cost about $10,000.00, is being erected. Twenty-nine of the Churches made the Every Member Canvass, and one paid its apportionment in full.

Splendid progress has been made by Rev. Dixon McDonald's field. Evangelistic services were held in the three organized churches and the one mission point, with splendid results. The influence of the Church is steadily increasing throughout this entire section, and much more is being accomplished than is shown in the report from this field, good as it is.

During the Summer months, Miss Mary Janet McNeill worked in Sabbath Schools and Young People's work. It is increasingly apparent that some of the most effective work ever done on our Home Mission fields is being done by workers of this kind.

The Presbytery urges all the Churches to come to the assistance of this work which is here at our very doors.

RECOMMENDATION:

That Rev. W. E. Snipes be allowed to serve the Benson Church on terms agreeable to himself and the Church.

A. R. McQUEEN, Chairman.

Rev. L. Smith tendered his resignation as chairman of the Committee on Vacancy and Supply, which resignation was accepted and Rev. A. R. McQueen was appointed to fill this vacancy.

Rev. J. Lee McLean tendered his resignation as pastor of the Iona Church. It appearing that the Church concurred with him in this request, this pastoral relationship was dissolved and Presbytery granted Mr. McLean permission to labor outside the bounds of Presbytery.

The following resolution was adopted:

Presbytery took recess until 1:30 P. M.

First Day—Afternoon Session

Presbytery reconvened at 1:30 P. M. and was led in prayer.

The following were elected commissioners to the General Assembly to meet at Montreat, N. C., on May 31, 1931.

Principals—Ministers: M. D. McNeill, W. M. McLeod and F. C. Symonds; Ruling Elders: C. G. Rose, K. A. McDonald and J. A. Hodgin.

Alternates—Ministers: W. M. Fairley, W. J. Hunneycutt and A. D. Carswell; Ruling Elders: J. S. McRae, Lee McGoogan and W. D. Bullard.

Rev. E. L. Barbour offered his resignation as pastor of the Montpelier Church in order that he might become the full-time pastor of the Bethesda Church. It appearing that the Montpelier Church concurred with him in this request, Presbytery accepted the resignation and dissolved the pastoral relationship. The Montpelier Church was referred to the Home Missions Committee for regrouping.

A communication from the Bethesda Church asking that it be allowed to amend its call for the pastoral services of Rev. E. L. Barbour to read for all his time instead of one-half his time and at a salary of $2800 per annum in regular monthly installments, was granted and both the pastor and the Church commended for this action.

The commission to install Rev. J. C. B. McLaughlin as pastor of the Church in the Pines and the Lakeside Church reported this duty performed on November 30, 1930, which report was approved.

The following churches were granted permission to change the terms of their calls for pastoral services to read as follows: Cypress Church to read $400 per annum instead of $500 per year; Philadelphus Church to read two Sundays per month and $800 per annum instead of three Sundays per month and $1300 per annum; Laurel Hill Church to read $835 per annum instead of $1200 per annum, this change to become effective May 1, 1931.

Presbytery commended the spirit of the men whose salaries are being reduced by the churches and also the spirit of the Stated Clerk and the Treasurer in offering to reduce their salaries but which offer Presbytery declined to accept.

The committee on Woman's Work made the following report which was adopted, the chairman of the committee being commissioned by Presbytery to bear Presbytery's greetings to the Presbyterial which meets in the Pinehurst Church May 5, 1931:

CARL S. MATTHEWS, Chairman.

The Committee on Sabbath and Family Religion made the following report which was adopted, Presbytery directing that the pastors read this report before the churches and that copies be sent to the Church Papers for publication:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON SABBATH AND FAMILY RELIGION

Your Committee submits the following:

It is the opinion of the Committee that Family Religion has almost reached the vanishing point and that Sabbath observance is rapidly following it even among members of our own Church.

It is increasingly difficult to obtain leaders in Church and Sunday School and young peoples' work because the members best fitted in mental training and social graces for such leadership feel no sense of duty to shoulder responsibilities which will necessitate regular attendance at the Sunday services. At the same time the need for Spiritual guidance for the young is becoming acute because religious training is largely neglected even in nominally Christian homes.

We believe that sincere faith in God, hope in Christ, belief in immortality and respect for the moral laws set forth in the Bible dignify, unify, and ennoble family life as nothing else can do.

We believe also that as Divine Wisdom recognized man's need for rest of body and activity of spirit, on one day in seven, it is the part of wisdom as well as of reverence and obedience to observe the period set apart in such a way as to develop the best and highest powers of man.

We, therefore make the following recommendations:

First, That pastors and church officers use every means to convince church members of the beauty and power of religion in family life and that they urge that grace at meals and family prayers be revived and at least given an honest trial.

Second, That parents and teachers be urged to teach their children by precept and example the duty of regular church attendance. We suggest, however, that it be recognized that sincerity and intensity of worship is more important than the attendance of a large number of services each Sunday.

Third, That parents, teachers, officers and pastors make every effort to present the Bible to the young in an interesting, dignified and adequate way rather than in the careless, sketchy and dull way it is often presented in Sunday School and young peoples' societies.

Fourth, That Christian parents unite in upholding the Sabbath and Family Religion by using every effort to make them the source of joy and power they have been to sincere and devout souls in the past.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES B. BLACK, Chairman.

Presbytery took recess to meet at 8:00 o'clock P. M.

First Day—Night Session

Presbytery reconvened at 8:00 P. M. and was led in prayer.

The Committee on Christian Education and Ministerial Relief made report which was received and the recommendations taken up seriatim. The report as adopted is as follows:

1. That James A. Jones of the Laurinburg Church be examined with a view to receiving him under care of the Presbytery as a candidate for the ministry.
2. That the application of Rev. H. M. Dixon for aid from the Ministerial Relief be sanctioned.
3. That the applications of the following widows for aid from the Ministerial Relief be sanctioned: Mrs. Mary Gaston, Mrs. Nettie Goodman, Mrs. Ada Henderlite, Mrs. Flora McLauchlin, Mrs. Flora McIver, Mrs. Lillian Murray and Mrs. Margaret Wicker for $300 each, and Mrs. Cornelia Steele for $200.

F. C. SYMONDS, Chairman.

Mr. James A. Jones was introduced to the Presbytery and asked to be received as a candidate for the ministry. After an examination as provided by the Book of Church Order, he was taken under care of the Presbytery as a candidate and placed under the direction of the Committee on Christian Education.

The Committee on Foreign Missions made its report which was received. Pending the adoption of this report, a popular meeting in the interest of Foreign Missions was held and addresses by Rev. J. Harper Brady of Japan and Dr. Lacy L. Little of China were heard. The report as adopted is as follows:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON FOREIGN MISSIONS

Our Church is doing Foreign Mission work in six countries. In each of these during the past year there has been marked development and progress. In each of them there are ever-increasing new opportunities for more work being done. The universal cry is: "Send us more evangelists, more workers." In Africa alone there were 1649 conversions, far the largest number in the last ten years. The total conversions on the foreign field were nearly 5,000, not including work turned over to National Churches. Nearly 90,000 were trained in our 1950 Sunday Schools.

In our hospitals, dispensaries, and on medical circuits there were treated last year over 320,000 patients, with the Gospel Message given to each. Fine work is being done by our schools, colleges and seminaries. A report from the work in Mexico last year reads: "Never have the opportunities been so many or the outlook brighter." This could well be said of each of our missions.

The people on our mission fields are responding in a financial way too. Receipts on the field, including native contributions and educational and medical fees, totaled over $420,000, showing that every Foreign Mission dollar given by our Church meant $1.35 spent on the support and promotion of our Foreign Missions enterprise.

When we view the condition at home, it is not so bright. By strenuous efforts on the part of our Committee, and sacrificial giving on the part of our people there was contributed to Foreign Missions last year $1,030,492. An additional $58,198 was given for physical equipment, which could not go to decreasing the deficit. Too much can not be said in appreciation of the generosity of these noble givers. These gifts, however, were $152,260 short of the actual cost of the work. We were carrying a deficit at the beginning of the year of $207,017, so that we now face a total indebtedness of $359,277. There is no fund upon which to draw for this indebtedness.

During the last five years we have retrenched by the amount of $97,000. Missionaries have returned home, outstations have been given up, and native workers cut off. There is nothing now to do but cut our work in a way more drastic than ever before. The Committee tells us that during the coming year we must reduce by ONE-THIRD all of our Foreign Mission work. Is it not enough to make fresh wounds in the heart of our Savior?

Does it not call us to our knees, in confession and in petition that ere long the work will be restored and enlarged?

RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. That churches, societies and individuals assume, wherever practicable, definite parts of the Foreign Mission work. Our Sunday Schools are asked to carry their part of the responsibility for the $100,000 being raised for our work in Brazil. Our Young People are asked to assume their part of the $6,000 necessary to operate the Jennie Speer Girls' School, Kwangju, Korea.
2. That our ministers and other leaders be urged to arrange missionary itineraries among all our churches, in addition to the use of literature offered by our Foreign Mission office.
3. That every church in the Presbytery be requested to observe as the Week of Prayer and Self-denial for Foreign Missions January 24-31, 1932, and that in every group of churches, if not every church, a School of Missions be held at that time, using as a text book, "The Church Faces Foreign Missions."

Respectfully submitted,

J. F. MENIUS, Chairman.

Presbytery adjourned to meet tomorrow morning at 9:00 o'clock.

Second Day—Morning Session

Presbytery met at 9:00 o'clock A. M. and was led in devotional exercises by Rev. G. W. Hanna.

The minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

A popular meeting touching the state of religion in the churches was held at which a number of addresses were heard on the effects of the present financial depression on the spiritual life of the church and what may be done to help build up the spiritual state.

The Presbyterial sermon on the subject of "The Resurrection of Believers," texts Job. 14:14 and II. Cor. 15:20, was preached by Rev. C. M. Gibbs. Presbytery requested that the Stated Clerk be furnished with a copy of this sermon for publication.

The Committee on Schools and Colleges made its report which was received. Pending the adoption of this report Presbytery heard Rev. H. G. Bedinger on Flora Macdonald College, Rev. R. A. McLeod on the Presbyterian Junior College and Mr. E. A. West on Elise High School. The report as adopted is as follows:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SCHOOLS AND COLLEGES

Your Committee on Schools and Colleges presents the following report:

WE RECOMMEND:

1. That E. H. Williamson, A. R. McEachern, Ernest Graham and W. S. Covington be re-elected as trustees of Flora Macdonald College.
2. That the following trustees of Elise High School be elected: Talbot Johnson to succeed McI. Kennedy, resigned, and A. D. McLaughlin to succeed N. J. Carter, resigned.
3. That Rev. H. G. Bedinger, Rev. R. A. McLeod and Mr. E. A. West be heard for 10 minutes each in the interests of the educational institutions they represent.

Respectfully submitted,

W. L. FOLEY, Chairman.

The Committee on the Orphans' Home made the following report which was adopted:

REPOFT OF COMMITTEE ON ORPHANS' HOME

Your Committee on Orphans' Home submits the following report: Our orphanage at Barium Springs deserves the loyalty and support of our churches which it seems to have. The orphanage is very careful in the selection of the children for the home, each application must come under the investigation of the case worker, which means that many cases are disposed of by correspondence or by brief preliminary investigation. The institution is run in a business-like way which should be a source of gratification.

Our Presbytery gave to this great work last year including all agencies of the church and the Thanksgiving offering the sum of $11,475.00 while the asking from the Presbytery was $14,700.00. The amount that Presbytery gave was 21% of all that was given for all benevolent causes, which shows that the orphanage still holds a large place in the hearts of our people.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. That special emphasis be laid upon our Thanksgiving offering.
2. That each Sunday School set aside its offering on one Sunday in the month for this cause.
3. That individual men and women be urged to make a regular contribution for the support of the home.
4. That churches, societies and Sunday Schools be urged to send their contributions monthly.

Respectfully submitted,

F. M. BAIN, Chairman.

The Committee on Men's Work made the following report which was adopted:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MEN'S WORK

The Committee on Men's Work has received from the churches 8 reports on Men's Work. Of this number 4 have the General Assembly plan of Men-of-the-Church. 2 report organized Bible Classes and 1 fellowship club.

The fellowship clubs report a number of programs conducted during the year upon subjects related to the work of the church. Bible classes also report various activities in connection with the work of the church. The Men-of-the-Church organizations report regular monthly meetings and the use of the programs suggested by the Assembly's Committee on Men's Work. An examination of these reports very clearly indicates that men's organizations following Assembly's plan are giving the work of the church more systematic study and have a broader program of activity than others. In each instance an active Bible class is reported. From the list of officers elected, reports also indicate that a larger number of men are drawn into the study of the work of the church and its activities through the Men-of-the-Church than by other organizations.

Your Committee would commend the Assembly's plan of Men's

Work to all the churches of the Presbytery as the most effective plan now in use for the development and use of men in our churches.

The Committee on Men's Work would call the attention of Presbytery to the fact that the support of General Assembly's Committee of Men's Work was thoroughly debated and discussed at the last meeting of the General Assembly and, in spite of some opposition to the support of the movement as a promotional agency, its plan and continuance was approved by a large majority. This plan seems to have thoroughly justified its place in the church and should be used more widely by the churches. Anyone who has the opportunity to observe the splendid work of the Woman's Auxiliary should be able to see that great results would come from a similar approach to the work of the church on the part of the men.

Respectfully submitted,
HENRY G. BEDINGER, Chairman.

Presbytery took recess until 2:00 P. M.

Second Day—Afternoon Session

The Presbytery reconvened at 2:00 P. M.

The Committee on Assembly's Home Missions made the following report which was adopted:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON ASSEMBLY'S HOME MISSIONS

Your Committee on Assembly's Home Missions would submit the following report:

Because of the acute business depression the Home Mission receipts were less than the previous year. The devastating drought in many Home Mission areas lessened the ability of the churches and missions, and made necessary many calls for increased appropriations.

The total receipts were $462,647. This is $69,732 less than the amount received in 1930. This decrease of income made necessary additional reductions in appropriations to Presbyteries and missions and further curtailment in the Church's Home Mission activities.

But in spite of financial discouragements it has been a year of spiritual achievement. The Committee of Home Missions has aided 627 workers and 687 Home Mission enterprises. The Gospel was carried to 310 outposts and preaching points. Through the efforts of these workers 4,846 were added to the church on profession of faith and 2,380 by letter. Notwithstanding the decrease in the number of workers this is an increase in results over last year.

In the Presbyteries receiving aid fifteen new churches are reported and thirty new Sabbath Schools. Seventeen Home Mission churches were brought to self-support, and twelve churches were aided by loans from the church building funds.

For five years there has been a steady decline in Home Mission receipts. Yet there has never been a greater challenge for the church to go forward. More than two-thirds of our population is outside the pales of any church; 10,000 villages are without a church of any kind; 30,000 villages have no resident pastor. Never has there been greater need of the message of the Gospel of Jesus Christ in our own home-land. In Home Missions there unite the love of God and home and country.

We offer the following recommendations:

1. That we designate Sabbath, June 28, as Home Mission day in our Sabbath Schools, and on that day ask for a special offering for Home Missions.
2. That we designate November as the period for Home Mission study in all departments of the church, and November 8-15 as the annual week of prayer and self-denial for Assembly's Home Missions.
3. That in November all pastors preach on Assembly's Home Missions and to use Home Mission topics for the mid-week prayer service.
4. That all sessions be urged to arrange for the presentation of the needs of Assembly's Home Missions and for a supplemental offering in November.

Respectfully submitted,

GEO. W. HANNA, Chairman.

The Committee on Thanks made the following report which was adopted by a rising vote:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON THANKS

Your Committee on Thanks would submit the following:

1. That our hearty thanks be extended to the pastor and members of the Dunn Church and to the friends of other churches whose generous hospitality has rendered so pleasant and comfortable our sojourn with them.
2. That we express our appreciation of the helpful and inspiring singing by the Junior Christian Endeavor Choir, to the adult choir and the organist for their pleasant and uplifting renditions during our sittings.

Respectfully submitted,

GEO. W. HANNA, Chairman.

The Committee on the Printed Minutes of Presbytery made the following report which was adopted:

Therefore, we recommend that the printed copy be the official minutes of the Presbytery.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN C. B. McLAUGHLIN,

Respectfully submitted,

L. Fairly.

Respectfully submitted,
A. R. McQUEEN, Chairman.

The Committee on Home Missions made its report which was received. Pending the adoption of this report, Presbytery heard Dr. E. E. Gillespie, Synod's Executive Secretary, in the interest of the Home Mission work. The report as adopted is as follows:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON HOME MISSIONS FOR SIX MONTHS ENDING MARCH 31, 1931.

Your Committee on Home Missions reports that all the fields are occupied. One, the Fairmont group, has been consolidated with neighboring fields, leaving nine fields receiving aid from the Presbytery's funds.

Thirty-three churches were served, and one mission point. Five hundred and twenty-eight services were held. There were 100 professions of faith, and 82 accessions to the church on profession. Thirty-five united with the church by letter. Twenty-eight Sabbath Schools were maintained. One splendid new church, at Erwin, was erected. All the churches made Every Member Canvass.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. That a commission, with power to act, be appointed to consider the disorganization of the Aberdeen Church, if it be deemed advisable, the commission being composed of the following men: Rev. Messrs. G. F. Kirkpatrick, S. H. Fulton and J. C. B. McLaughlin, with Ruling Elders Mac Cameron and Laurence Calhoun.
2. That Rev. L. Smith be permitted to serve the Rock Branch and Cameron Hill churches as stated supply for another year.
3. That a committee, consisting of Rev. Messrs. A. R. McQueen and J. F. Menius, with Ruling Elder .... Johnson, be appointed to visit the churches at Hebron and Mt. Carmel to consider the advisability of dissolving these churches.
4. That Rev. L. A. McLaurin be permitted to serve the church at Fairmont on terms agreeable to himself and the church, and the other churches of this group, till the Fall meeting of Presbytery.
5. That the way be adjudged clear for Rev. L. A. McLaurin to accept the call as pastor of Iona Church.
6. That the apportionment to the salaries of all Home Mission workers be reduced 10%, in accordance with the action of the Presbytery several years ago.
7. That the Synod's Committee on Home Missions be asked to appropriate the same amount to the four fields of the Presbytery receiving aid from this source as last year.
8. That Rev. L. A. McLaurin visit the Montpelier Church and confer with them about securing a supply for their pulpit.
9. That in response to the question as to the ownership of the manse at Hemp, your committee recommends that the Presbytery declare the Elise Church and the Elise High School to be the joint owners of the manse.

Respectfully submitted,

A. R. McQUEEN, Chairman.

The Committee on Religious Education made the following report which was adopted:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Your Committee on Religious Education would report:

The business part of our publishing houses in Richmond and Texarkana have had a very successful year notwithstanding the general depression and rather poor collections. It was necessary to sell $30,000 of the Reserve Fund Bonds to meet the increased expense of printing periodicals and keeping workers in the field.

We would call attention to the greatly improved literature now being produced for our Young People's Work in the Kingdom Highways and the Program Builder.

The committee wishes us to call attention to the fact that the church envelopes for collection are cheaper at our own publication house and we should encourage buying from our own committee. Also to the fact that all churches should buy the Sunday School literature and hymn books at Richmond.

The report for the Sunday School and Young People's Work is as follows:

Your Committee on Sabbath Schools submits the following report:

We have examined the reports of 78 churches in the Presbytery and find a total membership of 10,429.

There were added to the communion from the Sabbath Schools 257.

The number of churches reporting no additions from the Sabbath School is 42.

The total gifts to denominational benevolences during the past year from the Sabbath Schools was $4,947.00.

Only 8 Sabbath Schools have a workers or teachers conference.

We recommend the following:

1. Superintendents urge pupils to memorize Bible, hymns and catechism.
2. That Sabbath Schools make greater effort to have regular workers conference.
3. That Sabbath Schools be urged to contribute to all benevolent causes.

Respectfully submitted,
H. W. KOELLING, Chairman.

Fayetteville, N. C., June 9, 1931.

Fayetteville Presbytery met in the First Presbyterian Church at 10:00 A. M., and was called to order by Rev. A. R. McQueen, the last Moderator present, and led in prayer by Rev. G. W. Hanna.

The following were present and enrolled:

Ministers: L. Smith, A. R. McQueen, R. A. McLeod, G. F. Kirkpatrick, C. M. Gibbs, T. C. Croker, F. M. Bain, G. W. Hanna, Neill McInnis, W. M. Fairley, W. M. McLeod, F. C. Symonds, D. M. Clark, W. S. Golden, E. L. Barber, Eugene Alexander—16.

Ruling Elders: R. M. Prior, Fayetteville First—1.

Barbecue Church was on request granted permission to change the terms of its call to pastor from $400 per annum to $300.

A request from the Centre Church asking that they be allowed to secure the pastoral services of Rev. G. W. Hanna, as stated supply, at a salary of $800 per annum, was received. Presbytery granted the request and Mr. Hanna was appointed stated supply of the church until the stated spring meeting.

The commission to dissolve the Aberdeen Church made the following report, which was approved:

The Commission appointed by Fayetteville Presbytery to consider the matter of dissolution of the Aberdeen Church, composed of Rev. G. F. Kirkpatrick, Chairman, Rev. J. C. B. McLaughlin, Rev. S. H. Fulton, and Elders L. Calhoun and Mac Cameron, all of whom were present, met at Aberdeen Church Sunday afternoon, May 17, at 3:00 o'clock.

After a sermon by Rev. S. H. Fulton the Commission was constituted with prayer, and Mac Cameron named as its Secretary. Inquiry was made as to the present condition of the Church, and of its prospects. Of a total membership of eighteen, fifteen were present, and these without a dissenting vote, expressed themselves in favor of dissolution, and acting upon this expression of the will of the membership, the Commission voted to dissolve the Church.

A. H. McDonald, former Clerk to the Session, was appointed to issue letters of dismission to members of the Church to other churches of their choice, and to transfer any who make no request for letters of dismission by July 1st, to the Church in the Pines. Mr. McDonald was also placed in charge of the Church property and given permission to make disposition of same, and that funds arising from the sale of such property be given into the hands of the Home Missions Committee of Fayetteville Presbytery.

The Commission adjourned with prayer.

Respectfully submitted,

MAC CAMERON, Secretary.

The commission to install Rev. L. A. McLaurin pastor of the Iona Church reported this duty performed on May 17, 1931. The report was approved.

Mr. John Kennedy was appointed a Trustee at Large of the Elise Academy.

At his own request candidate A. B. Williford was granted a letter of dismissal to Lexington Presbytery.

Mr. J. M. Smith of the Rex Church was introduced to Presbytery and asked to be received under care of the Presbytery as a candidate for the ministry. He was recommended by the session of the Rex Church. After an examination as required by the Book of Church Order, which was satisfactory, he was received under care of the Presbytery as a candidate and assigned to the direction and supervision of the Committee on Christian Education.

At the request of the pastor, Rev. W. S. Golden, the Eureka Church was allowed to change the terms of their call from $800 per annum to $600 per annum, effective from April 1, 1931.

The chairman, Rev. W. M. McLeod, of the special committee on revision of the manual of Presbytery presented the report of the committee in the form of a proposed new manual. The report was read and approved, thus making it the official manual of the Presbytery.

The following recommendations of the special committee on manual were adopted:

1. That the new manual be put into operation immediately.
2. That a moderator be elected today to serve until his successor is elected at the Fall meeting of Presbytery.
3. That the new moderator appoint a permanent Committee on Nominations, who will at the Fall meeting of the Presbytery present the names of the members of the various executive and permanent committees as provided in the new manual.
4. That the committee on program for the Fall meeting of the Presbytery be composed as follows: The Moderator, Chairman, Stated Clerk, and chairmen of the following committees (said chairmen to be same as listed in the minutes of the Spring meeting of Presbytery), Home Missions, Religious Education, Stewardship, Men's Work, Woman's Work.

5. That the committee on program prepare a General Docket to be printed in the new manual.

6. That the manual be not printed until after the Fall meeting of Presbytery so any necessary changes in it may be made and included in the printed copy.

W. M. McLEOD, Chairman.

By rising vote the Presbytery expressed its appreciation of the services of the members of the special committee on manual.

In keeping with the provision of the new manual that a Moderator be elected at the close of the stated meeting to hold office until his successor be elected, it was ordered that a Moderator be now elected to hold office until the close of the next stated meeting, or until his successor be elected. Rev. W. M. McLeod was elected Moderator.

The following committee was appointed to consider the question of incorporating the Presbytery under a board of Trustees and placing all the property of the Presbytery under the supervision of this board: Rev. F. C. Symonds, Messrs C. G. Rose, A. R. McEachern and J. W. McLauchlin. (Eugene Alexander was appointed to succeed Mr. Symonds at the stated meeting.)

The commission to visit the Hebron and Mt. Carmel Churches made the following report which was approved:

1. That the Mt. Carmel Church be dissolved.
2. That the Hebron Church be continued and an effort be made to enlarge the influence and service of the church.

On motion it was ordered that the Mt. Carmel Church be dissolved and the pastor, Rev. Eugene Alexander, was appointed to grant the members letters of dismissal to the churches of their choice.

It was ordered that the commission be continued to co-operate with the pastor, Rev. Eugene Alexander, in working out a program for the Hebron Church.

It was reported to the Presbytery that Hon. J. W. McLauchlin of Raeford is critically ill and it was ordered that the stated clerk write a letter to Mr. McLauchlin expressing to him the sympathy of the Presbytery in his suffering and assuring him of the Presbytery's appreciation of his many years of faithful services in the work of the Presbytery and its prayer that he be spared for many more years. It was also ordered that Mr. Mc-

Lauchlin be remembered in special prayer in the closing prayer of the Presbytery.

It was ordered that the following statement be recorded in expression of appreciation of Ruling Elder J. McN. Johnson, who shortly before his decease sent to the Presbytery a gavel made from cedar wood taken from the church yard of old Bethesda, near Aberdeen, N. C.:

> Hon. J. McN. Johnson was a lover and student of Scotch history, and he did all he could to stimulate in the hearts of the sons and daughters of the early Scotch settlers of the Cape Fear section a proper appreciation of their great inheritance from their sturdy Highland ancestors. He was a poet of ability and put into a number of his productions fine bits of history and noble sentiment from the records of their lives. His chief interest was in the part the Church had played in their lives and the contribution they made to the Church, especially the Presbyterian Church in the bounds of Fayetteville Presbytery. Naturally this interest found its greatest expression in his own particular church, Old Bethesda at Aberdeen. So in keeping with his great love for the best in history, and in an effort to show his deep appreciation of what this ancient House of Mercy and its ministry had meant to him, and also to link it with the present activities of the Presbytery; Mr. Johnson, near the close of his earthly journey, prepared a gavel from the wood of a cedar tree taken from the Old Bethesda Church yard and sent it to the Presbytery as a gift. It was hoped that his health would permit him to attend a meeting of the Presbytery and in person present it, but he was never able to do this, and so the Presbytery has accepted the gift and hereby records its appreciation of the love, loyalty and labors of this humble and faithful servant of the Lord.—Stated Clerk.

The minutes of today's session were read and approved.

Presbytery adjourned to meet in stated session in the Bensalem Church on September 22, 1931, at 10:00 A. M., closing with prayer by Rev. L. Smith.

Signed, A. R. McQUEEN, Moderator.
C. M. GIBBS, Permanent Clerk.

Attest, R. A. McLEOD, Stated Clerk.

The Presbytery then received Mr. McNatt as a candidate for the ministry and licensed him as a probationer in the form and manner prescribed in the Book of Church Order. Rev. J. B. The Committee on Foreign Missions submitted the following report which was adopted:

Last year 4,748 people were received into our church in the six countries designated our Foreign field. This was a gain of 441 over the previous year. The income from native sources was $420,528. Almost 90,000 attended the Sunday Schools. 320,000 patients came to the hospitals. This in spite of a five per cent cut last year. Now a 33 1/3 per cent cut is in force. The workers are converting large portions of their salaries to keep from having to close some of the missions and outposts. Two things are evident everywhere, the working of God's Holy Spirit and the sacrificing of the workers. What shall we do about it? We offer one comprehensive.

RECOMMENDATION:

That in each church in our Presbytery the pastor read to the congregation the recommendations made by the Foreign Missions Committee at Synod, making such comments as he deems wise.

J. F. MENIUS, Chairman.

The Committee on Assembly's Home Missions submitted the following recommendations from the annual report of the Assembly's Committee which were adopted:

After carefully considering the critical financial situation revealed in the Treasurer's report the following actions were taken:

1. That this action be communicated to all Synodical and Presbyterial Superintendents, and that they be urged in this great emergency to make every effort to increase the Assembly's Home Mission income.
2. That the Home Mission Chairmen of the aid-receiving Presbyteries be requested to transmit to the workers in their fields the action of the committee concerning the payment of appropriations.

The Committee on Christian Education and Ministerial Relief made the following report which was adopted:

The Committee on Christian Education and Ministerial Relief submits the following report:

On account of the lack of funds the office force of the Executive Committee at Louisville has been drastically reduced; aid for candidates for the ministry and relief funds for infirm ministers and the widows and orphans of those ministers who have died, have been reduced to the lowest point in many years. Loans from the Student Loan Fund have been refused to more than sixty young people; and appropriations for student pastors and workers in state institutions have been withdrawn or so reduced that some of these workers have been permitted to leave.

Some progress has been made in the establishment of the Ministers' Annuity Fund, about one-fourth of the Accrued Liability Fund having been subscribed. The General Assembly has recommended that the churches rally to this cause and complete the fund during the week beginning October 18, 1931.

We recommend that Candidate Frank S. Blue's request for aid to the extent of $125.00 from the Committee of Christian Education and Ministerial Relief be approved, and that Candidate Barney McLean's request for loan of $100 be approved.

G. F. KIRKPATRICK, Chairman.

The Committee on Bible Cause submitted the following report which was adopted:

Our splendid agency for the publication and distribution of the Word of God has made a record for the year 1930 that speaks eloquently of the great work accomplished under God's blessing by the American Bible Society. During the year the society distributed 11,065,225 copies of the Bible and Testaments and portions of the Scriptures. Since its institution in 1816 the society has distributed more than 227,000,000 copies of the Scriptures in more than 30 languages of the world. In 1930 portions of the Bible were printed in five different languages for the first time.

The resolutions adopted by the General Assembly at Montreat are recommended for the adoption of the Presbytery. They are as follows:

Whereas, The American Bible Society, in carrying on its work of increasing the circulation of the Scriptures, is engaged in a task essential to the whole Christian enterprise, be it

Resolved, 1. That we endorse heartily the efforts of the American Bible Society in its program of encouraging a wider circulation of the Holy Scriptures, and that we prayerfully remember the Society before the throne of grace.

2. That this body take recognition of the fact that our denomination has officially recommended that 0.5 of one per cent of each church's annual benevolence receipts be sent to the American Bible Society, either through the Central receiving agency or directly.

3. That "Universal Bible Sunday" be endorsed and observed by the churches on a date to be fixed by the General Assembly; that, inasmuch as Sunday, December 6th, has been designated as the time for observing Bible Sunday by other Christian denominations, your Committee recommends that this date be the one fixed by our General Assembly for this purpose, if this can be done without prejudice to other causes of the Church.

Respectfully submitted,
R. G. MATHESON, Chairman.

The Committee on Minutes of the General Assembly made the following report which was adopted:

We call the attention of the Presbytery to the following matters recorded in the minutes of the General Assembly and sent down to the Presbytery for such action as the Presbytery deems wise:

1. On plan for the change of pastorates.
2. An amendment to the Book of Church Order.

Respectfully submitted,
R. G. MATHESON.

After consideration of these matters, the Presbytery by vote gave its consent to the plan proposed for change of pastorates as set forth on page 79 of the minutes of the 1931 meeting of the General Assembly, and also gave its consent to the proposed change in the Book of Church Order whereby any particular church, by majority vote of the congregation, may elect its Ruling Elders and Deacons for a limited period of time.

The Permanent Committee of Educational Institutions submitted its report. Pending the adoption of the report, representatives of the Presbyterian Junior College and Elise Academy were heard. Presbytery commended the Presbyterian Junior College to the interest and liberality of our people and churches. Presbytery expressed its appreciation for the interesting program which Elise Academy gave before Presbytery.

The report as adopted is as follows:

Your Committee on Educational Institutions recommends that:

Rev. A. R. McQueen be reelected as trustee of Davidson College.

Rev. R. G. Matheson, Mr. Talbot Johnson and Mr. D. A. McLaughlin be reelected as trustees of Elise Academy.

Respectfully submitted,
W. L. FOLEY, Chairman.

On request of President H. G. Bedinger, the following resolutions were adopted:

1. That the Presbytery urge pastors and sessions to co-operate with the Alumnae Association in their efforts to collect pledges and secure new contributions to the Financial Standardization Movement of Flora Macdonald College, by having a Flora Macdonald College day the first or second Sunday in November and encouraging them in their efforts.

2. That the President of the College or his representative be authorized by Presbytery, subject to consent of pastors and sessions of the churches, to present the needs of the college and take special offerings for current expenses or pressing debts, at such times as may be convenient.

The Committee on Orphans' Home submitted the following report which was adopted:

Your Committee on Orphanage at Barium Springs submits the following report:

Your Committee would emphasize the needs of Barium Springs at this time, and calls attention to the fact that the receipts for the first five months of this church year are $6,600 less than for the same months last year, and that our Presbytery stands next to the bottom of the list in the amount given per member.

Other matters concerning the institution have been set forth clearly in the Barium Messenger and at the recent meeting of Synod, with these you are all familiar.

Your Committee would recommend that every church be urged by the Presbytery to hold a Thanksgiving Service with a view to a full and plenteous offering for the Orphanage as an offering to God from whom cometh every good and perfect gift. That where it is not practicable to hold a Thanksgiving Service, or where a great many of the members will be absent, that this offering be made the Sabbath before or after Thanksgiving.

Let us not forget the Sunday School offering on the fourth Sunday of each month.

Respectfully submitted,

F. M. BAIN, Chairman.

The Committee on Presbytery's Home Missions submitted its report which was received and the recommendations taken up seriatim. The report as adopted is as follows:

Your Committee on Home Missions makes the following report:

The nine fields comprising the Presbytery's Home Mission work are all occupied, and the reports from the work indicate faithful service by the men.

In addition to the 33 churches in the fields, 3 mission points were served. One new point has been devolepd in the field served by Rev. M. D. Newton, and Rev. Dixon McDonald reports an additional mission point. Five hundred and thirty-seven services were held. There were 125 professions of faith, and 100 additions to the church by profession. Forty-five were added to the church by letter.

One new Sabbath School was organized on Rev. M. D. Newton's field, and one in Rev. Dixon McDonald's field. Thirty-four Sabbath Schools are maintained. Three fields report repairs on churches and manses. Twenty-seven churches made the Every Member Canvass, and one paid its apportionment in full.

In the township in which three of Rev. Dixon McDonald's churches are located, there are about 2700 people. Of this number, about 1900 adults and young people who have reached the age of responsibility are unsaved. Of this number 60% are favorable to the Presbyterian church.

On this field, Miss Mary Janet McNeill, Mr. McDonald's assistant, reports that she has acted as superintendent in Sabbath Schools 22 times; taught 56 Sabbath School lessons; addressed 45 Young People's Societies; held one Daily Vacation Bible School; made 1200 visits to homes and hospitals; personally interviewed 200 persons, endeavoring to persuade them to accept Christ; helped in 48 other services, leading the music, teaching the young people to sing, and playing the instrument. In this time, April 1st to September 21st, she traveled thousands of miles.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. That Miss Mary Janet McNeill be employed as assistant in Rev. Dixon McDonald's field till the April meeting of Presbytery at a salary of $75.00 per month.
2. That the Presbytery will not supplement the salary of any worker who is getting from other sources as much as $1600 per annum and a manse, this policy to begin October 1st, 1931. It is to be understood that this policy is to obtain only so long as financial conditions render it necessary.

3. That we co-operate with the Men's Work Committee in the Evangelistic Campaign.

4. That Rev. H. W. McLauchlin and Mr. C. T. Carr be invited to hold three conferences in the bounds of the Presbytery before the Spring meeting of Presbytery.

The Committee on Religious Education submitted the following report which was adopted:

The chairman of this committee attended some sessions of the Conference on Leadership Training at Montreat this Summer. He also attended the Pastor's Conference and heard discussions on "Training Leaders" and Young Peoples Work. He examined the most recent literature prepared by our committee in Richmond. He also observed the practice work of the Sunday School in the various departments. He held conferences with Dr. E. B. Paisley and Dr. John L. Fairley about our Sunday School and Young Peoples Work in the Presbytery. His impressions drawn from these conferences and observations were that we are practically asleep in Fayetteville Presbytery as to the most important work of Religious Education and that possibly your committee is in a measure responsible for this lethargy.

The pastor is, by virtue of his office, the logical person to conduct the discovery and training of leaders in his own church. The effectiveness, extent, and permanency of his work will be determined by the leaders he has trained. Jesus Christ extended his work by training the twelve. The hardest work a pastor has to do is to train leaders. With this task, preaching is comparatively easy, and furnishes a line of least resistance which most of us choose to travel. It takes steady, constant study, patience, work and more work. Someone has said that the first step in being a good dog trainer was to know more than the dog.

When we know the rapid strides which the State is making in public education, we feel that the church is lagging behind and that our young people soon detect the difference with a diminishing regard for religious education.

We are sorry to report that your committee has done nothing as to Sunday School work in the Presbytery except compile statistics, having done no constructive work, except talk about putting a director of Religious Education in the Presbytery, and also talk about putting on a Leadership Training School in connection with the Young Peoples Work at Flora Macdonald College.

We are glad to report that we are working for the Young Peoples Societies. A splendid conference was held at Red Springs in June. The best we have yet held. 165 were in attendance. Dr. T. H. Currie of Texas was the main teacher and lecturer in Bible. We felt that we put on a real school. In addition to the courses in Bible we taught the Young People's Program, Home and Foreign Mission, Stewardship and Church History and Doctrine. We hope from year to year to make this school broader in its scope, reaching a larger constituency and contributing in a big way in training leaders for our churches. We wish for better patronage and trust that the conference will be helpful to every pastor and church. Mr. W. M. McLeod and Miss Kate Sutton of the Presbyterial deserve especial thanks for their work in arranging the conference.

A joint meeting of your committee of Religious Education and a committee from the Presbyterial was held in Raeford September 18th. We had what we hope was a fruitful discussion of the problems of Religious Education.

We would make the following recommendations:

1. That the two divisions of the Committee on Religious Education known as the Sunday School and Young Peoples divisions be discontinued and that it be continued as a committee of seven members on Religious Education.

2. That the Annual Business Meeting of Young People of Fayetteville Presbytery be held in Raeford in March.

2. That Presbytery approve the joint meeting of the Religious Educational Committees of the Presbytery and the Presbyterial and the Young Peoples Council for the purpose of appointing adult advisors in each district of the Presbytery to co-operate with the vice presidents of the Young People in promoting the work in the Presbytery.

4. That a special committee with Dr. W. M. Fairley as chairman confer with Mr. Claud H. Carr and Dr. H. W. McLauchlin with a view of holding three or more conferences in the Presbytery in October, or some early date, on the subject of the Country Church and Religious Education, and that pastors, elders, deacons and Sunday School workers be urged to attend these conferences.

5. That the chairman of this committee be instructed to confer with Mr. C. T. Carr with the purpose of arranging to hold as many Teacher Training Classes as possible within the bounds of Fayetteville Presbytery.

6. That the committee be instructed to hold a Leadership Training School, if possible, at Flora Macdonald in conjunction with, or just after the conference in June and that the pastors be urged to attend this school and interest their Sunday School officers and teachers in attending.

7. That the chairman of Religious Education confer with Dr. John L. Fairly for the purpose of having five or six individuals in the Presbytery qualify as accredited teachers so they may assist in training leaders in our Presbytery.

Respectfully submitted,
W. M. FAIRLEY, Chairman.

Presbytery took recess until 1:30 P. M.

Second Day—Afternoon Session

Presbytery reconvened at 1:30 P. M. and engaged in devotional exercises conducted by Rev. R. A. McLeod.

The Committee on Men's Work submitted its report which was adopted and is as follows:

The Committee on Men's Work would call the attention of the Presbytery to the possibilities for usefulness of this organization in our churches. This movement is growing in every denomination. Let us not fall behind our brethren of other denominations in developing the great resources latent in the manpower of the church.

To promote the cause of Men's Work your committee proposes that a conference on Men's Work be held at Flora Macdonald College on the last Tuesday in October for men and pastors of all the churches of the Presbytery; that evangelism be given a large place on the program and plans presented for enlisting men in the simultaneous program of evangelism adopted by the Synod; that Men's Work be presented as an instrument in God's hands to carry out this and other great objectives of his work.

We recommend that the Presbytery affirm in general the Program of Evangelism and the seven recommendations adopted by Synod at Charlotte. (See minutes of Synod.)

That Presbytery approve the plan for a Conference on Men's Work at Flora Macdonald College and charge this Committee on Men's Work with its promotion.

Respectfully submitted,
H. G. BEDINGER, Chairman.

The following resolution was adopted: That the Men of the Church in session at Flora Macdonald College pay to the College 35c per plate for the dinner.

The Committee on the Incorporation of Presbytery was continued and the vacancy created by the removal of Rev. F. C. Symonds, chairman of this committee, was referred to the Committee on Nominations.

The following resolution was adopted:

That the following be added under head of duties of Stewardship Committee:

It shall be the duty of the Committee, with the pastor's consent, to urge upon the local Sessions and Boards of Deacons of delinquent churches their obligation to support their local churches, and pay promptly the salaries promised their pastors; this to be done by correspondence, conferences, delegations or otherwise means. Expenses not exceeding fifty dollars a year shall be provided out of the Presbyterial Tax.

It was ordered that the Committee on Nominations be taken from the list of Permanent Committees and made a Standing Committee to be appointed by the Moderator, the term of office of this Committee to run concurrently with the term of office of the Moderator.

It was ordered that Presbytery meet in Adjourn Session at the time and place of the meeting under the direction of the Stewardship Committee as provided in report of that Committee.

The Stated Clerk was instructed to have 500 copies of the Minutes of Presbytery printed.

The Committee on Leave of Absence submitted the following report which was adopted:

The following have been excused:

After Tuesday afternoon session: C. G. Vardell, Alex McNeill, L. P. Bain, R. W. Culbertson, J. P. Sweett John A. McKay, H. W. Koelling, N. A. Currie, W. A. Thompson, W. E. Snipes, J. W. Campbell, A. L. Seawell, M. D. McNeill.

After Tuesday night session: D. A. Currie, G. O. McBroom.

After Wednesday noon: Angus Blue, G. E. Moorehouse.

The following ministers have been excused from this meeting of Presbytery: W. J. Huneycutt, J. B. Black, A. D. Carswell, and Dixon McDonald.

Respectfully submitted,

F. M. BAIN, Chairman.

It was ordered that the list of the Commissioners to the General Assembly including both ministers and ruling elders for the past ten years be printed in the minutes of the Spring Meeting of Presbytery.

The following Commissioners to the General Assembly, 1932, were elected:

PRINCIPALS: Ministers—W. S. Golden, E. B. Carr, A. D. Carswell. Ruling Elders—L. L. McGoogan, M. C. McDonald, D. A. Huffines.

ALTERNATES: Ministers—W. J. Hunneycutt, I. N. Clegg, M. D. McNeill. Ruling Elders—J. T. Johnson, J. S. McRae, R. W. McLean.

Rev. W. S. Golden was elected Moderator and installed in office.

Presbytery rescinded the rule requiring that vacancies on Board of Trustees of Educational Institutions be referred to the Committee on Educational Institutions and directed that these vacancies be referred to the Committee on Nominations.

The special Committee on the Manual was continued until the Manual is printed.

The minutes of today's sessions were read and approved.

By order of the Presbytery the final roll call was omitted.

Presbytery adjourned with the singing of a hymn, prayer and the benediction to meet in connection with the annual meeting for prayer under the auspices of the Stewardship Committee and in Stated Meeting at Flora Macdonald College on April 12, 1932, at 11:00 A. M.

A petition from the congregation of the Lakeside Church was presented asking the Presbytery to consolidate the Lakeside Church with the Church in the Pines. Evidence was presented showing that the Church in the Pines concurred in the desire for a consolidation of the two churches. After due consideration, the request was granted and the two churches were consolidated under the name Church in the Pines.

The Special Committee on Incorporation of Fayetteville Presbytery made the following report which was adopted:

To Fayetteville Presbytery:

Your committee heretofore appointed to look into and consider the suggestion that Fayetteville Presbytery apply to the State of Norh Carolina for a Charter, duly incorporating the Presbytery under the law of the State, respectfully report:

1. We have carefully considered the suggestion, and cannot at this time see any urgent reason for incorporating the Presbytery. All transactions relating to the real estate belonging to the Presbytery can be, and has been, properly handled by the Trustees of the Presbytery.

2. We recommend that no action be taken looking to the incorporation of the Presbytery.

Respectfully submitted,
EUGENE ALEXANDER, Chairman.

The Permanent Committee on Assembly's work made the following reports which were adopted:

REPORT OF PERMANENT COMMITTEE ON ASSEMBLY'S WORK

1. REPORT ON FOREIGN MISSIONS

This has been one of the most successful year's work in our various fields, viewed from the spiritual standpoint. There were 5,211 additions on profession of faith, the largest ingathering since 1924. The total number of communicants is the largest ever reported in our work, 51,820. The Sunday School membership of 99,153 exceeds by 10,000 the highest figure previously reported. There were 44,980 students in our various schools; more than in any other year since our work was begun. Patients treated in our hospitals numbered 298,001, a figure exceeded only once before.

The Gospel is being preached to large congregations in all our fields, and the demand for missionaries and teachers cannot be met. Glorious as the fruits of missions have been, the outstanding fact is the vast proportions of the unfinished task. Here is a work that is big enough and glorious enough to challenge the faith of the church.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. That every minister call the attention of his congregation to the wonderful way in which God is blessing our work, and to the vast proportions of the unfinished tasks.

2. That churches, societies and individual assume, wherever practicable, definite parts of the Foreign Mission work. That our Sunday Schools and young people be asked to carry their part of the responsibility of the work.

3. That every church in the Presbytery be requested to observe the Week of Prayer and Self-denial for Foreign Missions, and that a school of missions be held wherever practicable.

4. That we remember from our pulpits, the great work in our prayers.

Respectfully submitted,

F. M. BAIN, Chairman.

2. REPORT ON ASSEMBLY'S HOME MISSIONS

Through the agency of Assembly's Executive Committee of Home Missions the gospel was preached in 1002 communities, 5,354 persons were added on profession, and 2,490 by letter. The Presbyteries receiving aid report 9 new churches and 47 new Sunday schools organized ,and 19 Mission churches brought to self-support.

On April 1, 1931, appropriations were reduced an average of 10 per cent. On October 1, a cash basis was inaugurated which necessitated another reduction of 10 per cent. and this applied also to the office workers.

Through drastic economy, cuts in workers' salaries, and the use of some special undesignated funds, all obligations for the year were paid, and the bank indebtedness reduced $18,500. And all of this done in spite of the fact that the total receipts for the year were only $412,786, or $51,861 less than the previous year.

In five years one-third of Assembly's Home Mission income has been wiped out, and no other agency of the Church is caring for the work which the Committee was compelled to give up. Yet, never did the nation need the message and the ministry of Home Missions more than today.

The following recommendations are offered:

1. That Presbytery approve and enter into the Assembly-wide Evangelistic Campaign for 1933.
2. That Presbytery's Home Mission Committee be urged to bear in mind this Evangelistic year, and seek by every method possible to awaken interest in the unsaved within our bounds.
3. That October 12—November 30 be designated as Home Mission Study Season, with every congregation using the official book, "The Red Man's Trail," and that November 13-20 be the Week of Prayer and Self-denial for Assembly's Home Missions in all of our churches.

Respectfully submitted,

D. M. CLARK, Chairman.

3. REPORT ON CHRISTIAN EDUCATION AND MINISTERIAL RELIEF

Your Committee on Christian Education and Ministerial Relief submits the following report:

That owing to financial conditions, the Assembly's Committee has decided that maximum loans to candidates for the ministry next year be $75.00 instead of $100.00 and that the maximum loans from the Student Loan Fund be $100.00 instead of $150.00 and there is grave danger of further reductions in the meager amounts appropriated to aged ministers and widows.

That Dr. Ben. R. Lacy commends our Candidates Jones, Poag and Sugg to the churches of this Presbytery for summer work, and Candidate Frank S. Blue for a pastorate.

RECOMMENDATIIONS:

1. That the application of Rev. H. M. Dixon for aid from the Ministerial Relief Funds be sanctioned.
2. That the applications of the following widows for aid from Ministerial Relief Funds be sanctioned: Mrs. Nettie Goodman, Mrs. Ada Henderlite, Mrs. Flora McIver, Mrs. Flora McLaughlin, Mrs. Lucy McLeod, and Mrs. Cornelia Steele, for $240.00 each.
3. That the Presbytery overture the General Assembly to require of those who receive aid from the Student's Loan Fund that they have their notes endorsed by responsible parties.

Respectfully submitted,

D. L. JONES, Chairman.

4. REPORT ON BIBLE CAUSE

The Committee on Bible Cause made a verbal report which was received as information.

Presbytery's Executive Committee on Stewardship submitted the following report which was adopted:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON STEWARDSHIP

Your Stewardship Committee makes the following report:

39 churches have subscribed $22,329.00 for benevolences.

42 churches have subscribed $38,153.00 for current expenses.

Many other churches report that the Every Member Canvass was made, but give no figures. Some churches explain that they are using the God's Acre plan and find it hard to estimate the amount of the pledges.

The chairman of your committee pursuant to the special duties imposed upon him last fall has visited six churches for conferences with pastors and officers. About fifteen churches were represented in these conferences. He has written about fifty letters, distributed some sixteen hundred "In Kind" pledge cards, and talked informally with a number of individuals about the God's Acre and God's Laws of Production for his church.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. We would recommend that all pastors and officers see that the canvass is completed, that a report of the same is sent to the Chairman of the Stewardship Committee, that he may send this to the Assembly's Committee.

2. We recommend that Presbytery look toward the securing of a Central treasurer in order that Benevolent gifts may be divided according to the proper percentages, and also to encourage more regular giving.

J. F. MENIUS, Chairman.

Presbytery's Home Mission Committee submitted its report. Pending the adoption of the report, Dr. E. E. Gillespie of Orange Presbytery was introduced to Presbytery and given the privilege of the floor. Dr. Gillespie spoke briefly of the Home Mission Work. The report as adopted is as follows:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON HOME MISSIONS FOR SIX MONTHS ENDING MARCH 31, 1932

There are ten groups of churches in the Home Mission field of the Presbytery at present as follows: Flat Branch, Church of the Covenant group, Rev. Eugene Alexander, pastor; Barbecue, Mt. Pisgah, Rev. E. B. Carr; Sardis, Westminster, Rev. D. M. Cooke; Erwin, Four Oaks, Rev. C. M. Gibbs; South Fayetteville, Sunnyside, Rev. W. J. Hunneycutt; Big Rockfish, Hope Mills, Rev. D. L. Jones; Providence, Spence, Rev. Dixon McDonald; Lillington, Cape Fear, Rev. J. F. Menius; Bensalem, Elise, Rev. M. D. Newton; Bluff, Benson, Rev. W. E. Snipes.

On these fields are 38 churches regularly served, and 3 mission points. One on Bluff-Benson field, and 2 on the Providence-Spence field. Repairs were made on the manses at Bluff and Hope Mills, and the Spence church has been repaired and painted.

The reports in hand show that the workers are doing faithful work in the maintenance of services and Sabbath Schools.

There were 57 additions to the church on profession of faith, and 34 by letter.

The attention of the Presbytery is called to the meagre financial support being given the men on these fields, and it is earnestly hoped that the stronger churches will help bear the infirmities of the weak.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. That the sum of $100 be loaned the Manly Church for the erection of Sunday School rooms as soon as this sum is received on the loans now outstanding.
2. Rock Branch and Cameron Hill Churches be permitted to secure the services of a ministerial student for the summer, on terms agreeable to the churches and the worker.
3. That the Synod be asked to make the same appropriations as last year, less the cut being made in all worker's salaries for this year.
4. That Rev. G. W. Hanna be asked to investigate the title to the Shannon Church property, and report to the next meeting of Presbytery.
5. That it is the understanding of the Presbytery that all appropriations to the Home Mission fields are based on the receipts for this cause, and will be paid as these funds are received, the Presbytery not being responsible for anything beyond these receipts.
6. That Rev. Neill McInnis be permitted to serve the Parkton Church till the next Spring meeting of Presbytery on terms agreeable to himself and the church.
7. That Rev. W. S. Golden be permitted to serve Priest Hill for one year on terms agreeable to himself and the church.
8. That Rev. A. R. McQueen be permitted to serve the Grove Church for one year from date on terms agreeable to himself and the church.

9. That Rev. G. W. Hanna be permitted to serve Centre Church for 1 year, $600 for 3 night services per month and 1 morning service per month, also a morning service each 5th Sunday.

Presbytery's Committee on Men's Work made report. Pending adoption of the report, Rev. S. H. Fulton was heard in the interest of the Men's Work. The report as adopted is as follows:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MEN'S WORK

The Committee on Mens' Work respectfully reports to the Presbytery of Fayetteville as follows:

There has been encouraging progress made in Men's Work during the past year. There are now 9 organizations of the Men-of-the-Church, one brotherhood and many men's Bible classes. New organizations have been set up at Vass, Hemp and Aberdeen.

A splendid meeting of the Men of the Presbytery was held at Flora Macdonald College where Men's Work and other departments of the church work, especially Evangelism, were presented in a very interesting and effective manner. Your committee plans to hold a similar conference in November.

As a special objective the Synod of North Carolina adopted a program of Evangelism for the present year by which an evangelistic effort should be had in every church in the Synod. The Men's Work department was especially charged with the duty of encouraging this effort. Reports have come to your committee from twelve churches in which the plan was carried out. One with an active Men-of-the-Church organization reports that no meeting was held during the year but a committee composed of eight men has pressed the work of Evangelism during the year with great success.

The most encouraging feature of Men's Work in Fayetteville Presbytery in the past year has been the successful demonstration of the value of this plan in a number of churches where it is being successfully carried out.. The Church of Laurinburg of which Rev. S. Hewitt Fulton is the pastor is a note-worthy example, and Mr. Fulton has been requested to make a short talk about the Work of the Men in his church.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. That Assembly plan of Men's Work be commended to the pastors and laymen of the churches of Fayetteville Presbytery.
2. .That the plan of the committee on Men's Work for a conference similar to the one held this year be approved.
3. That all churches which have not had some type of special Evangelistic effort since meeting of Synod be urged to cooperate with the Synod's program of Evangelism.
4. That pending action on this report Rev. S. Hewitt Fulton be heard.

Respectfully submitted,
HENRY G. BEDINGGER, Chairman.

The Committee on Woman's Work made the following report which was adopted:

There are 76 Auxiliaries in this Presbyterial with a membership of 3,597 which is a decrease of 200 from last year. There has also been a slight decrease in prayer bands and family altars, but a decided increase in the Mission Study Classes both Home and Foreign, as well as in the number of tithers.

Contributions were as follows:

Foreign Missions	$3,331

Total Benevolences		$13,599

The amount raised per capita was $6.. Total decrease compared with last year $3,966. Whereas, there has been a decrease of 15 per cent in gifts to all causes there has been an increase of 5 per cent to Benevolences made by 25 per cent. of the Auxiliaries. While the report shows a decrease in contributions we are glad to note a deepening of the spiritual life among the women of the church.

We recommend that the Auxiliaries be commended for their loyalty and faithfulness, and that the Presbytery send greetings to the Presbyterial which meets in Red Springs, April 21.

Respectfully submitted,
JAMES B. BLACK, Chairman.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

The Committee on Religious Education announces that a Training School conducted by Mr. C. T. Carr and the Young People's Conference will be held at Flora Macdonald College, June 20-25, 1932. Dr. Frank Morgan will be the Bible Teacher. Six dollars will be the charge for board and registration.

1. Sunday School Work:

Of the 92 churches in the Presbytery, 86 reported Sunday Schools. There were added to the church on confession from the Sunday Schools 302. 42 churches reported no additions from the Sunday School. The total gifts to denominational benevolences was $4,335. There were 15 reporting workers or teachers conferences held. Total Sunday School enrollment was 9,623.

One Sunday School gave a total of $670 to the Orphan's Home during the year and we would commend the Rock Branch Church for its liberality and urge others to lay greater stress on Orphanage Sunday in each month.

There are two passages from the Scripture that we would call to the special attention of the teachers and the pupils: 1st, 2 Tim. 2:15, "Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth." 2nd, 1 Tim. 4:16, "Take heed unto thyself, and unto thy doctrine (Teaching); continue in them; for in doing this thou shalt both save thyself, and them that hear thee."

2. Young People's Work:

Churches reporting—45.

44 Senior organizations—membership	1274
9 Intermediate organizations—membership	230
18 Junior organiations—Membership	398

Total organizations affiliated both with Young People of Church and Christian Endeavor	8
Total organizations affiliated in neither	3
Total organizations promoting Presbyterian Progressive Program	45
Total supported financial obligations of Assembly	34
Synod	32
Presbytery	26

RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. That all Young People's Organizations be urged to adopt "Kingdom Highways" as their program, stressing our own Church's Progressive Program.

2. That the attention of the leaders of our Young People's Work be called to the growing number of Organizations that are affiliated with the Young People of the Church and that they be urged to study this plan.

3. That the Young People's Organizations be urged to support the financial obligations assigned to the Young People by the Assembly, Synod, and Presbytery; attention being called to the fact that the Young People's Organizations appear to be slighting their own Presbytery's work.

Respectfully submitted,

W. M. McLEOD, Chairman.

The following memorial of the late Rev. R. A. McLeod was read by Dr. E. L. Siler and adopted by a rising vote. Presbytery was led in prayer by Rev. L. Smith in behalf of the family of Mr. McLeod.

REV. RANDALL ALEXANDER McLEOD

Brother McLeod was born, of pure Scotch ancestry, near Jackson Springs, N. C., October 2nd, 1879, and died, at Maxton, N. C., January 5, 1932. He was, therefore, in his 53rd year, and gave promise of many more years of usefulness in his Master's service; but He whom he loved and served had other plans for him and called him almost without warning, to a higher service.

A quotation from his last Will and Testament, written December 23, 1931, less than two weeks before his death—gives evidence of the strong, simple faith in his Saviour which characterized his whole life and which kept him steadfast to his purpose of making his life count the most possible in the service of his Lord. The quotation follows:

"First—when a boy of sixteen years of age, I committed the welfare of my soul to my Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. I have never found any reason to regret that act, and I still trust Him for all things needful in this life and the life to come. My soul and its eternal destiny are in His loving care. My highest desire for my loved ones is that they, by His grace shall hold fast to Him."

No wonder that a man with such faith could not give himself unreservedly to the ministry of the Gospel, that he could answer the call of his country, and of his Lord, to enlist as a chaplain in the army, and minister to the souls of the soldier boys at Camp Lee.

His preparation for his life work was made, first, at Raeford Institute, under Prof. John A. McLeod, a noted educator of those days. Then he took the full college course at Davidson, graduating in 1909. This was followed by three years at Union Seminary, from which he graduated in 1912. For one year he worked for Elise High school, raising funds for the administration building.

In April, 1913, he accepted calls to Galatia, Church of the Covenant (at Manchester) and Long Street. He served these churches until July 11, 1918, when he was appointed Chaplain by the U. S. Government, and served faithfully at Camp Lee until April 14, 1919. When honorably discharged from his country's service, he returned to the work of the pastorate, giving all of his time to Galatia church, until December, 1926. In the meantime he was happily married to Miss Lucy Worth Currie, a member of his congregation, who henceforth shared his lot and service with him.

On December 1st, 1916, he resigned the work at Galatia and became Bible instructor and pastor of the local church at Elise high school. While there he also served as pastor of Bensalem, and Spies Churches. During these two and a half years he was also business manager and superintendent of Elise School. No doubt his experience was fitting him for the splendid service he furnished Presbyterian Junior College, when in June, 1929, he became its acting president, and later was made permanent president. His great executive ability and untiring efforts were shown in the pioneer work he did during this summer in the assembling of his Faculty, securing students for the first year, and, with the splendid assistance of Dean Matheson, in mapping out the courses of study and fixing the curriculum.

During the two and a half years he remained at the helm, his consecration to the chosen work of Christian education, made itself felt not only in this institution and this community, but in the Presbytery and throughout the Synod. He showed great tact in dealing with faculty and students, and won the love and esteem of all. His wonderful aptitude for detail enabled him to stretch the dollar as far as possible, and had it not been for the necessity of using some of the operation funds for needed equipment and repairs of buildings, the college would be free of all debt today, except the bonded indebtedness, with which it started.

In addition to the many other duties with which his life was filled, he was also the efficient Stated Clerk of the Synod of North Carolina from 1925 until his death, and also Stated Clerk of Fayetteville Presbytery from 1924 until his sudden death ended these and all his earthly labors.

We greatly miss his guiding hand and brain in the affairs of the college. We miss his cheerful disposition and his unfailing spirit of optimism and faith in God, in the face of discouragements. As Elisha prayed that a double portion of the spirit of Elijah might rest upon him, so we earnestly pray that a double portion of Brother McLeod's spirit may rest upon the one chosen to carry on his work.

To his beloved wife and family we tender our sincere sympathy, and pray that our dear brother's prayers and desires for them may be abundantly realized.

E. L. SILER.

The names of deceased elders were read by the Stated Clerk and Presbytery directed that these names be inscribed on a page of the Minutes of Presbytery.

Rev. W. L. Foley offered his resignation as pastor of the St. Pauls Church to take effect May 15, 1932, and asked that the pastoral relations be dissolved. First Day—Afternoon Session Presbytery reconvened at 2:00 P. M., and engaged in devotional exercises.

The Committee on Christian Education and Ministerial Relief made the following report which was adopted:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CHRISTIAN EDUCATION AND MINISTERIAL RELIEF

Appropriations made by the Assembly's Committee for work among Presbyterian students in state colleges have been discontinued for lack of funds, although this is an important work.

The cause of Christian Education and Ministerial Relief for several years has received a smaller per cent of the amount asked by the General Assembly than any other of the Assembly's causes.

Four times in the last two years the meager amounts sent to aged ministers have been scaled and a more drastic cut will probably have to be made. Our churches are urged to recognize this cause as an urgent claim and help to avoid the necessity of further cut.

Recommendation: That Rev. E. L. Siler be recommended for the maximum amount of aid from Ministerial Relief Funds beginning December 1, 1932.

Respectfully submitted,

D. L. JONES, Chairman.

The Committee on Bible Cause made the following report which was adopted:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON BIBLE CAUSE

This report is concerned with the work of the American Bible Society which in its one hundred sixteenth year in performing its world-wide mission to fill the earth with the knowledge of the Lord as the waters cover the sea, in which great mission our church has assumed a definite part, reports that now the Bible has been translated wholly or in part into nine hundred twenty-four languages—nineteen more than last year—that 5,794 volumes in Braille, forty per cent more than in any previous year, and 9,375,000 copies of Bibles, Testaments and portions, less on account of shrunken receipts by more than a million and a half than last year, were distributed.

Your Committee recommends:

1. That the work of the American Bible Society be most heartily endorsed by the Presbytery.
2. That our pastors, as far as practicable, observe Sunday, December 4, 1932, as Universal Bible Sunday.
3. That our churches be urged to remit promptly their offerings for this most worthy cause.

Respectfully submitted,

M. D. NEWTON, Chairman.

The Committee on Assembly's Home Missions made the following report and pending its adoption, Dr. E.E. Gillespie, Superintendent of Synod's Home Missions, addressed the Presbytery on Evangelism. The report as adopted is as follows:

REPORT ON ASSEMBLY'S HOME MISSIONS

This is not the usual time for our report, but in view of the actions of the General Assembly and the Synod on the subject of a Church-Wide Evangelistic Campaign in 1933, we offer the following recommendations:

1. That the Presbytery reiterate its endorsement as recorded on page 273 of its Spring Minutes, and pledge its utmost co-operation to the Church-Wide Evangelistic Campaign planned by the General Assembly and the Synod, to be prosecuted during the year 1933.
2. That a preaching service of not less than one full week be held in every church and institution in the Presbytery.
3. That the voluntary service plan be employed, whereby the ministers serve without remuneration beyond expense.
4. That a liberal offering be asked for in every evangelistic meeting to defray the expense incurred through co-operation with Synod's committee.
5. That, since no campaign will run itself, a special committee of five be appointed, which will be entrusted with the duty of promoting the campaign in the Presbytery, one member of the Committee to be secretary-treasurer.
6. That this committee be urged to hold this fall group conferences with pastors, officers, women and young people, or in some other way to awaken general interest in the unsaved.

7. That this committee co-operate with pastors and officers in making out a schedule of dates and personnel, using our own pastors as far as possible, but with the privilege of inviting others if they see fit.

8. That reports of the results of the meeting, together with the whole contribution, be sent to the secretary-treasurer of this special committee by each pastor or evangelist, in case there is no pastor.

9. That the secretary-treasurer pay the expenses of the visiting minister or evangelist upon receipt from him of the amount.

10. That the secretary-treasurer secure from the Assembly's Sub-Committee uniform report blanks to be distributed to all of the pastors of churches in the Presbytery, and that he report from time to time to Synod's committee the progress of the campaign in the Presbytery.

11. That at the end of 1933, or the end of this special campaign, the treasurer of this special committee be authorized to place all the balance of money, after paying all obligations to the credit of Presbytery's Home Missions, Synod's Home Missions and Assembly's Home Missions, in equal amounts.

12. That this special committee be composed of the following men: Rev. A. R. McQueen, D. D., Chairman; Rev. L. A. McLaurin. Secretary-Treasurer. Rev. H. G. Bedinger, D. D., Mr. Ernest Graham, Mr. L. L. McGoogan, Rev. W. M. Fairley, D. D.

Respectfully submitted,

D. M. CLARK, Chairman.

The Committee on the Manual made the following report which was received and the recommendations taken up seriatum. Presbytery expressed its appreciation for the service which this Committee has rendered. The report as adopted is as follows:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MANUAL

1. That the time for the meeting of the Executive Committees be changed from Friday preceeding the Stated Meetings to the day of the opening of the Stated Meetings, they to meet at 9:00 A. M., at the church where Presbytery is to convene.

2. That the hour for the opening of the Stated Meetiings of Presbytery be changed from 10:00 A. M. to 11:00 A. M.

3. That the Presbytery elect one of its members to serve as the Chairman of the Program Committee.

4. That the Committee on Manual be discontinued—their work being completed.

Respectfully submitted,

MURDOCH McLEOD, Chairman.

The Stated Clerk was instructed to have the Manual printed as soon as funds for the same are available.

Presbytery took recess until 3:00 o'clock.

Presbytery reassembled at 3:00 o'clock P. M., and after devotional exercises heard the Presbyterial sermon preached by Rev. H. W. Koelling from the text Ezekiel 37:3. Following the sermon, the Communion of the Lord's Supper was observed. This service was conducted by Dr. E. L. Siler and Dr. W. M. Fairley.

The following memorial of Rev. R. W. Culbertson was read by Rev. W. S. Golden, and adopted by a rising vote:

MEMORIAL OF REV. R. W. CULBERTSON

Rev. Richard Watt Culbertson was born in Unity Township, Rowan County, N. C.. on March 26, 1860 of godly parentage. He attended Woodland High School, in that community, and afterwards Davidson College. At Davidson he completed the regular four years course in three years. and showed in a marked degree the studious habits which characterized his whole life. Then he attended Union Theological Seminary, Hampden-Sydney, Va., and graduated with his usual good record.

Brother Culbertson was licensed to preach by the Presbytery of Orange, his first charge being Buffalo and Bethel Churches, near Greensboro, which field he served for some nine years. He then became pastor of the Hawfield and Cross Road Churches, Orange Presbytery, which he served for sixteen years. His next charge was the Prospect and Center group, near Mooresville, which he served for seven years. From this work he went to the pastorate of Poplar Tent and Gilwood Churches, for a pastorate of five years. His last charge was the Central Steele Creek and Pleasant Hill field in Mecklenburg Presbytery, which he served with great consecration and blessing for nine years until ill health compelled him to resign and retire from active work. On April 1, 1931, Brother Culbertson came to live with his daughter near Union Church in Moore County, and transferred his membership to Fayetteville Presbytery. Here he passed away on August 24, 1932.

In his active ministry of forty-six years, this worthy minister rendered an honorable service whose full blessing to countless numbers of people will be revealed only in eternity. As a husband, father, pastor and friend, his life was a benediction to those with whom he came in contact. Brother Culbertson was an unusually fine student of the Bible. His knowledge was accurate. detailed and comprehensive. While he enjoyed study in many fields and would have been a successful professor in a college or seminary, his great delight was the study of the Bible. He loved it. The study of it was no task to him, but a joy. His kindly manner made him a teacher whom people loved to sit under. Graciousness and courtesy characterized his life.

Saddened by the loss of his devoted wife, and of his son who was killed in an airplane accident during the world war, but most of all by the necessity that he lay down the work he loved, he approached life's sunset with a gentle faith in the Lord who waits for his beloved in the land beyond earth's shadows. We believe that he has heard his Lord already say, "Well done, good and faithful servant, enter thou into the joy of thy Lord.'

W. S. GOLDEN, Committee.

The Committee on Synod's Educational Institutions made a verbal report. Prof. Chas. R. Hunter, representing the Presbyterian Junior College spoke in the interest of that college. Rev. Neill McInnis read a communication from Dr. B. R. Lacy, President of Union Theological Seminary in regard to the work of that institution. This communication, report and address were received as information .

The Committee on Synod's Home Missions submitted its report and pending its adoption, Dr. E. E. Gillespie, Superintendent of Synod's Home Missions, was heard in regard to our work among the Presbyterian students in state institutions. The report was received as information.

The Committee on Orphan's Home made report and pending its adoption Presbytery heard Rev. Eugene Alexander in behalf of the Orphanage at Barium Springs. The report as adopted is as follows:

REPORT ON THE ORPHANS' HOME

During the period April 1—September 30, the Home has lived within its income, except for using, with the consent of the donors, $7.000, which must eventually be returned to the endowment fund. The deficit is now $98,000, accumulated over a period of seven years.

The following steps have been taken to bring expenses within the constantly falling income; number of children reduced from 360 to 310; commercial course eliminated; kindergarten eliminated; small spending money allowance for children discontinued; worker discontinued who had been looking after clothing and gifts in kind; dining room and kitchen put under one matron, who works twelve to sixteen hours a day; state aid for school, in the sum of $6,000 accepted.

The Home was recently rated No. 1 among orphanages of North Carolina and South Carolina for excellence of treatment of children. Mr. Ernest Milton was recently elected Treasurer and Publicity Manager.

Churches are urged to send the 7 1-2 per cent apportioned for the Home, and make liberal Thanksgiving offering.

Respectfully submitted,

W. S. GOLDEN, Chairman.

The Committee on Home Missions submitted the following report which was adopted:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON HOME MISSIONS

For Six Months Ending September 30, 1932

Your Committee reports that the fields under its care are all occupied and the work is moving on in a satisfactory way. Notwithstanding the discouragements encountered by these workers, not one has weakened, but with courage and zeal they have carried on. Some of these men are receiving compensation so small that it is beginning to hamper them in their labor. They are not receiving enough to enable them to do the pastoral work that ought to be done. The Committee hopes that the pastors and elders will see to it that everything possible is done to alleviate these conditions.

Rev. Dixon McDonald is greatly in need of some one to help him in the Johnston County field. Work accomplished by the expenditure of great effort and much money is suffering because of the inability of the Committee to secure a helper. Miss Mary Janet McNeill, who did a splendid work for the young people, left the work at the close of the year because of your Committee's lack of funds.

The men who have been interviewed, state that the attendance upon services, especially on the Evangelistic services, has increased, but there seems to be no corresponding increase in the number of conversions. The workers report 83 confessions of faith, and 76 additions to the church on profession, with 27 by letter, making a total of 103 accessions to the church.

Two Sabbath Schools were organized on Rev. M. D. Newton's field, and one mission point served. In addition to the churches on these fields, 3 other mission points were served. New Sabbath School rooms were completed at Bensalem, and repair work was done on churches on Rev. E. B. Carr's field.

The Every Member Canvas was made in all but two of the churches.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. That Candidate T. A. Freeman be permitted to serve the churches at Olivia and Cameron Hill one sermon per month until the Spring meeting of Presbytery on terms agreeable to himself and the churches.

2. That every church within the bounds of the Presbytery be urged to establish Sunday Schools and mission points wherever possible, and whenever practical to send cars or busses out into outlying districts, and bring the people in to the Sabbath School and Church.

3. That the church at Shannon be dissolved, and that a committee be appointed to notify the members of the church of this action, and to issue letters to the members to the church of their choice.

4. That Rev. G. F. Kirkpatrick and Ruling Elder H. F. Monroe constitute the committee for this work.

Respectfully submitted,

A. R. McQUEEN, Chairman.

The Executive Committee of Religious Education made the following report whch was adopted:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

In many respects this has been the finest summer for Religious Education in Fayetteville Presbytery that your committee has known and for this we express our gratitude to Almighty God.

In June we held the largest and most successful conference for our young people in our history. There were 171 registered delegates in addition to about 30 helpers. We were especially fortunate this year in having Dr. Frank Crossly Morgan for Bible teacher and Inspirational Speaker. This man of God made a deep impression on all of his hearers.

More Vacation Church Schools were held within our bounds this year than in any previous year. We know of six churches which put on these schools this year for the first time and they had a total enrollment of nearly 800. Only 12 schools have been reported to your chairman. There are several others. These had an enrollment of 1,609 children.

Increased activity along this line is due in large measure to the fact that our Committee on Religious Education and Publication in Richmond paid the salaries of two splendid young ladies from the Training School who spent ten weeks in our midst putting on schools where there was real need for their services. These young women performed a wonderful service for the Kingdom in Fayetteville Presbytery.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. That Presbytery request the Chairman of the Committee on Religious Education to express its appreciation to Dr. John L. Fairley and his Committee for making it possible for us to have the Training School girls.
2. That we request the services of two young ladies for next summer.
3. The balance of $229.91 now to the credit of this Committee be donated to the Presbytery's Committee on Home Missions.

Respectfully submitted,

MURDOCH McLEOD, Chairman.

The Permanent Committee on Assembly's Work made the following reports, which were adopted:

REPORTS OF THE PERMANENT COMMITTEE ON ASSEMBLY'S WORK

I. Christian Education and Ministerial Relief

Your Committee on Christian Education and Ministerial Relief recommends:

1. That the application of Rev. H. M. Dixon for aid from Ministerial Relief Funds be sanctioned.

2. That the applications of the following widows for aid from Ministerial Relief Funds be sanctioned: Mrs. Nettie Goodman, Mrs. Ada Henderlite, Mrs. Flora McIver, Mrs. Flora McLauchlin, Mrs. Lucy McLeod, and Mrs. Cornelia Steele.

Respectfully submitted,
D. L. JONES, Chairman.

II. Foreign Missions

We have concluded the spiritually most fruitful year of our entire Foreign Mission history. The annual report from our various fields constitutes a continuous chronicle of fruits, progress, success and growth. There is every reason why our Church should be greatly encouraged by the unmistakable evidence of God's blessing. Aside from the one specter of finances there is everything to banish fear, to establish faith, and set our faces forward hopefully in the task.

Recommendations

1. We recommend that Presbytery engage in a season of prayer with special thanksgiving for God's signal blessing on the work during the year and earnest intercession for His continued favor and guidance in the work that is ahead.

2. We urge all pastors in the Presbytery to be faithful in holding up before their people the claims of these distant lands, the glorious conquest of the gospel, the need of the work for their earnest prayers and loyal support and the eternal obligation of every believer to act in obedience to our Lord's Missionary Command and Commission.

3. We recommend that Presbytery authorize the Chairman of Foreign Missions to remind every pastor and church in the Presbytery of the change in the Assembly's schedule whereby the Foreign Mission Study Season will be observed this year October 8th to November 19th, and the Week of Prayer and Self-Denial for Foreign Missions, November 12-19, urging all individuals, churches and societies to arrange for a vigorous and enthusiastic observance of these seasons.

Respectfully submitted,
F. M. BAIN, Chairman.

III. Home Missions

The Committee on Assembly's Home Missions recommends:

1. That all our churches be called to a recognition of the primary place of Home Missions in the growth of the Church and welfare of our country in these critical times when the very foundations are being tested.
2. That all our churches be urged to recognize their definite responsibility for the support of the particular Home Mission tasks assigned the Assembly's Committee.
3. That all pastors and sessions be urged to present this vital cause to their congregations in the periods assigned Assembly's Home Missions in the Church's schedule of activities and ask for a generous over and above offering in this time of pressing financial need.

Respectfully submitted,
R. G. MATHESON, Chairman.

Ministers Received

Rev. James Appleby presented a certificate of dismissal from the North Alabama Presbytery to this Presbytery, and Rev. G. T. Pace from the Presbytery of Charleston to this Presbytery. After an examination of these brethren as required by the Book of Church Order was approved as satisfactory, they were received and enrolled as members of this Presbytery after signing the obligations required of its ministers.

A call from the Maxton Church for the pastoral services of Rev. James Appleby was received and referred to the Committee on Calls and Supply.

The Executive Committees of Presbytery made reports. Pending the adoption of the report on Men's Work, several of the pastors spoke of the work of the men's organization in their churches. The reports as adopted are as follows:

REPORTS OF PRESBYTERY'S EXECUTIVE COMMITTEES

I. Report of the Home Missions Committee for Six Months Ending March 31, 1933

The Home Mission fields of the Presbytery have all been regularly supplied for the past six months, and the reports from the workers reveal that a steady progress is being made by most of them.

Thirty-six churches and five mission points have had regular services. There were fifty-six professions of faith in Christ, forty-one additions by profession and twenty-eight by letter. Thirty-five Sabbath Schools were maintained. With the exception of six churches, all made the Every Member Canvass. None paid the apportionments in full. The church and manse property is reported in good condition. Repairs were made on several manses and churches during the period.

Recommendations

1. That Cameron Hill and Rock Branch Churches be permitted to secure a worker for that field till the next Stated Meeting of Presbytery at no expense to the Presbytery, on terms agreeable to both parties.
2. That the Presbytery apply for the same amount of aid from the Home Mission Fund of the Synod as for last year.
3. That Rev. Neill McInnis be permitted to supply the Parkton Church until March 31, 1934, on terms agreeable to the minister and the church.
4. That Rev. G. W. Hanna be permitted to serve Centre Church until March 31, 1934, on the same terms as prevail at present.
5. That only those fields receiving aid from Home Mission Funds are considered Home Mission fields.

Respectfully submitted,
A. R. McQUEEN, Chairman.

II. Report of Stewardship Committee

Your Committee on Stewardship submits the following report: Forty churches made reports of Every Member Canvass. Forty-three churches made no report. Forty churches report subscriptions amounting to:

Benevolences	$ 8,140
Current Expenses	20,240

Recommendations

That Presbytery adopt the following percentage schedule for the distribution of benevolent funds for the year 1933-1934: (See back cover)

Respectfully submitted,
EUGENE ALEXANDER, Chairman.

III. Report of Committee on Religious Education

A. Department of Sunday School Work

Ninety churches reported a total enrollment of 10,500. There were added to the church on confession from the Sunday School 319. The total contributions of all Sunday Schools were $10,347; of this amount, $6,604 was contributed for current expenses; $2,962 for denominational benevolences, and miscellaneous contributions amounted to $781.

Eleven Sunday Schools reported having Vacation Bible Schools with a total enrollment of 1,308.

The Committee suggests that pastors and sessions be urged to give special consideration to the gifts of the Sunday Schools to benevolences and work out some definite plan for Sunday Schools to give to benevolences, giving special attention to the causes suggested as special benevolences of the Sunday Schools by the Assembly.

The Committee suggests that all churches co-operate with the sub-chairman on Sunday School work in putting on Workers' Training Schools in the Presbytery during the fall.

Respectfully submitted,
S. H. FULTON, Chairman.

B. Department of Young People's Work

Thirty-nine societies for Seniors with a total membership of 1,040, 28 of these affiliated with the P. Y. P. L., gave to benevolences a total of $300 and other contributions of $465, making a total of $765. These societies reported 30 prayer bands, 68 tithers, 40 study classes.

Nine Junior societies reported a membership of 262 with total contributions of $57.

Recommendations

1. That the young people be encouraged to contribute to the benevolences of the church more than in the past.
2. That our young people be urged to use the Program Builder and other literature from our Richmond office.
3. That our Presbyterial Conference for Young People be held at Flora Macdonald College, June 5-10, 1933.

Respectfully submitted,
W. M. McLEOD, Chairman.

C. Department of Men's Work

The reports on Religious Education, including the Men's Work, have been received from twenty-eight churches. Of this number, six report the Men of the Church organized in some form, including Antioch, Bethesda, St. Pauls, Laurinburg and Fayetteville. These organizations are promoting, to a greater or lesser degree, Men's Work along the line of the Assembly plan.

Twenty-five churches report Men's Bible Classes, the activities of which are limited to the study of the Sunday School lesson.

Presbytery is asked to hear pastors of churches having Men's Work organizations as to the value of the organization to them and to their churches.

Inasmuch as the General Assembly has made Men's Work a part of the Executive Committee on Religious Education, your Committee recommends that this change be made in the organization of the work of the Presbytery in order to be in harmony with the Assembly's plan.

Respectfully submitted,
H. G. BEDINGER, Chairman.

IV. Report of Committee on Woman's Work

The work for the year has indeed been very satisfactory. While there has been a slight decrease over last year in the number of study classes, prayer bands and family altars, there has been an increase in other directions, such as readers of Survey, readers of church papers, etc. It is to be remembered that in our spiritual tasks we are dealing with intangibles which no summary of figures can compute. During the past year there has been a deepening of the spiritual life among the women of the Presbytery and in many instances their faithful services have been rendered at a cost of sacrificial consecration.

Contributions were as follows:

Foreign Missions	$2,581
Assembly's Home Missions	1,263
Birthday Gift (A. H. M. Schools in Ky.)	701
Christian Education and Ministerial Relief	721
Religious Education and Publication	141
Assembly's Training School	65
Bible Cause	69
Synod's Home Missions	664
Orphans' Home	1,725
Educational Institutions	1,244
Presbytery's Home Missions	780
Auxiliary Special Benevolences	1,219
Total Benevolences	$11,173	$11,173
Local Church Work	$ 4,929
Miscellaneous Contributions	1,730
Total	$ 6,659	$ 6,659
Grand Total All Contributions		$17,832
Decrease in contributions as compared with last year		$ 4,136
Amount per capita		5

Recommendation

That the Auxiliaries be commended for their loyalty and faithfulness. I would report that the Chairman of your Committee carried the greetings of the Presbytery to the Presbyterial which met at Maxton, April 11.

Respectfully submitted,
J. B. BLACK, Chairman.

The Special Committee on Evangelism made the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON EVANGELISM

This Committee met in the Raeford Church, December 15, 1932, and made out a program for the work in the Presbytery. The plan contemplates bringing the subject of Evangelism to the individual members of the churches as forcibly as possible.

To this end, a conference of the pastors of the Presbytery was called for January 10, 1933, at 10 o'clock, in the Raeford Church. Discussions of topics relating to Evangelism were led by Rev. Messrs. W. M. McLeod, J. B. Black, S. H. Fulton, A. W. Dick, and W. M. Fairley. There were round-table discussions of these topics and others of similar nature: "Man's Personal Need," "God's Remedy for Those Needs," "The Personal Responsibility of Christians for Men, "The Need of Prayer and the Confession of Sin," and "The Preparation for Personal Work" were the subjects discussed by those leading in the program.

Three Regional Conferences, one at Laurinburg, another at Fayetteville, and a third at Lillington, were held to which the ministers, elders, deacons, Auxiliary leaders, and officers of Young People's and Men's Work from contiguous territory were invited. The programs were in charge of the local pastor and others of his selection. At each of these conferences, Rev. Eugene Alexander, Chairman of the Committee on Stewardship, presented the cause of his Committee.

The last step in the program is that the campaign be carried to the individual church through the following (suggested) program:

1. The pastor to call officers together for confession and reconsecration, making use of pledge cards.
2. Lead the congregation, through preaching and prayer meeting services, especially for the Church-Wide Program of Evangelism, to confession and reconsecration, using pledge cards.
3. Class in Personal Work. (It is intended that the above program be carried out as far as possible in the Auxiliaries and Young People's Societies.)
4. Arrange for evangelistic services, taking an offering for the expense of the campaign in the Presbytery, and sending offering and results of evangelistic meeting to Rev. L. A. McLaurin, Rowland, N. C.
5. Arrange for following up the work.

Quite a number of the ministers have offered their services for these evangelistic meetings, and your Committee will assign these brethren to churches desiring their services upon request.

It would appear that the general preparations of the campaign have been completed, and it remains now for each pastor and every officer to carry the campaign on to the last man in the last church. The responsibility for the work rests here.

This kind of work can be done only through prayer and fasting. "Ask and ye shall receive."

Respectfully submitted,
A. R. McQUEEN, Chairman.

The commission appointed to visit the Elise Church made the following report, which was received and the commission discharged:

REPORT OF COMMISSION

The Commission met, pursuant to previous announcement, on April 5, 1933, in the Elise Presbyterian Church, Hemp, N. C., at 9:30 A. M., April 11, 1933. Present: Rev. C. A. Lawrence, Chairman, Rev. J. F. Menius, Rev. Eugene Alexander, with Elders Neill McKay and O. L. Johnson. After being called to order by the Chairman, it was opened with prayer by Rev. J. F. Menius. Rev. Eugene Alexander was appointed Clerk of the Commission. The Chairman charged the Commission.

The minutes of Fayetteville Presbytery appointing the Commission were read and are as follows: "At the request of the pastor and congregation of the Elise Presbyterian Church, the following Commission was appointed to visit the Elise Church and adjust matters between the church and pastor: Ministers, Rev. C. A. Lawrence, Chairman, J. F. Menius, Eugene Alexander and G. F. Kirkpatrick; Elders W. T. Covington and Dr. P. P. McCain; alternates, Neill McKay and O. L. Johnson; three ministers and one ruling elder to constitute a quorum. This Commission was empowered to act with judicial authority in accordance with sections 92, 93 and 94 of the 'Book of Church Order' and was instructed to visit this church as soon as possible."

The following resolution setting forth the method of procedure was adopted unanimously:

1. That the Commission is deeply conscious of the delicate and important responsibility committed to it and approaches its duties, with warmest sympathy for all concerned, in a spirit of prayer for Divine guidance.
2. That the Commission recognizes the fact that, in the absence of specific charges against anyone, no judicial process has been begun at this time.
3. That it is the sense of the Commission that members of the congregation or other interested parties should be heard first, the pastor and his representatives afterwards, any or all parties to be examined by the Commission, with the sole idea of establishing the facts of the situation and with such liimtations of time for each that the Commission shall determine.
4. That in the interest of peace and harmony it is deemed wise that only the Commission should be present during the examination of either party.
5. That after hearing all parties concerned, the Commission give consideration to all facts before it, each member expressing his opinions before a vote is taken, the decision made, and published and the record of the proceedings approved, all in as expeditious a manner as possible.

Rev. J. F. Menius made the following motion, which was duly seconded and carried unanimously: "That the Commission hear the officers and members of the Elise Church desiring to be heard, first; and the pastor, Rev. M. D. Newton, and his friends present and desiring to be heard, second; that thirty minutes each be allowed the two groups to make any statements desired; that the Commission ask any questions desired following the statements."

There appeared before the Commission the following four ruling elders and three deacons with other members of the Elise Church: Elders E. A. West, principal Elise School; W. S. Evans, superintendent Elise School; Dr. McDuffie and Mr. Hill; Deacons D. D. McCrimmon, E. R. Brown and Mr. Brown. Messrs. McCrimmon, Brown, Evans, West and Dr. McDuffie made brief statements as to existing conditions in the Elise Church. All present were invited to make any statements desired. The members of the Commission questioned several of the parties present. The thirty minutes allotted were not exceeded. No statements in writing were presented and no specific charges preferred. All parties were then excused.

The pastor, Rev. M. D. Newton, appeared before the Commission and made a statement using thirty-two minutes. The Commission then questioned Rev. M. D. Newton briefly, allowing him an extra thirty-minute period for his answers and the completion of his supplemental statements. No statements in writing were presented and no specific charges were preferred.

In view of previous statements made before the Commission and in courtesy to them and their pastor, Rev. M. D. Newton, friends from the Bensalem Church, desiring to be heard, were permitted to appear and make statements and were questioned by members of the Commission. Among those present and heard were Elders N. J. Carter, McDuffie and Dowd. No statements in writing were presented.

The Commission called for further examination Messrs. Evans, West, Hill, McCrimmon, Brown and Miss Isabella McLeod, the last named a member of the faculty of the Elise School.

Rev. M. D. Newton, having completed his statement previously and the Commission not wishing to examine him further, was not heard again.

Having heard all parties present and desiring to be heard, the Commission considered the facts before it and after an expression of opinion by each member of the Commission, by unanimous consent, the Chairman was instructed to confer with Mr. Newton privately and give him the opportunity of presenting his resignation as pastor of the Elise Church. Mr. Newton appeared before the Commission and declined. He was excused. The Commission voted.

The following unanimous decision was rendered:

1. That the pastoral relation existing between the Elise Presbyterian Church and Rev. M. D. Newton be and is hereby dissolved.
2. That Rev. M. D. Newton be allowed to occupy the manse until the first day of September, 1933, if he desires.
3. That the Elise Church complete payment of salary of $350.00 to Rev. M. D. Newton for the fiscal year 1932-1933, by September 1, 1933, or by the date he vacates the manse.

The decision was announced to the officers and members of the Elise Church in a body and to Rev. M. D. Newton privately. The officers and members of the Elise Church present concurred in the arrangement as to salary and use of the manse.

Rev. M. D. Newton served notice that he would make complaint to the Synod of North Carolina.

The minutes were read and approved. The Commission adjourned with prayer by the Chairman.

HISTORICAL SKETCH OF ANTIOCH CHURCH

Antioch Church, of Red Springs, N. C., was organized March 10, 1833, by Rev. Archibald Buie. It is properly a continuation of the old Raft Swamp Church in what was then Robeson County. The present house of worship stands near the spot where the first church was built in 1833, on the west side of the Great Raft Swamp and on the road which was formerly the great mail route from Fayetteville, N. C., to Cheraw, S. C. The first elders were James Smith, Sr., a native of Ireland; Archibald I. Currie, Randal Currie, Esq., and Angus Currie, Sr., the two latter natives of Scotland.

As soon as the people had a house in which to worship God, they procured a library and organized a Sabbath School, June 23, 1833.

The Rev. Hector McLean, just graduated from Union Theological Seminary, began preaching in this field December 9, 1832, previous to the organizing of the church. He preached from a temporary stand in the grove and his first sermon was on the text: "The wages of sin is death." He was called as the first pastor of the church and continued until 1889, the space of fifty-six years, this being his only pastorate.

The first Communion Service was held the first Sabbath of October, 1833, and the first Sabbath of October has always been observed as Communion Sabbath to the present time. The pastor was assisted in this service by John McIntyre, Rev. Archibald McQueen and Rev. Joseph Brown. "It was a time when God was pleased to pour out His Spirit. Souls were convicted—and many were converted to God.—During its progress, no sound could be heard but the sobbings of the heaving heart that was in agony on account of sin."

From his diary and from other sources, we learn of the abundant labors of "Father McLean." He preached at Antioch two Sabbaths each month for the mere pittance of $200 per year, making his living by working on his farm. He took an active part in the Sabbath School and prayer meeting. He was a promoter and, for several years, a principal of Antioch Academy. During his whole life, he was keenly interested in the success of this school. He was president of the first temperance society ever formed in this section. The secret of his life is in the fact that he was pre-eminently a man of prayer. His diary breathes an atmosphere of prayer on every page. He not only prayed for his friends in distress and error; but like his Master, he prayed for his enemies, for in his diary we read: "Antioch Church was greatly injured by Sherman's army, and our Sabbath School library was either destroyed or taken away. May God forgive them and bring them to repentance. May God sanctify these trials to us."

A part of Sherman's army camped on the church grounds. Some of them wrote in the pulpit Bible and hymn book, these books still being in the possession of the congregation. The pews of the church and parts of Antioch Academy were used to make a corduroy road over the Swamp for the transportation of the artillery.

For about one year prior to "Father McLean's" death in 1889, he was assisted by Rev. J. M. Clark, then a seminary student. From the death of "Father McLean," Mr. Clark served as stated supply and as pastor for about three years.

Since the resignation of Mr. Clark, Antioch has been served by the following pastors:

Rev. S. M. Rankin, 1894-1897; Rev. D. W. Fox, one year, 1897; Rev. C. F. Rankin, 1899-1901; Rev. J. A. Caligan, 1902-1907; Rev. W. T. Walker, 1907-1910; Rev. V. R. Gaston, 1910-1916; Rev. J. W. Goodman, 1917-1924; Rev. Geo. W. Hanna, 1924 to the present time.

Antioch has furnished the following to the gospel ministry: Rev. James A. Smith, Rev. John Gilbert Conoly, Rev. Chas. E. Hodgin, D.D., Revs. Archie McLauchlin, Muldro McLauchlin, Murphy McLauchlin, and Rev. D. A. McNeill. The three McLauchlins are brothers, a rather rare contribution for one family to make to this exalted profession.

Special sessions of outstanding revivals have been experienced in Antioch. In 1894, Rev. Archibald McQueen assisted the pastor in special services when there seems to have been an outpouring of the Holy Spirit when thirty-seven adults united with the church. In 1877, there was a gracious outpouring of the Holy Spirit when fifty-seven new members were added to the church, many of them adults and some approaching the sunset of their career. The preaching on this occasion was by two brothers, Revs. Archibald and Martin McQueen. Again in 1885, Rev. Archibald McQueen assisted by Roger Martin conducted a revival when forty-four new members were added to the church.

"In this community, the fire of pariotism has ever been kept burning. In the dark days of the sixties, her sons rallied forth to defend homes and firesides, and many of them sacrificed their lives on their country's altar. In 1898, she was represented in the Spanish-American War. Again in 1918 in the great World War, she was represented by her sons on many battle fronts. From this conflict all returned, save one, Thomas W. Leggette, who died of pneumonia in January, 1919, in the U. S. Navy."

The Woman's Auxiliary was organized February 26, 1835. It was called the Antioch Female Missionary Association, Auxiliary to the Central Board of Foreign Missions. Their zeal was shown by the fact that on one occasion three gold rings were handed in for benevolences, and on another occasion mention is made of two goid rings and a breastpin.

The Christian Endeavor Society was organized by Rev. V. R. Gaston. The Junior League was organized by Mrs. G. W. Hanna in 1925. Both societies have given splendid training to our young people.

On this, the one hundredth anniversary of her existence, being at epace with sister denominations, Antioch commends to rising generations her spirit of brotherly love, and bids them cherish her priceless traditions as an heirloom for the generations yet to follow.

2. That in view of the large amounts reported by the churches to "miscellaneous," the pastors and sessions of local churches be urged to ask their congregations to redirect their giving so that all benevolent contributions may be directed within the authorized budget channels, in order that this money might be used to relieve the crying needs of our benevolent agencies during these very trying times.

Ruling Elders: D. C. Baker, A. J. Currie, and L. Z. Collier.

The following resolution was adopted:

RESOLUTION

Fayetteville Presbytery hereby makes the following declaration: We view the present time as marking a moral crisis in the life of our State and Nation. Our people are being urged by appeals to unworthy motives of greed and selfishness to legalize an outlaw business.

We record ourselves as unalterably opposed to the sale and use of intoxicating liquors. The liquor traffic has proved itself to be an enemy of society. Since alcohol is a poison and habit-forming drug, the sale of it for beverage purposes is a violation of the sixth commandment. As Christian citizens, we are uncompromisingly opposed to the legalizing of the traffic in intoxicating beverages.

Dr. A. R. McQueen, Presbytery's representative on Synod's Committee on Changes in Pastorates, was heard in regard to the work of that Committee and his address was received as information.

The following supplement to the report of the Committee on Religious Education was adopted:

A full report on Men's Work was made at the Spring Meeting of Presbytery. In order to stimulate interest, Presbytery is requested to authorize a conference on Men's Work in November, the plans to be worked out by the Committee.

The Committee on Nominations submitted its report, which was adopted. (See "General Directory.")

Rev. G. W. Hanna was elected Chairman of the Program Committee.

The Stated Clerk was instructed to have 500 copies of the Minutes of Presbytery and a sufficient number of copies of the Docket printed.

Rev. I. N. Clegg was granted the privilege of laboring outside the bounds of the Presbytery until the Spring Meeting of Presbytery.

The Leave of Absence Committee made its report, which was received as information.

The Manual of Presbytery was changed, discontinuing the Leave of Absence Committee.

The Home Mission Committee made the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT OF HOME MISSION COMMITTEE

Your Committee on Home Missions reports that it has been able to assist only four fields for the past six months instead of ten as of a few years ago. These fields are as follows: The Providence-Spence Chapel Group in Johnston County, Rev. Dixon McDonald, minister, $900.00; the Sardis-Westminster Field, Rev. D. M. Clark, minister, $475.00; the Sunnyside Group, Rev. W. J. Huneycutt, minister, $400.00, and the Barbecue-Mt. Pisgah Field, Rev. E. B. Carr, minister, $200.00. The reports from these fields show that the men have done faithful work.

Your Committee did not ask for reports from the other six fields formerly aided by the Committee.

These figures reveal the fact that the Presbytery has withdrawn all support from 60 per cent of its mission work on which it formerly expended more than twice as much. Of course this means inadequate support for the men, and in turn they cannot do the work on their fields that ought to be done. We have had no summer workers for several years, and no all-time worker in the Johnston County field.

Then several fields that could be greatly benefitted and the work hastened by regrouping. But this cannot be effected without more income.

Your Committee earnestly appeals to the Church and its organizations to support this work more liberally, or much of the work already achieved will be lost.

Recommendations

1. That the name of Rock Branch Church be changed to the Olivia Church.

2. That the Olivia Church be permitted to secure the services of Mr. William Brown, a student at Union Theological Seminary, Richmond, Va., until the Spring Meeting of Presbytery on terms agreeable to Mr. Brown and the church.

3. That Rev. C. A. Lawrence be permitted to supply the Manly Church until the Spring Meeting of Presbytery on terms agreeable to the church and himself.

4. In the matter of a communication from the Bensalem Church relative to Rev. A. L. McDuffie as a supply until the Spring Meeting of Presbytery, your Committee recommends that this request be held in abeyance for the present for the reason that to grant it at this time would leave two of the four churches of the group vacant and the Home Missions Committee has no means with which to aid them in securing a pastor.

Respectfully submitted,

A. R. McQUEEN, Chairman.

The Treasurer of Presbytery was instructed to pay the expenses of Mr. J. Nat. Harrison incurred by him on his visit to the Presbytery.

Those constituting the Special Committee on Evangelism were reappointed on this Committee.

The Minutes of today's sessions were read and approved.

The final roll call was omitted.

Presbytery closed with the singing of a hymn and prayer to meet on the first Tuesday in February at 10:00 o'clock in the Raeford Church.

The reading of the minutes of today's sessions was postponed until the next adjourned meeting of Presbytery.

Presbytery adjourned with prayer to meet in the Presbyterian Church, Raeford, N. C., on February 20, 1934, at 2:00 P. M.

C. A. LAWRENCE, Moderator.

W. J. HUNEYCUTT, Permanent Clerk.

ADJOURNED MEETING OF FAYETTEVILLE PRESBYTERY

Raeford, N. C., Feb. 20, 1934.

Fayetteville Presbytery met in adjourned session at 2:00 P. M., in the First Presbyterian Church, Raeford, N. C., and was called to order by Rev. E. L. Barber, the last Moderator present, and was opened with prayer.

The following were present and enrolled:

Ministers: C. G. Vardell, A. R. McQueen, C. M. Gibbs, G. W. Hanna, W. J. Huneycutt, W. M. Fairley, W. M. McLeod, D. M. Clark, H. W. Koelling, W. S. Golden, E. L. Barber, S. H. Fulton, J. C. B. McLaughlin, and A. W. Dick—14.

Ruling Elders: John R. McQueen, Lakeview; J. Bruce Cameron, Manly—2.

The minutes of the last adjourned meeting of Presbytery were read and approved.

Rev. C. Darby Fulton, of Enoree Presbytery, and Rev. Geo. F. Robertson, of Holston Presbytery, were introduced to Presbytery and invited to sit as visiting brethren.

The privileges of the floor were granted to Messrs. D. D. McCrimmon, John R. McQueen, and C. D. Hutaff, representatives of the Board of Trustees of Elise Academy, who presented a resolution of the Board of Trustees of the Academy touching the financial condition of the school. After consideration of the conditions of the school as presented by the above, Presbytery adopted the following resolution:

RESOLUTION

Whereas, an acute crisis has arisen in the financial affairs of the Elise Academy, which demands immediate attention, therefore be it

Resolved: That Presbytery appoint a commission to sell the property of Elise Academy or do anything that may be deemed necessary in connection with the finances of Elise Academy. Full power to act in this matter is hereby given this commission.

The following commission, called for in the resolution touching Elise Academy, was appointed, three ministers and one ruling elder to constitute a quorum: Ministers: A. R. McQueen, Chairman; A. W. Dick and C. A. Lawrence; Alternate to any of those named, Eugene Alexander. Ruling Elders: C. G. Rose and H. P. McPherson; Alternate to either of those named, J. Bruce Cameron.

Rev. W. M. McLeod offered his resignation as pastor of the Pinehurst Church and asked that the pastoral relations be dissolved. The Church was heard from through its representatives and a resolution adopted by the congregation was read. It appeared that the congregation did not concur with the pastor in his request, but expressed a willingness to abide by the decision of the Presbytery. After a discussion of the matter, Presbytery engaged in prayer for God's guidance.

The request of Mr. McLeod was reluctantly granted and the pastoral relations dissolved, the dissolution to take effect March 31, 1934.

At his own request, Mr. McLeod was granted a letter of dismission to Nashville Presbytery.

The minutes of today's session were read and approved.
Presbytery adjourned with prayer.

E. L. BARBER, Moderator.

W. J. HUNEYCUTT, Permanent Clerk.

Attest: C. M. GIBBS, Stated Clerk.

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was celebrated, Revs. M. D. McNeill and Neill McInnis presiding.

The following Memorial of Rev. Carl S. Matthews was read and adopted by a rising vote:

MEMORIAL OF REV. CARL S. MATTHEWS, D.D.

Rev. Carl S. Matthews, D.D., pastor of the Presbyterian Church of Lumberton, N. C., departed this life to his reward on May 11, 1933, after a brief illness. He was not feeling well for two days and was called suddenly and unexpectedly to join the church above.

Dr. Matthews had served the Lumberton Church for about five years and was very much beloved by his church and community for the splendid work he had accomplished, assisted by his wife and two boys, who with him took a great interest in the Auxiliary, Sunday School and Young People's Work.

Carl S. Matthews was born in Winnsboro, S. C., September 18, 1873, was prepared for college at Mt. Zion Academy and graduated from Davidson College in 1895 with the degree of A.B. He then taught for several years in Aiken, S. C., and Pantops Academy, Va. In the year 1901 he taught at Davidson College and took the degree of M.A. He spent the year 1902 at Princeton Seminary and graduated from the Union Theological Seminary, Richmond, Va., in 1904. His first pastorate was at Waddell, Madison and Orange, Va., 1904-08. On June 12, 1906, he was happily married to Miss Helen E. Camp, of Richmond, Va., who survives him with two boys, John C. and William, now studying at the University of Virginia. He was pastor of the First Church of Pulaski, Va., for ten years, 1908-1918; Central of Bristol, Va., 1918-21; First Church of Shelbyville, Ky., 1921-28, and ended his life's work in Lumberton. Davidson College conferred on him the degree of D.D. in 1927.

Dr. Matthews was a bright, attractive man, full of fun and humor with a genial disposition and gathered around him a host of friends and admirers. He was quite a scholar, student and an able preacher. His life was a joyous one that was shared with others, his faith was simple and sincere, he was happy in his work with his loved ones when he slipped away to be with his Master.

We shall miss him at meetings of Presbytery and Church Courts.

The names of ruling elders who died during the past year were read and Presbytery directed by a rising vote that these names be inscribed upon a page of the Minutes of Presbytery set apart as a memorial to these men.

Presbytery engaged in prayer in behalf of the families of these men, being led by Rev. C. A. Lawrence.

Presbytery took recess until 2:00 P. M.

Presbytery ordered:

1. That churches which are in arrears over one year with Presbyterial taxes be cited to appear before Presbytery at next stated meeting, and show reason why they have not met their assessment.
2. That all churches, on payment of Presbytery's tax due for years 1932-1934, be released from any further obligation for past years.

Rev. S. H. Fulton preached the Presbyterial Sermon. His subject was "The Sacraments"; text, Matthew 28:19 and Luke 22:17, 19, 20.

Rev. J. W. Crinkley presented a letter of dismission from Granville Presbytery, and after an examination as required by the Book of Church Order, was approved as satisfactory, and after his signing the obligation required by Presbytery, he was enrolled.

The commission appointed to install Rev. R. L. Alexander as pastor of the Lumberton Church reported that duty performed December 17, 1933, which report was received.

The Committee on Woman's Work made the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON WOMAN'S WORK

It is said that figures and statistics may be made to prove anything, but in reviewing the work of the Woman's Auxiliary of our Presbytery for the past year, we feel that the figures give a true picture of work well done. With a decrease of four in number of organizations, and consequently a somewhat decreased membership, there were gains made in 12 of the 38 ways in which the Auxiliary seeks to raise the spiritual and educational standard of the church. The fact that more work was done, and more gifts contributed, by fewer women, shows a realization on their part of the need, and a willingness to strive hard to meet that need.

In a year of exceptional financial doubt and difficulty, contributions have substantially increased to every cause, save one, that of Educational Institutions.

Contributions were as follows:

Denominational Benevolences

1.	Foreign Missions (To Nashville, Tenn.)	$ 3,184
	(a) Birthday Gift—China Bible Institute	711
2.	Assembly's Home Missions	1,893
3.	Christian Education and Ministerial Relief	1,066
4.	Religious Education and Publication	184
5.	Ass. Train. School for Lay Workers	85
6.	Bible Cause	75
7.	Synod's Home Missions	713
8.	Orphans' Home	1,921
9.	Educational Institutions	1,208
10.	Presbytery's Home Missions	830
	Total Denominational Benevolences	$11,870
11.	Auxiliary Special Benevolences	1,369
	Total All Benevolences		$13,239
	Total Local Church Work	$ 4,321
	Miscellaneous Contributions	1,276
	Total		$ 5,597
	Grand Total All Contributions		$18,836
	Total increase compared with last year		970
	Amount per capita		5

We wish to commend the Auxiliary for its loyal support and faithful work in the Presbytery; and to wish the members Godspeed in their "Crusade with Christ," this new year; feeling confident that, "With God all things are possible."

Respectfully submitted,

J. B. BLACK, Chairman.

The Committee on Christian Education and Ministerial Relief made the following report, which was adopted:

Your Committee on Christian Education and Ministerial Relief reports:

That loans from the Student Loan Fund were made in the past year to 154 young men and women to the amount of $15,110.00; a decrease of 137 loans and of $13,275.00 lent. Loans were denied to 251 worthy students because of lack of funds. This is a reminder of the urgent necessity of repaying loans as quickly as possible.

The monthly remittances to aged ministers and widows have been reduced six times in the last three years, e. g., one of our ministers received $610.00 three years ago, and received $420.00 last year. A widow received $300.00 three years ago, and $180.00 last year.

Four candidates for the ministry from this Presbytery are to graduate from Union Seminary this spring—W. P. Boyle, James A. Jones, Fred V. Poag, and Walton G. Sugg, Jr. Two of these, James A. Jones and Fred V. Poag, have won fellowships at Union Seminary. Dr. Lacy reports that Messrs. Boyle and Sugg have done splendid work and are men of real promise.

Recommendations

1. That the application of Rev. H. M. Dixon for aid from Ministerial Relief Funds be sanctioned.

2. That the applications of the following widows for aid from Ministerial Relief Funds be sanctioned: Mrs. Nettie Goodman, Mrs. Ada Henderlite, Mrs. Flora McLauchlin, Mrs. Lucy McLeod, Mrs. Helen Matthews, and Mrs. Cornelia Steele.

Respectfully submitted,

D. L. JONES, Chairman.

Mr. E. A. West read a history of Elise Academy. Presbytery thanked Mr. West for preparing this history, and asked that he supply two copies, one for the files of Presbytery and a copy to be sent to the Historical Foundation at Montreat.

Presbytery took recess until 7:30 P. M.

First Day—Night Session

Presbytery met at 7:30 P. M. and engaged in devotional exercises.

As a special order of the day, Presbytery heard Professor R. G. Matheson, Jr., in the interest of the Presbyterian Junior College of Maxton, N. C., and Rev. H. G. Bedinger, D.D., in the interest of Flora Macdonald College.

The Committee on General Assembly's Home Missions made a report, and pending its adoption, Dr. Homer Mc-

Millan was introduced to Presbytery and invited to sit as a vsiting brother, after which Presbytery heard Dr. McMillan in an address on the subject, "Christ's Trumpet Call to the Church." The report was adopted and is as follows:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON ASSEMBLY'S HOME MISSIONS

Your Committee on General Assembly's Home Missions submits the following report:

In these days of pessimistic reports from nearly all church organizations, it is heartening to learn that our General Assembly's Executive Committee of Home Missions not only met all its appropriations last year, but reduced its indebtedness also. However, it is anything but heartening to learn that these results were obtained by discontinuing some mission activities, by drastically curtailing the salaries of workers who were already inadequately paid, and by declining to begin mission work in needy fields. The spiritual results of our Home Mission work have been encouraging.

The Committee recommends:

1. That ministers and churches make the home missionary work of our Church a subject of continual prayer, especially observing the week of prayer and self-denial recommended by the Assembly.

2. That ministers clearly set forth before their congregations the activities of those engaged in various phases of Home Missions and the golden opportunities that are opening in many places of our Southland for evangelistic workers that the sympathies and liberality of our people toward this fundamental cause may be enlarged.

3. That all our churches engage in the study of the Home Mission textbook recommended by the Committee this fall.

G. F. KIRKPATRICK, Chairman.

Dr. Marcus A. Brownson, of Philadelphia Presbytery, and Rev. A. J. McKelway, of Granville Presbytery, were introduced to Presbytery and invited to sit as visiting brethren.

The Presbytery's Committee on Foreign Missions made the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON FOREIGN MISSIONS

We give thanks to God for the remarkably fruitful year just concluded in our Foreign Mission work. Our Executive Committee of Foreign Missions reports the most heartening results we have had on the foreign field in many years. During the past year our Foreign Missionaries have led to Christ, by profession of faith, 8,383 souls. This number constitutes by far the greatest ingathering ever reported in the history of our work. Our doctors treated 386,316 patients, also by far the largest number in any year of our history. Especially encouraging, too, have been the evidences of the growth and self-support and the development of native leadership. The spiritual tone of our work abroad continues to be strong and virile. We give praise to God for such rich blessings.

When we look at our own efforts at home in behalf of Foreign Missions we find nothing to boast of. Our giving has declined to a new low. This past year we gave only about half what we gave in 1930. We must not go backward. We must speak to the Church of God that we go " Forward."

Recommendations

1. We recommend that all the churches of the Presbytery be called to a renewal of the missionary advance, adopting as our goal not the record of last year or the year before, but the standard of loyalty and sacrificial devotion that the Lord Jesus asks of His servants in such a day as this. We resolve firmly that, however poor we may be, we stand determined to make the thrust of our Christian faith and hope felt to the very ends of the earth.

2. That in accordance with the action of the General Assembly, Presbytery observe January, 1935, as the month for special emphasis on Foreign Missions and for special gifts to this cause.

3. That in view of the fact that there will be no special Foreign Mission study book during this church year, the pastors of the churches in the Presbytery be urged to remember the greater need of preaching frequently on Foreign Missions and of calling on their people for a larger support of this cause through interest and prayer and giving.

4. That May 6 be observed as Foreign Mission Day in all our churches with special offerings in the Sunday Schools for this cause.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN C. B. McLAUGHLIN, Chairman.

Presbytery adjourned with prayer, to meet tomorrow morning at 8:45 o'clock.

Second Day—Morning Session

Presbytery assembled at 8:45 A. M., and engaged in devotional exercises, led by Rev. R. L. Alexander.

The minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

The Committee on Calls and Supplies made the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CALLS AND SUPPLIES

There have been placed in our hands the four following calls for the pastoral services of Rev. J. W. Crinkley: Bensalem for two services monthly, paying $400.00 per year salary; Eagle Springs for two services monthly, paying $100.00 per year salary; Spies for two services monthly, paying $125.00 per year salary, and Elise for two services monthly, paying $275.00 per year salary. We recommend that these calls be found in order and placed in the hands of Rev. J. W. Crinkley for his acceptance or rejection.

There has been placed in our hands a request from the Session of Montpelier Church asking permission be given them to employ Dr. W. M. Fairley for one-fourth of his time as Stated Supply until the next Stated Meeting of Presbytery at a salary of $500.00 per year. We recommend that this permission be given to Montpelier Church.

There was presented to us a request from the Raeford Church, asking that they be permitted to change their call to read $2,000.00 instead of $3,000.00 salary for three-fourths of the pastor's time. We recommend that this permission be given them.

We considered a request from the Maxton Church that they be permitted to change their call to read for pastor's salary $2,100.00 instead of $1,800.00. We recommend that this request be granted and the church commended for its action.

Respectfully submitted,

D. M. CLARK, Chairman.

The calls from Bensalem, Elise, Eagle Springs and Spies churches for the pastoral services of Rev. J. W. Crinkley were placed in his hands, and he signified his acceptance. The following commission was appointed to install Rev. J. W. Crinkley as pastor of this group of churches: Ministers, A. R. McQueen, R. G. Matheson and W. S. Golden; Ruling Elder: M. C. McDonald; Alternate: D. A. Patterson, two ministers and one elder to constitute a quorum. The installation services are to be held on the third Sunday in May.

The Special Committee on Evangelism made the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON EVANGELISM

We regret to admit that the Evangelistic Campaign throughout our whole Church has come far short of accomplishing the results the Church had hoped for. For the continuance of this work, we recommend:

1. That each pastor hold one or more evangelistic services in every church in his field during the year.

2. That Presbytery appoint Rev. L. Smith, our Pastor at Large, to assist pastors who may desire his services in arranging evangelistic services for their churches, and that the Treasurer of the Home Missions Committee be authorized to pay office expenses, printing and postage.

3. That this committee be discontinued.

Respectfully submitted,
A. R. McQUEEN, Chairman.

Huneycutt, $400.00, and Rev. E. B. Carr, $200.00. The reports from these fields evince faithful work on the part of these men.

2. That Rev. F. M. Bain be permitted to supply Rex and Lumber Bridge churches for one year on terms satisfactory to both parties.

3. That Cameron Hill and Olivia churches be permitted to secure the services of a seminary student for the summer months on terms agreeable to the churches and student.

9. That the Chairman of the Committee be instructed to apply for the same amount of aid from the Synod's Committee as last year.

10. That the sum of $200.00 be granted the Bensalem group to bring the amount of the pastor's salary up to $1,100.00.

11. That the amounts granted the other four fields be the same as last year.

Respectfully submitted,

The Committee on Religious Education made the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

A. Department of Sunday School Work

Of the ninety-one churches in our Presbytery, only eighty-one reported having Sunday Schools. The total enrollment reported was 10,451. There were added on confession of faith from the Sunday Schools only 111, a decrease of 218 from the past year. The total contributions from the Sunday Schools were $10,368.00. Of this amount $6,688.00 went to Current Expenses; $3,032.00 to Benevolences, and $648.00 for Miscellaneous.

Twelve churches reported having had Daily Vacation Bible Schools, with an enrollment of 898 pupils.

Respectfully submitted,
JAMES APPLEBY, Chairman.

B. Department of Young People's Work

Reports from 81 churches show 39 Young People's organizations in the Presbytery. Twenty-nine of these are affiliated with the Y. P. P. L.—the other ten with the Christian Endeavor. Thirty-eight organizations use the Program Builder. The total gifts of these organizations amounted to $1,670.00.

The Conference for the Young People of the Presbytery last year had the largest enrollment since its beginning five years ago. There was a total of 195 enrolled.

Respectfully submitted,
S. H. FULTON, Chairman.

Recommendations

1. We recommend to the pastors and sessions the value, and we urge upon them the importance, of instruction courses preparatory to church membership.

2. We recommend that the pastors and sessions work toward a more definite co-ordination of the Church School, Young People of the Church, Men of the Church, Woman's Auxiliary, and the regular worship services.

3. Inasmuch as there are wide areas within the bounds of our congregations unreached by our Church Schools, we recommend that special well-planned and sustained efforts be made to reach them for the Church. We also call attention to opportunities to establish out-post Church Schools.

4. We urge churches which are not yet using the Daily Vacation Church School to consider the value of such training for children during vacation period.

5. That our annual Young People's Conference be held at Flora Macdonald College, June 4-9, and that this conference be supported by our churches throughout the Presbytery.

6. Finally, in all our Religious Education, let this be the aim of all our workers—"study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth"—2 Timothy 2:15.

Respectfully submitted,
E. L. BARBER, Chairman.

Rev. P. C. Adams, of Wilmington Presbytery and President of Presbyterian Junior College, was introduced to Presbytery and invited to sit as a visiting brother.

As a special order of the day, Rev. Dixon McDonald was heard on the Home Mission Work in Johnston County.

The Presbyterial Sermon was preached by Rev. James Appleby on the subject of "Adoption," using as his text, Galatians 4:4-6.

The Treasurer of Presbytery made a verbal report which was received as information and the following recommendations were adopted:

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That the amount of $27.83 which was left in the treasury of the organization known as the "Men of the Church" be placed in the hands of the Treasurer of Presbytery to be used by the Committee on Religious Education in the promotion of the Men's Department of this work.

2. That the hearing of the churches in arrears in payment of the Presbyterial Tax be postponed until the Spring Meeting of Presbytery.

Respectfully submitted,
L. A. McLAURIN, Treasurer.

Upon motion of the Chairman of the Committee on Stewardship, Presbytery fixed the Presbyterial Tax for churches as follows: Spence, $2.00; Providence, $2.00; Philippi, $2.00; Lakeview, $8.00; Union, $8.00; Cypress, $8.00.

The Committee on Religious Education made the following report which was adopted:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Rev. E. L. Barber, Chairman

The work of Religious Education is making good progress in the Presbytery. There appears very definitely a growing interest and an increasing desire and purpose to promote the work.

The attention of Presbytery is called to the election of Rev. O. C. Williamson, D.D., as Director of Religious Education for the Synod of North Carolina. We commend Dr. Williamson to the churches of our Presbytery and bespeak for him the co-operation of all the churches in the increasingly important cause of Religious Education.

We recommend that Presbytery adopt the "Program of Work" as suggested by the General Assembly's Committee on Religious Education and adopted by the Synod of North Carolina, as the Program of Work for Fayetteville Presbytery.

1. Department of Sunday School Work

a. We deplore the seeming lack of interest in Sunday School work throughout the Presbytery, and the alarming decrease in membership of our Sunday Schools, and the even more distressing condition whereby there are so few additions to our churches from our schools. This indicates a lack of genuine evangelism. Such conditions ought not to be.

b. We urge upon our pastors and officers greater interest in this important agency of the Church and we suggest as a goal for the coming six months' period an increased total membership of 1,000. We suggest no figure for increase in additions to the church. That burden should and must lie on each individual interested in the Sunday School.

c. We further urge more effective teaching to be promoted in our church schools, and to this end, we suggest that each minister assume personal responsibility for at least one teacher training unit being taught in each of his churches during the coming six months.

d. We recommend the holding of a conference of all Sunday School superintendents in our Presbytery in the near future for the purpose of inspiration and co-operation in this great work.

e. We request the granting of $25.00 from the Presbytery at large for promotional purposes for the ensuing six months.

2. Department of Young People's Work

It is gratifying to report that Fayetteville Presbytery has more young people's organizations using the Kingdom Highway Program than any other Presbytery in the Synod. Over half of our churches now use the Kingdom Highway Program. The activities of the young people's organizations include 40 prayer bands, 85 tithers, and 57 study classes, all of which show a marked increase over last year. Six of our young people have answered the call and have dedicated their lives to full time service for the Master.

The Young People's League of the Presbytery publishes a quarterly bulletin containing suggested activities, news and messages from the members of the League Council.

The Conference at Flora Macdonald College was the largest ever held. There was an enrollment of 259, 88 Intermediate and 171 Senior, Young People. There were 40 leaders and helpers. All expenses were taken care of, leaving a total balance of practically $500.00.

We respectfully recommend:

a. That the appreciation of the Presbytery be extended to all those who helped to make the Flora Macdonald Conference a success, especially the President and Trustees of Flora Macdonald College for the use of the college.

b. That two conferences be held instead of one: one for the Intermediates, ages 12, 13, 14; and one for the Senior Young People, ages 15-24.

The necessity for this grows out of the following:

(1) The Conference has grown too large to take care of at the college. Either it must be divided or the enrollment must be limited. We do not feel that limitation of the enrollment would serve the purpose for which the Conference was established.

(2) We believe better work could be done with the separate groups, especially the Intermediates.

3. Department of Men's Work

Pursuant to the direction of Presbytery, a Men's Work Conference was held at Flora Macdonald College in November, 1933. The conference was well attended by ministers and laymen. A program consisting of addresses upon various phases of the Work-of-the-Church and a demonstration of the Men-of-the-Church planned by a group of laymen from Aberdeen and Laurinburg proved interesting and effective. Incidentally two great causes of the church were effectively presented by these groups, viz., Home Missions and Ministerial Relief. The usefulness of the Men-of-the-Church organization in presenting the causes of the church in an interesting way and the development of men in presenting the work of the church and public prayer were illustrated.

The conference voted unanimously to request Presbytery to make a conference on Men's Work an annual affair.

It has been a privilege and a pleasure to serve Presbytery as the Chairman of this Committee for the last four years. The Committee of Religious Education has unanimously elected Rev. A. W. Dick to succeed me.

Believing that the men in our churches offer at present the greatest opportunity for development and usefulness available to the pastors and sessions of the churches, I most earnestly urge them to consider anew the advisability of organizing their men according to the plan of the General Assembly.

The following recommendations are submitted:

a. That Presbytery commend the Men-of-the-Church organizations to pastors and sessions of churches which do not at present have them.

b. That a conference on Men's Work be held at the First Presbyterian Church of Fayettevlile beginning at 3:30 P. M., Tuesday, November 27, and that the program be committed to Rev. A. W. Dick, the new Chairman, assisted by other members of the Committee on Religious Education.

Respectfully submitted,
H. G. BEDINGER, Chairman of Dept. of Men's Work.

Ruling Elders J. Talbot Johnson and M. McQ. Bailey were appointed a committee to raise the $25.00 asked for the Department of Sunday School Work.

REPORT OF HOME MISSIONS COMMITTEE

The reports from the five mission fields of the Presbytery are encouraging in almost every respect. The men have held 308 services at 19 churches and two mission points. There were 104 professions of faith on these fields, 91 believers were added to the church on profession of faith, and 17 by letter, making a total of 108 members added to the church during the last six months. Twenty-one Sabbath Schools were maintained, and two were organized, one on Rev. D. M. Clark's field, and one on Rev. W. J. Huneycutt's. Churches were repaired on the fields occupied by Rev. Messrs. Clark, Carr, and Crinkley.

It appears that the Every Member Canvass was not made by some of the churches, and the attention of these churches is called to the fact that Presbytery requires that this canvass be made in every church receiving aid from the Home Missions Fund.

The Presbytery urges those churches which are indebted to the Building and Loan Fund to pay the interest on their loan, and to retire the principal as rapidly as possible, in order that the Presbytery may be able to grant loans to other churches sorely needing it.

The Committee recommends:

1. That the petition signed by eight persons of the Flower's Tabernacle for an organization be granted, and the following Commission appointed to organize the church, if the way be clear: Rev. Messrs. A. R. McQueen, C. M. Gibbs, and W. E. Snipes, with Ruling Elders Ralph Wade and G. W. McGee. Alternates, Rev. J. F. Menius and Ruling Elder J M. Bain.

2 That the petition from twenty-two people in a district lying five miles north of Fayetteville, on the Lillington-Fayetteville Highway, for an organization be granted, and the following Commission be appointed to organize the said church, if the way be clear: Rev. Messrs. A. R. McQueen, D. M. Clark, and L. Smith, with Ruling Elders W. A. West and A. S. Cromartie. Alternates, Rev. Eugene Alexander and Ruling Elder D. M. Fairley.

3. That the ministers of the Presbytery give Rev. Dixon McDonald all assistance possible in their congregations in his efforts to raise money for the employment of an assistant in the Johnston County Work.

Respectfully submitted,
A. R. McQUEEN, Chairman.

Presbytery took recess until 7:30 P. M., closing with prayer.

First Day—Night Session

Presbytery reconvened at 7:30 P. M., and after engaging in devotional exercises, a popular meeting was held laying emphasis on the Sunday School Work of the Church. Rev. Joe H. Carter, of the Central Presbyterian Church, Anderson, S. C., addressed Presbytery, after which Presbytery entered into a round-table discussion on Sunday School methods.

It was announced that the Committee appointed to raise the funds needed for the promotional work among the Sunday Schools of the Presbytery had successfully raised the amount asked for and Presbytery expressed its appreciation of the services of these men.

Presbytery adjourned with prayer to meet tomorrow morning at 8:45 o'clock.

Presbytery met at 8:45 and opened with devotional exercises led by Rev. D. L. Jones.

The minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

The Commission on Elise Academy made a verbal report and the Commission was continued.

The Committee on Bible Cause made the following report which was adopted:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON BIBLE CAUSE

Our report calls attention to some important facts gathered from the Minutes of the General Assembly and of the Synod.

First, that the American Bible Society is carrying on a great work in the translation, publication and distribution of the Holy Scriptures, and that there is a revival of interest through the Church in this, and, especially in foreign countries, in the reading and definite study of the Bible.

Second, statistics show that the Word of God is translated and is being distributed (at least large portions of it) in nearly all known languages and dialects of the world.

Third, that the Bible Society is making a specialty of printing neat and cheap editions of Bibles and Testaments; and neat Bibles can be had for 25 cents and Testaments for 15 cents and Gospels for two cents each.

We call special attention to the fact that much of this sort of work is being done by contributions from the churches and the larger the contribution, of course, the more work of distributing Bibles.

We call to your attention this fact, that to this cause, one of the most important causes, our Presbytery contributed last year, according to the report to the General Assembly, $174. This was the smallest amount contributed to any of the Assembly's causes.

We present for the adoption by our Presbytery the following recommendations adopted by the last meeting of our Synod:

1. "That we heartily endorse the work of the American Bible Society in its encouragement of a wider circulation of the Holy Scriptures.

2. "That inasmuch as December 9, 1934, has been designated as Universal Bible Sunday, the pastors be urged to co-operate in emphasizing the importance of the Holy Scriptures, preaching sermons and stressing the importance of the reading and studying of God's Holy Word, and to the financial support thereof."

Respectfully submitted,
L. SMITH, Chairman.

The Commtitee on Assembly's Minutes submitted its report, which was adopted as amended and is as follows:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON ASSEMBLY'S MINUTES

The Committee on Assembly's Minutes submits the following recommendations:

1. That Presbytery approve the amendment to the Book of Church Order, Paragraph 298, as handed down by the General Assembly.

2. That Presbytery disapprove the amendment to the Book of Church Order, Paragraph 112, as handed down by the General Assembly.

Respectfully submitted,
R. G. MATHESON, Chairman.

Presbytery took recess for five minutes.

Presbytery reconvened after a brief recess and engaged in devotional exercises and heard an address by Rev. Joe H. Carter, of Anderson, S. C., the invited speaker for this meeting of Presbytery.

As a special order of the day, Mr. Ernest Milton addressed Presbytery in the interest of the Presbyterian Orphans' Home. Following this address, the following Special Committee on the Orphans' Home was appointed: Harnett County, Rev. J. F. Menius and Mr. O. L. Johnson; Roberson County, Rev. R. L. Alexander and Mr. J. B. McCallum; Scotland County, Rev. J. C. B. McLaughlin and Mr. Mac Cameron; Hoke County, Rev. A. D. Carswell and Mr. Edgar Hall; Cumberland County, Rev. D. L. Jones and Dr. A. S. Cromartie; Moore County, Rev. E. L. Barber and Mr. Talbot Johnson; Johnston County, Rev. Dixon McDonald and Mr. Preston Woodall.

The Special Committee on Stated Supply made a verbal report and the Committee was continued and directed to report at the adjourned meeting of Presbytery in December.

An open discussion of Sunday School methods was led by Rev. James Appleby.

Presbytery took recess until 1:30 P. M.

Second Day—Afternoon Session

Presbytery reconvened at 1:30 P. M., and was led in prayer.

As a special order of the day, Presbytery heard the report of the Committee on Educational Institutions. In connection with this report, the Presidents of the following Educational Institutions addressed Presbytery: Flora Macdonald College, Presbyterian Junior College, and Elise Academy. The following resolution was adopted:

The Presbytery has heard with pleasure these addresses and heartily commend these institutions to our people.

His examination was sustained as satisfactory. The report as adopted is as follows:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CHRISTIAN EDUCATION AND MINISTERIAL RELIEF

Your Committee on Christian Education and Ministerial Relief recommends:

1. That the applications of Candidates Barney E. McLean and David F. Blue, Jr., for loans of $60.00 each from the Assembly's Committee be approved.

The Committee on Synod's Home Missions made the following report which was adopted:

REPORT ON SYNOD'S HOME MISSIONS

Your Committee on Synod's Home Missions recommends:

1. That all our churches be requested to meet their apportionments to Synod's Home Missions in full, and that a supplementary offering be taken for the work on the fourth Sunday of September, 1935, by churches, auxiliaries and Sunday Schools.

2. That Presbytery request the churches to adopt the plan of monthly remittances to the Treasurer of Synod's Home Missions. This policy would in some measure lift from our faithful workers the burden of the deficit they are so frequently made to carry.

3. That our pastors be requested to keep the blessed privilege and duty of evangelism before their congregations throughout the year and that evangelistic services be held in all our churches and mission points.

Respectfully submitted,
A. D. CARSWELL, Chairman.

REPORT OF HISTORICAL COMMITTEE

The Historical Committee made its report, presenting to the Presbytery histories of the following churches: Fayetteville First, Iona, Rowland, McPherson and Highland. The Committee recommends that the printed copy be accepted as the official Minutes of Presbytery.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON STATED SUPPLY

Your Committee on Stated Supply submits the following resolution and recommends its adoption:

Resolved: That Fayetteville Presbytery amend its Manual by adopting the following rules:

1. It shall be the rule of this Presbytery to appoint at each Spring meeting, for one year, a Commission on Pastoral Supply, said Commission to serve until the next Spring meeting of Presbytery. As this Commission must deal with self-supporting churches as well as Home Mission Fields, it should not be identical with the Home Mission Committee of the Presbytery.

2. It shall be the duty of said Commission to secure the consent of each church in the Presbytery, expressed by passing the following resolutions:

"We, the Session of ------------------------------ Church, on ---------------------------- (date), agree by motion and record in our Minutes, that at any time our church becomes vacant, we will co-operate with the Commission on Pastoral Supply in our Presbytery,

(a) By accepting a supply pastor for a period of three months, chosen by us from the available list of ministers who have volunteered to do pastoral supply work, but appointed by the Commission.

(b) By refusing to consent to call the supply pastor as a regular pastor of our church.

(c) By co-operating with the supply pastor in making an Every Member Canvass of our congregation and securing for our church a regular pastor.

(d) By paying the supply pastor for his services as agreed upon between ourselves and the Commission."

3. At any time a church becomes vacant, a member of the Commission shall be sent to preach, declare the pulpit vacant, and represent the Commission in making arrangements for a supply pastor. The Commission shall appoint a supply pastor, who shall remain on the field (not just an absentee preacher supply), for each vacant pastorate, to serve for a period of three months. The Commission shall make arrangements with the Sessions of the churches or Home Mission Committee about the remuneration for said supply pastor, which ordinarily should be the amount which the pastorate is accustomed to pay a regular pastor.

4. The supply pastor shall perform all the duties of a settled pastor, but, in addition, he shall be the special agent of the Commission of Presbytery to assist the officers in making a canvass to secure the salary for a new pastor and guide the church in calling one. Under no circumstances shall a supply pastor be permitted to accept a call to the field which he is serving by appointment of the Commission, though he may be at liberty to accept a call to any other field of service at the expiration of the three months.

5. At the end of three months, if the supply pastor has not succeeded in guiding the field in securing a pastor, upon request of the Session, he may be reappointed for an additional term of three months, but no longer. A new supply pastor shall be appointed if the former one has failed to guide the field in securing a pastor.

Respectfully submitted,
A. W. DICK, Chairman.

By action of Presbytery, the citation of churches in arrears with Presbyterial taxes was postponed until the next Fall meeting of Presbytery.

As a special order of the Day, Rev. H. G. Bedinger was heard in behalf of Flora McDonald College, and Rev. P. C. Adams in behalf of Presbyterian Junior College.

The Committee on Temperance reported favorably on the following resolution, which was placed in their hands at an earlier hour today. The report was adopted:

RESOLUTION

To the Members of the North Carolina State Legislature:

The Presbytery of Fayetteville, representing 93 churches, with a membership of 11,915, in Moore, Harnett, Robeson, Scotland, Hoke and Cumberland Counties, earnestly requests that you do not enact into law the Hill Liquor Bill or a substitute local option bill or other legislation favoring the legalizing of the sale of intoxicating drink in North Carolina.

And we further urge your affirmative vote on any bill providing for the more faithful enforcement of the prohibition law of the State.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEE ON ASSEMBLY'S WORK

The Permanent Committee on Assembly's Work made reports, which were received and the following recommendations adopted:

I. Christian Education and Ministerial Relief

Your Committee on Christian Education and Ministerial Relief recommends:

1. That the application of Rev. H. M. Dixon for aid from Ministerial Relief funds be sanctioned.

2. That the applications of the following widows for aid from Ministerial Relief Funds be sanctioned: Mrs. Nettie Goodman, Mrs. Ada Henderlite, Mrs. Flora McLaughlin, Mrs. Lucy McLeod, Mrs. Helen Matthews and Mrs. Cornelia Steele.

3. That the request of Candidate J. Murphy Smith for the privilege of omitting Hebrew from his Seminary course be not granted.

4. That the request of Candidate James A. Jones for a letter of dismission to Granville Presbytery be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

D. L. JONES, Chairman.

II. Foreign Missions

Your Committee on Foreign Missions recommends:

1. That in view of the facts presented, Foreign Missions be allotted the full percentage asked by the General Assembly in the benevolent budget, and that every pastor be urged to lay upon the hearts of his people the pressing need for a great increase in Foreign Mission giving.

2. That the attention of the pastors be called to the fact that the next special season for Foreign Mission Study, Prayer and Self-denial will come in October of this year, and that the Presbytery's Chairman of Foreign Missions be authorized to communicate with all pastors urging them to arrange for a thorough-going observance of this season.

3. That in accordance with the schedule of special days approved by the last General Assembly, May 5th be observed as Foreign Mission Day in all our churches with special offerings in the Sunday Schools for this cause.

4. That pastors take advantage of the offers of returned and retired missionaries to present the claims of Foreign Missions, whenever this is practicable.

Respectfully submitted,
M. P. CALHOUN, Chairman.

III. Home Missions

Your Committee on Home Missions recommends:

1. That our churches be more earnest in prayer for the Home Missionaries, the fields they serve, and the members of the Executive Committee who have this basic work in charge.

2. That our ministers inform the people more carefully in regard to this work, and urge them to increase their contributions to Home Missions so that salaries of workers may be increased and other phases of Home Mission activity may be prosecuted more efficiently.

Respectfully submitted,
G. F. KIRKPATRICK, Chairman.

The Executive Committees of Presbytery made the following reports, which were adopted:

I. Report of the Home Missions Committee for Six Months Ending March 31, 1935

The five Home Missions fields report 21 churches served, 320 services held, 27 professions of faith in Christ, 26 additions to the Church on profession of faith, 25 additions by letter, 21 Sabbath Schools maintained, one church building on Rev. E. B. Carr's field was repaired, 2 churches were organized, one on Rev. Dixon McDonald's field and the other on the field served by Rev. W. J.

Huneycutt. Fourteen of the 21 churches made the Every-Member Canvass, 2 failed to make any effort at the canvass, 4 partly completed the canvass, and 5 paid their apportionment in full.

The attention of the brethren failing to make the canvass is called to the rule that every church receiving aid from the Presbytery's Home Mission fund must make the canvass. The churches composing these fields are urged to increase the amount paid the pastors and relieve the Presbytery's Committee of as much of the burden of carrying on the work as possible. The Church is hindered in carrying the work into new fields by having to support the other churches.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That Olivia and Cameron Hill churches be permitted to employ Mr. William A. Brown, a senior at Union Theological Seminary, Richmond, to serve them on terms agreeable to both minister and churches, until the adjourned meeting of Presbytery in June, at which time these churches propose to call him as their pastor.

2. That $50.00 be granted to Gilmore Memorial Church from the Building Fund.

3. That Dr. W. M. Fairley be permitted to serve Montpelier Church for another year, on the same terms as at the present time.

4. That Rev. G. W. Hanna be permitted to serve Centre Church for one year, on the same terms as at present.

5. That Rev. F. M. Bain be permitted to serve Rex and Lumber Bridge churches for one year, on the same terms as at present.

6. That Rev. W. J. Hunneycutt be permitted to serve the Gilmore Memorial Church for one year, on terms agreeable to the church and him.

7. That Rev. R. G. Matheson continue to serve Samarcand Manor, as at present.

8. That Rev. Neill McInniss be permitted to serve Parkton Church for one year, on the same terms as those existing now.

9. That Presbytery appoint a commission, consisting of seven members, three ministers and four elders, three selected by each faction and the seventh appointed by the Moderator, to visit Hope Mills Church to select a site for the church building, each faction agreeing to abide by the decision of the commission.

10. That $25.00 be donated to the Spies Church for aiding in the painting of the inside of the church.

11. That $200.00 be taken from the balance in the treasury and applied to the salaries of the workers in the Home Mission group, this amount being necessary to bring the salaries of these men up to $1,200.00.

Respectfully submitted,
A. R. McQUEEN, Chairman.

II. Report of Stewardship Committee

Your Committee on Stewardship submits the following recommendations:

1. That the churches be commended for the increased interest and results shown in the Every-Member Canvass this year, and urge those churches not making the Canvass or that have not completed the Canvass to complete them as soon as possible.

2. That the following changes in the Presbyterial Tax Assessments be made:

Antioch	$30.00
Bluff	15.00
Godwin	12.00
McMillan	5.00
Montpelier	30.00

Respectfully submitted,
EUGENE ALEXANDER, Chairman.

III. Report of Committee on Religious Education

Rev. E. L. Barber, Chairman

Interest in Religious Education in Fayetteville Presbytery has received new impetus by the coming of Rev. J. O. Mann as Director for the Synod of North Carolina, who is making a splendid impression wherever he goes. The matter of Religious Education is growing in importance in the minds of Christian people, and Fayetteville Presbytery offers a wonderful opportunity in this field.

Dr. Mann would like to be used in this Presbytery, and we commend him and his work to our churches.

While Dr. Mann's salary is paid by our Committee in Richmond, his traveling expense is to be paid by the churches of the Synod of North Carolina.

We call your attention to Synod's Young People's Conference, which meets at Davidson College, June 11-18th.

A. Department of Sunday School Work

An effort has been made during the period since the Fall meeting of Presbytery to awaken greater interest in the Sunday School work of our churches. An attempt was made to have a conference of the Sunday School superintendents, and letters were written to all the pastors in the Presbytery, but the response was very poor.

However, there has been an increase, apparently, in the number added by profession—366.

Total membership in our Sunday Schools is now 11,000.

(Only 84 of 92 churches reported).

Total Contributions—$11,300.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That there be further correlation between the Sunday School and other agencies of the Church.

2. That greater effort be made to stimulate attendance and evangelism in the Sunday Schools of our Presbytery.

3. That our ministers organize outpost Sunday Schools where possible.

Respectfully submitted,
JAMES APPLEBY, Chairman.

B. Department of Young People's Work

Your Chairman of Young People's Work reports as follows:

There are 51 young people's organizations in the Presbytery, with a total membership of 1,411. Twenty-eight of these organizations are separate from the Sunday School and 8 part of the Sunday School. Fifteen organizations made no report as to this. Thirty of the organizations are organized according to the Assembly Plan and 4 according to Christian Endeavor Plan—30 organizations made no report as to this. Eleven churches reported having no young people's organization, while 29 others no report of organization in report to Presbytery. The total amount of contributions by young people's organizations was—to current expenses, $1,041.00 and to Benevolences, $734.00.

Respectfully submitted,
S. H. FULTON, Chairman.

C. Department of Men's Work

Following the order of Presbytery for an annual meeting of the men of the Church, a Conference on Men's Work was held on November 27, 1934, at the First Presbyterian Church, Fayetteville. This meeting was well attended by the Churches of the Presbytery, where men's work has been organized, and an interesting and helpful meeting was held afternoon and night. Dr. C. H. Storey, of St. Andrews Church, Wilmington, North Carolina, brought two splendid addresses to the Conference. Discussion was held and helpful suggestions were made on the various phases of the work.

We find that the following churches in the Presbytery report organized men's work: Aberdeen, Maxton, Fayetteville First; Laurinburg, St. Pauls and Olivia, and that 31 churches report organized Bible Classes.

We believe that we should have more of our churches with organized men's work, and that the success or failure of this matter rests primarily with the pastors of the churches.

Respectfully submitted,
A. W. DICK, Chairman.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That our churches make an offering at some convenient time for the cause of Religious Education in the Synod of North Carolina, and that such funds be sent to the Treasurer of Synod's Committee, Rev. E. L. Barber, Aberdeen, North Carolina.

2. We recommend that the Conference for the young people of Fayetteville Presbytery be held at Flora Mcdonald College—The Young People's Conference, June 3-10th—Intermediate Conference, June 10-15th.

3. That a men's meeting be held in Maxton, North Carolina next Fall, the date to be set upon the approval of the host church.

4. That the Presbytery commend to all the churches which do not have organized men's work, the organization of this work, following the Assembly's plan as nearly as possible.

Respectfully submitted,

E. L. BARBER, Chairman.

REPORT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE

The Presbytery of Fayetteville, in reply to the inquiry of Rev. Chas. R. Nesbit, Chairman of a Committee of the Trustees of Davidson College appointed to consider the question of dancing among the students of the College, goes on record as follows: We answer in the negative all three questions submitted to us, namely:

(a) "Shall dancing be authorized on the campus under faculty control?"

(b) "Shall dances be authorized in the town of Davidson under proper chaperonage?"

(c) "Shall the students be permitted to hold dances in Charlotte with what oversight the faculty is able to give?"

The Presbytery is aware of the serious and complex nature of the problem involved, and is deeply sympathetic with the faculty and trustees in their difficult duty. But, Presbytery believes that Davidson College exists primarily to uphold and exemplify Christian education and high ideals. This can best be done by remaining true to the principles of a century of splendid usefulness.

REPORT OF STEWARDSHIP COMMITTEE

Recommendations:

1. That March 8th, 1936, be designated Every Member Canvass Day, and that congregations be urged to accept the full benevolent apportionment sent down to them by Presbytery, making an earnest attempt to underwrite this amount in full during the Canvass week.

2. That March 22nd, 1936, be designated "Presbyterian Loyalty Day," upon which date every local church shall make an earnest attempt to collect in full all pledges for the year, sending their benevolent offerings immediately through proper channels to benevolent agencies so that they may reach these agencies before their books are closed on April 3rd, 1936.

3. Recognizing the efficiency of the Belmont Covenant Plan in reaching chosen goals and believing that the Benevolent Causes of our Church constitute the objective that should have equal claim upon the gifts of our people, we earnestly recommend that:

a. The churches of the Presbytery be urged to adopt the Belmont Covenant Plan, or a similar plan, for the Benevolent Causes of the church to go into effect by October first, or as soon after as possible.

b. Presbytery urge the ministers to present these Causes to their congregations in sermons upon the Causes or by references to them during this time in order to increase the interest of the people in the great Benevolent Causes of the Church.

The Committee on Religious Education made the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

a. General Report:

Your Committee on Religious Education is aware of the heartening challenge the whole field of Religious Education offers. Many of our Churches have entered upon a definite program which gives evidence of constructive leadership and a fine spirit of co-operation. Many of our ministers are much in earnest about this whole matter of Religious Education and are leading their churches in a splendid way.

However there has not been carried out in our Presbytery as a whole any comprehensive and constructive program for developing the entire Religious Education program of the church. Perhaps herein lies a partial explanation of the decrease in the attendance and interest of our Sunday Schools through our extension efforts, and other departments of church life.

But we are greatly encouraged by the coming of Dr. Mann and the cordial response given our work by the Synod and this Presbytery. And plans are being made for carrying out the program as outlined by Assembly's and Synod's Committees. With the backing of Fayetteville Presbytery, we have great hopes for our work.

Recommendations:

1. That as far as possible, the districts of Fayetteville Presbytery, as already divided, be used in the development of our Program.

2. That we endeavor to have the Session of each local Church, realizing that it is directly chargeable with responsibility for the Christian nurture of its people, either itself or through some appointed committee, to make a careful study of the Religious Education work which is being carried on and map out some simple constructive plan for enlarging and making more effective its leading ministry.

3. That the Committee, in co-operation with our Synodical Director, give encouragement and help in putting on training schools within the Presbytery and Churches, of such nature and scope as needs demand.

4. Because it furnishes such a practical and ready means of practically doubling the effectiveness of our teaching program we suggest that for this year as one concrete objective, the Committee conduct a campaign to secure as far as possible a Vacation Bible School in every one of our fields.

5. That district training schools for secretaries of Religious Education and adult advisors be held in the Presbytery.

If a campaign of comprehensive promotion along the above lines is carried on vigorously for the present church year, we believe that we will have laid the foundations for a healthy and constructive advance in the task of Christian Education in the bounds of our Presbytery.

6. That, in as much as the Synod has recognized and approved the North Carolina Council of Churches and has appointed delegates to represent it on that Council, Fayetteville Presbytery through its Committee on Religious Education appoint a sub-committee to be the medium of contact between the Presbytery and the North Carolina Council having especially in view an appraisal of the possibilities and opportunities presented by concerted action and opinion of the Churches of North Carolina, for the effective presentation in secular educational programs of courses on the Bible and on the principles of Christian living.

Respectfully submitted,
E. L. BARBER, Chairman.

b. Division of Young Peoples' Work:

Two conferences were held at Flora Macdonald College this summer: the Senior Conference with an enrollment of 139, ages 15 and up; the Intermediate Conference with an enrollment of 96, ages 12, 13, 14. The total enrollment of both Conferences was 20 less than the total enrollment of the combined Conference last year. We believe the decrease in enrollment to be due not to a lack of intrest in the Conference, but to the division into two Conferences for different aged groups and to the infantile paralysis scare. The Conference Committee considers that the enrollment was unusually good under the conditions. Reports from workers and students of the Conferences indicate that both Conferences did effective work.

The Conference Committee considers the division into two age groups a good move which will result in better work done, and eventually a larger number of young people reached than in one Conference.

Due to the decrease in enrollment and the unforseen overhead expenses of two Conferences above that of the one Conference, there was a deficit of $195.45. However, the surplus took care of that and the Conference has now $425.10 on deposit in the bank.

Recommendations:

1. That Presbytery extend its thanks to the Board of Trustees and the college authorities for the use of Flora Macdonald College for the Conferences; to all those who so faithfully and efficiently carried on the work of the Conferences.

2. That pastors be urged to give their sincere co-operation to the Conference work, selecting with care the young people who attend, and offering any suggestions for the good of the Conferences.

3. That the policy of having two Conferences for the different age groups be continued.

Respectfully submitted
S. H. FULTON, Chairman.

REPORT OF HISTORIAN

Rev. G. F. Kirkpatrick, Historian of the Presbytery, made a verbal report and presented sketches of Sardis and Erwin Churches, which sketches were read in part. Mrs. Chas. Rankin was introduced to Presbytery and related facts of historical significance regarding the Communion Silver and building of the First Church, Fayetteville. The report was received and the writers of the Historical Sketches and Mrs. Rankin were heartily thanked. The Stated Clerk was directed to file a copy of these sketches and send a copy to the Historical Foundation, Montreat, N. C.

The Committee on the State of Religion presented Ruling Elder D. S. Currie, M.D., who spoke on "Religion in the Home." The following recommendations offered by the Committee were adopted:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON STATE OF RELIGION

Recommendations:

1. That pastors make an effort to present to their congregations twice a year the pressing need of Christian Sabbath observance.
2. That all organizations of the Church, especially the Men-of-the-Church, Woman's Auxiliary, and Young People, make a study of the whole question of Sabbath observance, in order that the church membership may become 'Sabbath conscious.'
3. That, both from pulpit and pastoral visitation, the pastors use every opportunity to urge upon their people the imperative need of the family altar.
4. That officers, (elders and deacons) support their pastor in every possible way, especially by example, in his efforts to promote Sabbath observance and religion in the home.

Respectfully submitted,
M. P. CALHOUN, Chairman.

Presbytery took recess for five minutes.

Presbytery reconvened and heard the doctrinal sermon which was preached by Rev. Eugene Alexander on the subject, "What Can the Minister Do To Promote Sabbath Observance?"

The Committee on Presbytery's Educational Institutions made a verbal report which was received as information.

Presbytery took recess until 2:00 P. M.

SECOND DAY—AFTERNOON SESSION

Presbytery reassembled at 2:00 P. M. and engaged in devotional exercises.

In connection with the Report of the Committee on Religious Education Rev. J. O. Mann, Director of Religious Education in the Synod of North Carolina, was heard in an address on Religious Education.

The Committee on Social and Moral Welfare made a verbal report which was received as information.

The Committee on Home Missions made the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON PRESBYTERY'S HOME MISSIONS

Six Months Ending September 30th, 1935.

All the Home Mission fields of the Presbytery have been regularly supplied since the last meeting of Presbytery. Three hundred and forty-one services were held, and protracted meetings held in most of the churches. There were 97 professions of faith in Christ, 79 additions to the church on profession and 7 by letter. All the churches on the field served by Rev. Messrs. D. M. Clark and J. W. Crinkly made the Every Member Canvass. On Rev. Dixon McDonald's field, 3 out of 4, on Rev. W. J. Huneycutt's field, 3 out of 5. None of the churches on Rev. E. B. Carr's field made the Canvass.

Up until the close of the church year, March 31st, all the workers were paid at least the minimum salary of $1,200 and a manse. A few years ago the Presbytery was spending from $8,000 to $10,000 per year on its Home Mission work. Last year it spent about $2,200, and more than half of this amount was paid toward the support of churches in older groups.

In spite of the rule of Presbytery that Home Mission funds are available only to those churches which make the Every Member Canvass, some of the churches in some of these groups do not make the Canvass. Your Committee feels that no church has any right to call upon the other churches for help until it has done the utmost for itself.

With all the economy your Committee can practice, we cannot do the work that is imperative with our present income.

Recommendations:

1. That no field be granted aid for the next year unless it reports to the Spring meeting of Presbytery that it has made a thorough Every Member Canvass in all its churches.

2. That the Lord's Acre Plan be adopted and recommended to the country churches of the Mission fields.

3. That the Chairman of the Committee co-operate with the various pastors of the Mission groups in the introduction of this plan.

4. That a donation of $35.00 be made to the Cedar Rock Church for the purchase of paint for the outside of the church building.

5. That the request of Rev. E. B. Carr for the dissolution of the pastoral relations existing between the churches of his group and himself be dissolved, effective January 1st, 1936, be granted, and that he be privileged to serve the group on the same terms as at present until the Spring meeting of Presbytery.

Three out of four churches in the group concur in the request of their pastor.

6. That the ministers and churches of the Presbytery co-operate in every possible way in Rev. I. N. Clegg's work of colportage for the Synod's Committee on Home Missions.

A. R. McQUEEN, Chairman.

The Committee on Temperance made a verbal report, which was received as information.

The Committee on Printed Minutes made the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT OF PRINTED MINUTES

Your Committee has compared a corrected copy of the Printed Minutes of the Spring meeting (1935) of Presbytery with the written minutes and finds that a true copy has been made.

The Committee recommends that the printed copy be accepted as the official Minutes of Presbytery.

Respectfully submitted,
J. M. LEMMON, Chairman.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures made the following report, which was adopted as amended:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON BILLS AND OVERTURES

Your Committee on Bills and Overtures makes the following recommendations:

1. That the Presbytery of Fayetteville disapprove the Amendment to Paragraph 86 concerning election of Commissioners for a term of two years.

2. That the Presbytery of Fayetteville disapprove the Amendment concerning dual membership of pastors of united or federated churches.

Respectfully submitted,
A. W. DICK, Chairman.

The Committee on Nominations submitted its report which was adopted. (See "General Directory").

The Committee on Resolutions made the following report, which was adopted by a rising vote:

RESOLUTION OF THANKS

Your Committee on Resolutions would report:

The First Church of Fayetteville has long been looked upon, if not the mother church, at least the leading church of the Presbytery. To many of us this meeting has been looked upon as a real home-coming, to others a visit to the shrine from which has eminated much of the power that has shaped our history. We wish to assure the members of this church, of our love and appreciation of this beautiful old church building, and your constant leadership in the work of Fayetteville Presbytery and our prayers that you may continue to be an inspiration to us all.

We would like to thank Mr. J. R. Boyd and his Committee on entertainment for their untiring energy, courtesy and thoughtfulness in providing for our comfort; the Boy Scouts for their cheerful service, the homes for their cordial hospitality, the ladies for their noon lunches, the Men-of-the-Church for the barbecue supper, the choir for the soul-stiring music, Mr. and Mrs. McKelway and Mr. and Mrs. Gibson for the beautifully rendered quartettes. Last of all we want to thank Mr. Dick, the pastor, for his genuine, smiling, and gracious hospitality and the elders and deacons, who so heartily co-operated with him.

We pray God's blessing upon you all.

Respectfully submitted,
W. M. FAIRLEY, Chairman.

The Stated Clerk announced that all Commissioners to the 1935 General Assembly had submitted written reports of their attendance upon the Assembly and they were commended for their diligence.

Ruling Elders: W. H. Currie, N. H. McGeachy, L. Z. Collier, Clarence Lytch.

Presbytery accepted an invitation to the Laurel Hill Church for its Spring meeting.

By order of Presbytery the Manual of Presbytery was changed, fixing the hour for the meeting of the Executive Committees on the opening day of Presbytery at 10:00 o'clock A. M., instead of 9:00 A. M.

It was ordered that the usual number of the Minutes and Dockets be printed.

The minutes of today's sessions were read and approved.

Presbytery adjourned with prayer and the benediction, to meet in January, 1936, at a time and place to be arranged for by the Chairman of the Stewardship Committee and the Stated Clerk.

MINUTES OF COMMISSION ON HOPE MILLS CHURCH

Hope Mills, N. C., May 20, 1935.

The Commission of Fayetteville Presbytery to locate a site for the Hope Mills Church met in the Parish House at 2:00 P. M. There were present: Rev. W. S. Golden, Chairman; Revs. J. F. Menius, and G. The Commission was opened with prayer. Rev. J. F. Menius was elected clerk. The purpose of the Commission was read by the Chairman. After a discussion of the matter, it was agreed that before any progress could be made all parties must agree to abide by the decision of the Commission. The Commission therefore requested its Chairman, Rev. W. S. Golden, to visit the Hope Mills congregation in the near future, preach a sermon, and if possible secure the assent of the entire church to submit the matter of locating the church to the Commission, and agree to abide by its decision; the Commission agreeing, on its part, to hear fully all parties concerned.

The Commission adjourned with prayer to reconvene at the call of the Chairman.

W. S. GOLDEN, Chairman.

At the call of the Chairman the Commission on the Hope Mills Church met in the Parish House at 2:00 P. M. and was opened with prayer. All the members of the Commission, except Dr. P. P. McCain, were present.

Rev. W. S. Golden reported that, in compliance with the request of the Commission, he had visited the Hope Mills Church on June 9, 1935, and preached for them. In a regularly called congregational meeting the following resolutions were presented to them:

"Be it resolved: That the congregation of Hope Mills Presbyterian Church does hereby agree, individually and collectively, as a congregation, to accept in good faith and loyalty whatever decision may be made by the Commission of Presbytery concerning the location of our new church building, after the Commission has heard all the facts relevant thereto which the members of the church wish to present."

Mr. Golden reported that, when a vote was taken on the resolution, 24 voted in favor of it, and 33 declined to submit to the action of Presbytery's Commission and abide by its decision.

On motion the Commission decided to hear both sides regarding the location of the church. Thirty minutes were allowed each side. About 25 people were present and a number of them expressed their desires in the matter. Ample time was given to any one who wished to make any statements whatever.

The Commission then voted to go into executive session. It was the unanimous opinion of the Commission that any action on its part at this time would be unwise.

The Commission voted to report the facts to Presbytery and ask for further information.

The Commission adjourned with prayer to meet at the call of the Chairman.

W. S. GOLDEN, Chairman,
J. F. MENIUS, Clerk.

Hope Mills, N. C., September 24, 1935.

The Commission on the Hope Mills Church reconvened at Hope Mills at 2:00 P. M. and was opened with prayer. Mr. J. S. Ray met with the Commission. A number of available lots were inspected with view to selection of a building site. Mr. Ray was questioned as to the sites which might be agreed upon. It appeared that no site would be agreeable to the majority of the church unless it were on the west side of the railroad.

The Commission went into executive session. The following action was taken in regard to the location of a church at Hope Mills:

"We recommend to the congregation of the Hope Mills Church, viz:

1. That the Hope Mills Church be instructed not to rebuild on the old site.

The minutes of the former meetings of the Commission were read and approved.

The Commission, after the reading and approval of its minutes, adjourned with prayer, to meet after the second Sunday of December, provided the congregational meeting had been held, other-erwise at the call of the Chairman.

W. S. GOLDEN, Chairman,

A quorum being present, the following call for the meeting was stated and found in order: "The congregation of the Hope Mills Presbyterian Church is called to meet after worship service on Sunday night, January 26, 1936, for the purpose of 1. Voting as to the location of the new church building, and 2. The appointment of a pulpit committee to secure a pastor." Mr. J. S. Ray was elected clerk.

The first item of business was taken up—to vote on a site for the new church. The motion was made and seconded that the new church be located on the old site. The vote was unanimous in favor of the motion.

The second item of business was considered—to appoint a committee to secure a pastor. Mr. E. L. McDonald was appointed and Mr. J. S. Ray was appointed to serve with him if it was necessary after conferring with the committees from the other churches in the group.

There being no further business, motion for adjournment was made and carried, and the meeting adjourned with prayer by the Moderator.

The following Memorial of Rev. D. M. Clark was read by Dr. A. R. McQueen and was adopted by a rising vote:

MEMORIAL OF REV. D. M. CLARK

"There is no man that hath power over the spirit to retain the spirit; neither hath he power in the day of death; and there is no discharge in that war," and the "one event that happeneth to them all" came to Rev. D. M. Clark at his home at Linden, N. C., March 18, 1936, and he went out to receive the "Well done" from the Captain of his salvation.

David Myers Clark was born at Jefferson, S. C., March 8, 1881. He was graduated from Presbyterian College, Clinton, S. C., in 1907, and from Columbia Seminary in 1910. On June 1, 1910, he married Miss Sallie Lee Harrison, who with two sons and two daughters survive him.

For one year he supplied Mt. Zion Church, St. Charles, S. C. He was pastor of Olanta and Bethel Churches for eight years, when he became pastor of Andrews Church for six years. His next field was Estill and Allendale Churches where he remained for two years. Nine years ago he became pastor of Sardis, Westminster, Bunnlevel and Palestine Churches, of this Presbytery, and which he served until his death.

Brother Clark was a conservative and faithful preacher of the gospel, teaching always that men should "observe all things whatsoever Christ had said unto them," which resulted in the bringing into the Saviour's Kingdom the lost, and in building up the Lord's people in the faith. As a pastor he had few equals. His visitations of the sick and those in distress was constant and effective. In this place of his work, he knew no denominational lines. His one aim was to serve men in the name of Christ, and the devotion of his people to him throughout the five months of illness was beautiful.

He walked in the way in which he had taught others to walk during his ministry, the way which leads to eternal life. His remains were laid to rest at Longtown, S. C., to await the Lord's call.

The Stated Clerk read the names of the Ruling Elders who have died since last Spring Meeting of Presbytery, and it was ordered that these names be inscribed on a Memorial Page of the Minutes. Presbytery engaged in a prayer of thanksgiving for these consecrated lives and God's blessing on their families.

Rev. L. L. Little informed the Presbytery of his desire and plans to return to active work in China at an early date. Presbytery engaged in prayer for God's blessings on his plans.

Presbytery took recess until 2:00 P. M.

Rev. G. W. Hanna offered his resignation as pastor of Antioch Church and requested that the pastoral relationship be dissolved. The Church was heard from through its representative, reluctantly concurring with Mr. Hanna in this request. The request was granted and the pastoral relations dissolved. Mr. Hanna was also granted permission to labor outside the bounds of Presbytery until the next Spring Meeting of Presbytery. The Stated Clerk was authorized to grant Mr. Hanna a letter of transfer at his request.

The time having arrived to hear the answer of the Hope Mills Church to the citation of Presbytery, this matter was taken up. The minutes of the Commission on the Hope Mills Church were read by the Stated Clerk. Mr. W. W. Bishop, a Ruling Elder of the Hope Mills Church, spoke in behalf of the Church. The following resolution was adopted:

RESOLUTION

That the Commission appointed on the Hope Mills Church be discharged and that a new Commission of seven—four ministers and three ruling elders—be appointed with full powers to act in handling the trouble in the Hope Mills Church. Presbytery urges the fulfilment of their Commission as speedily as possible.

The following were appointed on this Commission: Rev. E. L. Barber, Chairman; Revs. C. M. Gibbs, L. A. McLaurin, R. G. Matheson, and Ruling Elders McKay McKinnon, Maxton; J. H. Suttenfield, Bethesda; E. F. Murray, Laurinburg.

Presbytery took recess until 7:30 P. M.

FIRST DAY — NIGHT SESSION

The Special Committee on the Diamond Jubilee Celebration made a partial report in connection with which Presbytery heard Rev. E. T. Thompson, D.D., in a most inspiring lecture on the subject, "Southern Presbyterians—Their Past." The Chairman of the Committee presented a questionnaire on the "Appraisal of the Minister," to which the ministers of the Presbytery gave answer. The report of the Committee went over as unfinished business to be taken up as a special order tomorrow.

Presbytery adjourned with prayer to meet tomorrow morning at 8:45 o'clock.

SECOND DAY—MORNING SESSION

Presbytery met according to adjournment and was led in devotional exercises by Rev. James Appleby.

The Committee on Christian Education and Ministerial Relief presented Candidates D. F. Blue, Jr., and D. D. MacBryde for licensure. Presbytery examined them on their Knowledge of Theology, Church Government and the Sacraments, and the English Bible. Each candidate presented an English Thesis, an Exegesis, and a Popular Lecture, which were accepted as satisfactory. Mr. Blue preached a sermon on the text, Matt. 5:6, and Mr. MacBryde on Gal. 6:14. These sermons were accepted as a satisfactory part of the examination. The examination as a whole was sustained as satisfactory. Presbytery proceeded in the manner prescribed in the Book of Church Order to license Mr. Blue to preach the gospel as a probationer; and Mr. MacBryde was licensed and ordained as an evangelist, and having signed the obligations required of its minister by the Presbytery, was enrolled as a member of the Presbytery. Mr. MacBryde was granted permission to labor outside the bounds of the Presbytery for one year.

Presbytery heard Rev. E. T. Thompson, D.D., the visiting speaker for this meeting of Presbytery, in an address on "The Present and Future of the Southern Presbyterian Church." The report of the Special Committee on the Diamond Jubilee Celebration was resumed with an appraisal of the Presbytery. The report as adopted is as follows:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON DIAMOND JUBILEE CELEBRATION

The Committee on the Diamond Jubilee Celebration begs to submit the following report:

Your chairman has made a careful study of the work before this Committee and expects to complete the organization of the Committee at this meeting of Presbytery.

We find a complete Jubilee Schedule set forth in the Manual on Diamond Jubilee Year.

A preliminary report on the Covenant for Bible Reading, Prayer, Family Altar and Tithing is recorded here: Of the 28 ministers in the Presbytery written to for a report, 16 have reported with the total results as follows: Covenant for Bible Reading, 879; Covenant for Prayer, 635; Covenant for Family Altar, 192; Covenant for Tithing, 202. Of the 16 reporting, two had not presented the matter to their churches and two more could give no tabulated report.

Recommendations:

1. That every minister in the Presbytery be urged to make a careful study of the Diamond Jubilee Manual and to cooperate in faithfully presenting each phase of the program to their churches which they serve.

2. That the following members of Presbytery's Committee be named on several sub-committees, the first named in each case as chairman:

Stewardship—Rev. Eugene Alexander, Mr. McKay McKinnon.

Bible Study and Prayer—Rev. G. F. Kirkpatrick, Mr. McQueen Bailey and Mr. J. M. Shaw.

Evangelism—Rev. E. L. Barber, Mr. C. G. Rose, and Mr. Linwood McCallum.

Evaluation and Advance—Rev. S. H. Fulton and Mr. Mac Cameron.

Special attention is called to the next three items on the Jubilee Schedule:

May 10th. Preliminary report to congregations by local church committees on Evaluation and Advancement.

May 17th. Church Wide Day of Humiliation and Prayer.

May 21st. Anniversary Meeting of the General Assembly.

It is with gratitude that your Committee welcomes Rev. E. T. Thompson to our Presbytery for two special addresses on Our Diamond Jubilee Program. After his address tonight the appraisal of the minister will be considered followed by the appraisal of Presbytery tomorrow morning at its regular place on the docket.

Respectfully submitted,

A. W. DICK, Chairman.

Presbytery took recess until 1:45 P. M.

SECOND DAY—AFTERNOON SESSION

Presbytery reconvened at 1:45 P. M., and engaged in worship.

The Commission to install Rev. W. J. Huneycutt as pastor of the Church in the Pines made the following report which was received and incorporated in the minutes of Presbytery:

3. That all the Churches in the Presbytery be asked to increase by 25 per cent their contributions to Foreign Missions during the current year in accordance with the recommendation of the General Assembly.

Respectfully submitted,
M. P. CALHOUN, Chairman.

II. Assembly's Home Missions

Your Committee on Assembly's Home Missions recommends:

G. F. KIRKPATRICK, Chairman.

III. Christian Education and Ministerial Relief

Your Committee on Christian Education and Ministerial Relief recommends:

1. That Candidate James Thomas Ellis, Jr., at his own request, be dropped from the list of Candidates, owing to his inability to return to college and complete his education for the ministry.

2. That the applications for ministerial relief of the following persons be endorsed by the Presbytery for the amounts indicated: Rev. H. M. Dixon, $408.00; Mrs. Nettie Goodman, $180.00; Mrs. Ada C. Henderlite, $180.00; Mrs. Flora McLauchlin, $100.00 (reduced from $132.00); Mrs. Lucy Currie McLeod, $216.00; Mrs. Cornelia F. Clark, $180.00. That the name of Mrs. Helen Camp Matthews, who has been on the list for a part of the past year, but who reported early in the year that she had employment sufficient to support her and was therefore discontinued by the Assembly's Committee, be further discontinued, and she be commended for thus helping the Committee to help others more needy.

3. That Presbytery overture the General Assembly to set aside the year 1937 as the time to finish raising the Ministers' Annuity Fund.

4. That Presbytery appoint a well qualified and representative committee to promote the Ministers' Annuity Fund.

W. S. GOLDEN, Chairman.

IV. Assembly's Educational Institutions

Respectfully submitted,
J. F. MENIUS, Chairman.

The Executive Committees of Presbytery made the following reports, which were adopted:

I. Report of the Home Missions Committee

Of the Home Mission fields of the Presbytery, all but two are vacant. Rev. W. J. Huneycutt moved from the Fayetteville group to the Church in the Pines the first of the year. Rev. D. M. Clark, of the Sardis group, passed to his reward March 18. Rev. E. B. Carr, of Barbecue group, has moved to his home near Wallace, N. C. Your Committee will place men in these fields as early as possible. The Rev. C. I. Calcote has accepted the work in the Union-Vass group.

The churches on Rev. Dixon McDonald's field have made a most commendable effort to increase the amount of their contributions this year, and will probably give about $500.00 as compared to a very small amount last year. There were three additions to the churches of this group on profession of faith during the last six months, and three by letter. All these churches made the Every Member Canvass. All the churches on Rev. J. W. Crinkley's field paid their apportionments in full for the last year. Rev. J. T. Echols began work in the Benson-Four Oaks group the first of the calendar year, and is making satisfactory progress. He has made the Every Member Canvass on this field.

Recommendations:

1. That Rev. W. A. Brown serve Cypress Church till the Fall meeting of Presbytery at a salary of $25.00 per month.

2. That the Rev. James S. Gray be permitted to serve the Fairmont Church for one year at a salary of $520.00 per year.

3. That Rev. F. M. Bain serve the Rex and Lumber Bridge Churches for one year on terms agreeable to the churches and himself.

4. That Rev. W. M. Fairley be requested to preach once a month at Naomi Church for one year.

5. That Rev. E. B. Carr be permitted to labor outside the bounds of the Presbytery for one year.

6. That $400.00 be loaned to the Raven Rock Church on good security.

7. That the Home Missions Committee be permitted to employ a woman worker for two months, at least, to assist Mr. McDonald with the younger classes of the Sunday School work in his field.

8. That the Synod's Committee be asked to give the same amount to workers in the mission fields of this Presbytery as last year.

Respectfully submitted,
A. R. McQUEEN, Chairman.

II. Stewardship

A verbal report of this Committee was received as information, and the following recommendation adopted:

Your Committee on Stewardship recommends that the Presbyterial Tax of the Vass Church be reduced from $15 to $10 per year.

Respectfully submitted,
EUGENE ALEXANDER, Chairman.

III. Report of Committee of Religious Education

In many respects, your Committee on Religious Education feels that this past year has been most encouraging. We have seen many evidences of an awakening of interest in the cause of Religious Education in Fayetteville Presbytery on the part of many of our ministers, officers, teachers and leaders. For this we are grateful. The lack of any funds whatsoever, urgently needed, with which to adequately carry on our work rendered it very difficult. However, the fine spirit of co-operation of every group in the Presbytery largely offset that very real handicap.

One of our real accomplishments for the year was a series of four Conferences in the form of Forums on Religious Education, held in Pinehurst, Lillington, Maxton and Raeford, in which we undertook to lay before Presbytery the whole task of Religious Education. These conferences were held in January during extremely cold weather. Yet we were able to reach between four and five hundred people who were interested in this increasingly important work. Our Synodical Director, Rev. J. O. Mann, and Dr. J. M. Walker of Steele Creek Church, worked with our Committee in a splendid way to make these conferences worth while. We have been gratified with the enthusiastic response from all sections of the Presbytery to these Forums.

Another encouragement we have received is the increasing numbers of our churches now beginning to make regular contributions to this Cause in the Synod. As we enter into this year, we trust that every Church in the Presbytery will have this work in their budget and see to it that these gifts come regularly.

In view of the fact that our Committee has been reorganized according to the Plan of our Committee in Richmond and adopted by General Assembly, Synod and Presbytery, we are asking our Sub-Committee Chairmen to present their own reports with their recommendations.

We submit here some general recommendations for the prayerful consideration of Presbytery and its adoption.

Respectfully submitted,
E. L. BARBER, Chairman.

Recommendations:

1. That every church in the Presbytery scrutinize carefully its benevolent budget for the current year to make sure that the Cause of Religious Education and Publication and the Cause of Religious Education in the Synod have been included for their full percentage.

3. That every church observe Rally Day, Sunday, October 4, 1936, with an appropriate program, and a generous Rally Day offering be encouraged.

4. That in connection with Rally Day each congregation, that has not already done so, undertake a religious survey of its own community, the results of which shall be presented to the congregation as a basis for immediate evangelistic and organizational activities this Fall.

A. Adult Division:

Pursuant to the orders of Spring Meeting of Presbytery of 1935 a Conference on Men's Work was held last fall, November 12, at the Presbyterian Church in Maxton. 115 registered delegates were reported representing 30 churches of our Presbytery. This was a marked increase in attendance and especially in churches represented last year. Dr. F. Crossley Morgan gave a splendid address on The English Bible.

Enthusiastic and helpful discussion groups were held for Elders and Deacons and your committee is much encouraged in the interest being taken by our ministers and officers concerning the program of adult education in the churches.

Recommendations:

1. That each minister be urged to secure a copy of "Adult Education in the Church," (Sherrill and Purcell) and to study this in connection with the Church's program for adult education.

2. That the attention of the Ministers and Officers be called to the course of study prepared by Dr. E. B. Paisley, "Ruling Elder and Deacon: Their Office and Work," and that this course be taught in each church during the coming year.

3. That the Presbytery order a Men's Conference to be held next Fall upon invitation from a church in the Presbytery, the time to be determined by the host church.

4. That your chairman of Men's Work be allowed a maximum of $25 expense in securing a speaker for the Fall program.

Respectfully submitted,
A. W. DICK, Chairman.

B. Young People's Division:

Reports from the Churches of the Presbytery of the Young Peoples' Work in the Churches are very incomplete. Out of the 85 Churches reporting, 50 of them make no report of the Young Peoples' Work. We would urge upon all Churches to study the part of reports dealing with the Young Peoples' work and to furnish the information asked for. According to the reports of this year: there are 15 organizations as a part of the Sunday School; 36 organizations as a separate organization, 36 organizations use the Young People of the Church program and plan; 4 use the Christian Endeavor plan and program. There are 3 organizations for Juniors reported.

Recommendations:

1. That Young Peoples' Groups adopt the Vacation Church School Fund as their special Young Peoples' religious education objective for Jubilee Year, it being understood that this is their part of the Church's regular Religious Education Budget.

2. That two Conferences be held at Flora Macdonald College: The Intermediate Conference, June 11-17, ages 12, 13, 14; the Senior Young Peoples' Conference, June 17-24, ages 15 and up.

3. That pastors be urged to give their sincere co-operation to the Conference work, selecting with care the young people who attend and offering any suggestions for the good of the Conferences.

Respectfully submitted,
S. H. FULTON, Chairman.

C. Children's Division:

In view of the splendid opportunity afforded us in the Vacation Church School for teaching the children of our Church and community, your Committee on the Children's division recommends:

Recommendations:

1. That every Church in the Presbytery conduct a Vacation Church School of two weeks duration during the vacation period.

2. That in preparation for the Church Schools the Committee on Religious Education arrange to conduct four forums on the setting up of a Church School, these forums to be held during the month of May at the following places: Lillington, Pinehurst, Raeford, and Maxton.

3. That pastors and sessions give earnest consideration to using the morning church service on Sunday, October 4, 1936, as an appropriate occasion: (a) For impressing upon their congregations the magnitude and solemnity of the Church's spiritual obligation to its children and (b) for challenging parents to do their full share of religious teaching in their own homes.

Respectfully submitted,

M. P. CALHOUN, Chairman.

D. Leadership Training:

This department of our Religious Education work was represented in each of the conferences that were held during the month of January. Your chairman has assisted, or is to assist, in Leadership Training Schools in our Presbytery. He has ordered literature to be sent to our various churches.

Recommendations:

1. That each pastor consider himself directly responsible for the improvement of teaching in his Church Schools.

2. That each pastor teach at least one class each year in his congregations in some of the Bible units.

3. That the "First Series" Courses of Standard Leadership Curriculum be used in every church in so far as possible.

4. That Pastors, Superintendents and Teachers study the Sunday School literature prepared especially for use in our own Presbyterian Churches and Sunday Schools, with a view to its full adoption, by every church in our Assembly; and that our Sunday Schools be cautioned against the indiscriminate use of unauthorized lesson materials published for use in other denominations or distributed by purely secular business agencies.

5. That Presbytery's Committee on Religious Education be authorized to lay plans for a "Laboratory School" for workers with children at some central point or points within the Presbytery this Fall with a view to facing more seriously with these teachers the tremendous responsibility of our Church for affording our children the best religious instruction available from the best teachers our Church can prepare.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES APPLEBY, Chairman.

E. Religious Education in Public Schools:

Recommendations:

1. That Fayetteville Presbytery realize the responsibility and opportunity before it for bringing to the mass of school children basic religious instruction.

2. That the Committee on Religious Education be authorized to enlarge this Sub-Committee so that each County within the bounds of the Presbytery shall be represented.

3. That Fayetteville Presbytery overture the Synod of North Carolina to appoint a Synod's Committee on Religious Education in the Public Schools.

Respectfully submitted,
A. J. McKELWAY, Chairman.

IV. Report of the Committee on Woman's Work

Your committee on Woman's Work submits the following report:

During the past year the Auxiliaries of the Presbytery have made a splendid showing as to the work done and the contributions raised. Of the 47 work objectives there have been gains in 26 instances, and losses reported in only 10. In the contributions raised there has been an increase of $1,574, a gain of $1.00 per member. REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SYNOD'S WORK

The Permanent Committee on Synod's Work made reports which were disposed of as follows: the Report on Educational Institutions was adopted; the Report on Orphans' Home was received as information and the recommendations adopted; the Report on Minutes of Synod was received as information. In connection with the Report on Educational Institutions, Rev. P. Cary Adams spoke in the interest of Presbyterian Junior College.

I. Report on Educational Institutions

Your Committee on Synod's Educational Institutions begs leave to report:

1. Union Theological Seminary seems to have had a very successful year, with the professors and student body in good health and doing satisfactory work. They have enrolled this year 25 seniors, 25 Middlers, 27 Juniors and 50 Special Students, making 127 in all. Of this number, 20 are from North Carolina, three of whom are from our Presbytery, D. D. McBryde, Ben Lacy Rose, and John Murphy Smith. Dr. Lacy reports that more of the students than usual have been engaged for summer work. Many of the Seniors, however, have not secured work.

We are sad at the announcement of the death of Rev. T. Cary Johnson, D.D., the last remaining member of the old faculty that moved from Hampden Sidney in 1898 to Richmond.

The Treasurer, Mr. Miller, says that while the year has not yet closed he thinks that the institution will be able to pay all bills this year.

2. The Presbyterian Junior College at Maxton, N. C., reports that they too have had a good year. 110 students have been enrolled during the year, 96 of whom are at present on the campus. The boarding department has the largest number of students on record. They have discontinued receiving young ladies as students, which decreased the enrollment about 15. $2,022 has been paid on old indebtedness, extensive improvements have been made on the buildings and grounds, and much repair work done. 505 books have been added to the library.

Mr. Adams has started a dairy and reports the gift of a registered Guernsey bull, a Holstein cow, and a number of cows taken in as part payment from students. He has received in cash from the Synod, Presbyterial and individual gifts, $2,560.

The entire indebtedness of the College is about $35,000, most of which is carried in a generous and gracious way by two of the Trustees. It is impossible to run an institution like this and pay interest on debts with no income other than students' fees. We need to wipe out our indebtedness of about $35,000, run the enrollment up to 125 students and have $5,000 income other than students' fees. We now have about 100 students, $2,500 income from Synod and other sources, and a debt of about $35,000, largely carried by two good friends.

It would be fine if this Presbytery in whose bounds P. J. C. is located could institute some measure to get the Synod to come to the aid of this, her only school. We need 125 boys, and could easily have them, if our ministers and elders would give us sympathetic co-operation. We need 100 individuals to give us $50.00 a year as a sustaining fund until our debt is paid and some endowment provided for. P. J. C. is filling a great need in our educational system and its future is as bright as we make it.

Respectfully submitted,
W. M. FAIRLEY, Chairman.

II. Report on Orphans' Home

Recommendations:

1. That all churches make a special effort to increase their contributions to the Orphanage at Thanksgiving.

2. That pastors and Sunday School Superintendents keep the Cause of the Orphanage before the churches and Sunday Schools, and insist that regular monthly offerings be taken.

Respectfully submitted,
A. D. CARSWELL, Chairman.

III. Report on Minutes of the Synod

Your Committee would respectively call the attention of Presbytery to all matters and recommendations effecting the work of the Presbytery.

Respectfully submitted,
DIXON McDONALD, Chairman.

The Permanent Committees on Presbytery's Work submitted the following reports which were adopted:

c. Congregational meetings recorded in minutes of Session: Elise, Mt. Pisgah, Sherwood.

d. Treasurer's book not examined: Eagle Springs, Fairmont, Benson.

Respectfully submitted,
R. G. Matheson, Chairman.

II. Presbytery's Educational Institutions

Your Committee on Presbytery's Educational Institutions submits the following report:

1. Flora Macdonald College:

Flora MacDonald College reports its celebration of the fortieth anniversary this year. The College is making satisfactory progress. Enrollment, 315 students. Fine spirit and excellent work have marked the present year. There has been a remarkable interest in the religious activities of the church. All but five are members of the church.

The financial condition is improving, operating expenses and salaries met promptly, the debt reduced, and the college operating on its budget for the fifth consecutive year. $2,000 paid on pledges was used to reduce the debt.

Scholarship memorials have been established by Mrs. F. S.

Royster in honor of her brother, Dr. Thomas Stamps, and the son and daughters of Mrs. Mary Livingston Patterson in honor of their mother.

The present needs of the college are:

General: Increase of endowment and reduction of debt.

Special: A new dormitory, enlarged library, Home Economics Building, Gymnasium.

2. Elise Academy:

The enrollment this year is the largest ever had, being around 250. The Bible Department under Miss Mildred Holler is doing splendid work. During the year several hundred dollars worth of equipment and materials needed for carrying on the work, has been received. The school continues to operate without increasing its indebtedness and the old indebtedness is gradually being reduced. The Commercial Department has made rapid progress. The school now offers a course in bookkeeping which gives wider opportunities to the boys and girls attending. Two boys in the school intend to enter the ministry.

3. Davidson College:

Your Committee notes with deep gratitude the fact that Davidson College will soon complete a century of service in the field of Christian Education; that plans are being made for a proper celebration of this event in 1937; that the College Administration is looking to the future with a vision of a better equipped plant; that plans are being made to meet the needs of "A New Infirmary; A New Library; A New Church; A Social Center; A Field House; A New Dormitory; A New Science Building," and a greatly increased Endowment. We therefore offer the following resolution:

Resolved: That the Presbytery commend to the friends of Davidson College and to the Churches, this Centennial Movement for the raising of funds for the more adequate equipment of Davidson College.

Respectfully submitted,
S. H. FULTON, Chairman.

III. Printed Minutes of Presbytery

Your Committee has compared a corrected copy of the Printed Minutes of the Fall Meeting (1935) of Presbytery with the written minutes and finds that a true copy has been made. The Committee recommends that the printed copy be accepted as the official Minutes of Presbytery.

Respectfully submitted,
J. M. LEMMON, Chairman.

IV. Temperance

The Committee on Temperance made a verbal report which was received as information.

REPORT OF HISTORIAN

Rev. G. F. Kirkpatrick, Historian of the Presbytery, made report and read from historical sketches of Campbellton, Church of the Covenant and Flat Branch Churches. The writers of these sketches were thanked for their work, and the Historian was allowed to hold these sketches until other data could be added. Presbytery expressed its appreciation of the faithful services of the Historian.

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES

The Standing Committees of Presbytery made the following reports which were adopted. The report of the Committee on Resolutions was adopted by a rising vote.

I. The Report of the Committee on Nominations

(See 'General Directory')

We recommend that Rev. A. R. McQueen be elected to succeed himself as a member of Synod's Committee on Stated Supply.

Respectfully subitted,
S. H. FULTON, Chairman.

II. Report of the Committee on Resolutions

Your Committee on Resolutions recommends the following:

Be it Resolved:

1. That we express our sincere appreciation to the Laurel Hill Church for the gracious hospitality shown the Presbytery during these two days. The pastor, Rev. G. F. Kirkpatrick, the Elders and Deacons, the Woman's Auxiliary, and the members of the Laurel Hill Church have been untiring in their efforts to provide every convenience and comfort for their guests. After examination on the subjects required by the Book of Church Order, which was sustained as satisfactory, and after signing the obligations required by the Presbytery of its ministers, Mr. Reily was enrolled as a member of this Presbytery.

Calls from the following churches for the pastoral services of Rev. John B. Reily were received: From McPherson at a salary of $750.00 per year in regular monthly payments for two services per month, Sherwood at a salary of $350.00 per year in regular monthly payments for two services per month, and Big Rockfish at a salary of $160.00 per year in regular monthly installments for two services each month, each of the above churches to take its proportionate part in providing a manse free of charge. GEORGE THOMAS PACE

George Thomas Pace was born at Clarksville, Tenn., Oct 20, 1865. He was the son of William and Annie Pace. He attended school at Clarksville and took his collegiate course at Southwestern University, Memphis, Tenn., graduating in the year 1896. He attended Hampden Sidney College for two years, completing his theological education at Union Seminary, Richmond, Va., in the year 1899. He was ordained to the gospel ministry by Fayetteville Presbytery at a meeting held in Lumberton in October of the same year. His first pastorate was at the old Philadelphus Church, where he did a fine work building up the congregation and was largely instrumental in establishing a school which has since become a prominent feature in the life of the community. While at Philadelphus, he also served the church at Parkton. His last pastorate was to the McClellansville and Mt. Pleasant Churches in the Synod of South Carolina. For a number of years he taught Bible and Science in Flora Macdonald College. He also taught one year in Chicora College.

While at Philadelphus, Mr. Pace was married to Miss Kathrine Isabelle Brown who, during the remaining years of his life, was his loyal comrade and tender helpmeet.

On the evening of June 1, Mr. Pace "feel asleep in Jesus" after a severe sickness and was buried the following day in the old Philadelphus Cemetery amid scenes which he so much loved and where he had so faithfully labored. He was a good preacher, a faithful pastor, a conscientious instructor, a tender and loving husband, a devoted follower of Jesus Christ, always willing to serve in the gracious spirit of Him who "came not to be ministered unto but to minister."

Presbytery reconvened and heard the Presbyterial Sermon delivered by Rev. R. L. Alexander on the "Deity of Christ." Presbytery requested Mr. Alexander to furnish the Stated Clerk with a copy of this sermon that it may be sent to the "Christian Observer," for publication.

The Committee on Religious Education made the following report which was adopted:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

I. General Report

Your Committee on Religious Education has given much prayerful consideration to the whole program as projected by our church and to the particular needs of our own Presbytery. We are beginning more and more to have a keen appreciation of the heartening challenge which the whole field of Religious Education offers. Some of our churches have entered upon a definite program which gives evidence of constructive leadership and a fine spirit of cooperation. Many of our ministers are much in earnest about this whole matter of Religious Education and are leading their churches in a splendid way.

Your Committee received distinct encouragement from the many ministres and leaders of our churches by their enthusiastic co-operation they gave us in the Bible School Forums held in Lillington, Pinehurst, Raeford and Maxton during the month of May. Each Forum was well attended by large groups of men and women and young people interested in setting up Bible Schools in their respective churches. As a result of these Forums, instead of reporting a mere dozen or less Bible Schools in the Presbytery, we are able to report between thirty and forty.

As we submit reports by the various departments of our Committee, we would remind ourselves of the historic position of our church in standing for a high standard in the religious instruction and development of our people, and call upon our great Presbytery to assume that leadership in this field which belongs to us by heritage. We would emphasize the fact upon which all of us can be agreed, that Religious Education after all is nothing more or less than the Christian training of our people, the whole teaching work of the church to which she has been ordained by our Lord, and as such, it lies at the very heart of all our work, and is foundational in the spiritual lives of all our people.

Recommendations:

1. That Presbytery endeavor to have the Session of each local church, realizing that it is directly chargeable with responsibility for the Christian nurture of its people, either itself or through some appointed committee, to make a careful study of the Religious Education Work which is being carried on, and map out some simple constructive plan for enlarging and making more effective its teaching ministry.

2. That Presbytery authorize the Committee on Religious Education to hold one day Sectional Institutes throughout the Presbytery during the Fall presenting the whole program of Religious Education.

3. That Presbytery call attention of the churches to the 1 per cent of benevolent gifts which the Synod asks for promotion of the cause within bounds of Synod. These funds are to be sent to Rev. E. L. Barber, Treasurer, Aberdeen, North Carolina.

4. The Committee on Evaluation and Advance brought to our attention the following facts revealed by the rating charts: That the program of Presbytery is too full, and not giving enough time for careful study and there is a recognized weakness among the brethren in the ministry in Bible study, and a lack of effectiveness in personal work and devotional habits. In view of these facts, the Committee on Religious Education recommends a rearrangement of the stated meetings of the Presbytery to provide for four one-day quarterly meetings, so there will be time for the business and for meeting spiritual and intellectual needs.

Respectfully submitted,
E. L. BARBER, General Chairman.

II. Reports of Sub-Committees

A. Leadership Training:

Recommendation:

That Dr. J. O. Mann be asked to devote at least one month of his time to our Presbytery for a series of four Leadership Training Schools, in different sections of our Presbytery, with the churches in neighboring communities being asked to co-operate.

Respectfully submitted,
REV. JAMES APPLEBY, Chairman.

B. Young People's Division:

Your Committee would call attention to the fine work being done by the Young People of Fayetteville Presbytery as evidenced by the following interesting facts:

1. The Young People of Fayetteville Presbytery contributed more than any other Presbytery to Christian Education and Ministerial Relief, to the College Gift Fund, and to Religious Education, and came second in total gifts of all the Presbyteries.

2. The conferences of Fayetteville Presbytery enrolled more young people than any other Presbytery.

Two Conferences were held at Flora Macdonald College this summer with the largest combined enrollment since the beginning of conference work in the Presbytery. The Intermediate Conference had an enrollment of 142, and the Senior Conference enrolled 146, making a combined enrollment of 288. This shows an increase of 53 over the enrollment of last year; and 30 more than the largest enrollment of 1934. There was a deficit of $32.05. The Conference Committee held the fees as low as possible but the expenses were heavier than anticipated. The Conferences have a balance on hand of $393.05. About forty workers assisted in the Conferences.

Recommendations:

1. That Presbytery extend its thanks to the Board of Trustees and the College authorities for the use of Flora Macdonald College for the Conferences.

2. That Presbytery extend its thanks to all those who so willingly and faithfully gave their services to the Conferences.

3. That the pastors be urged to give their sincere co-operation to the Conference Committee: First, in selecting with care the young people who attend, and second, in assisting the Committee in securing the best workers for the Conferences.

4. That the policy of having two Conferences for the different age groups be continued.

Respectfully submitted,
S. H. FULTON, Chairman.

C. Adult Division:

Recommendation:

1. That the Fall Men's Rally be held at the Laurel Hill Church on Tuesday, December 1, for afternoon and evening sessions.

Respectfully submitted,
H. G. BEDINGER, Chairman.

D. Children's Division:

Reports from the churches are not complete but of the 37 churches reporting, 24 held Vacation Church Schools with a total enrollment of 1,800.

Recommendations:

1. That Rally Day be observed in all the churches at the most opportune time during the months of September and October, and that Rally Day be carefully followed up with a visitation of inactive members and those not connected with Sunday Schools.

2. That special effort be made to establish Sunday School outposts where there is such need, and arrangements be made for the transportation of those who have no means of reaching a Sunday School.

3. That an effort be made to arrange a Parent Training Class during the remaining part of this church year, which class to be conducted by some one well qualified to present the importance of the Christian home and how parents may help the child to a saving knowledge of Jesus Christ.

Respectfully submitted,
M. P. CALHOUN, Chairman.

E. Bible Instruction in Public Schools Division:

Recommendations:

1. To Determine the Need: That ministers throughout the Presbytery submit a uniform Bible examination to High School students in every school possible, and that these papers be turned over to the Chairman of this Sub-Committee for tabulation of this information for the Presbytery.

2. To Meet the Need: That ministers ask the co-operation of county and local superintendents looking toward the establishment of Bible courses in the schools.

Respectfully submitted,
A. J. McKELWAY, Chairman.

The Committee on Bible Cause made the following report which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON BIBLE CAUSE

Your Committee reports as follows: We have good evidence that the American Bible Society is making constantly renewed efforts to thoroughly equip itself for translating, publishing and distributing Bibles to all nations, and that the work to this end is well underway.

We have information also that while much has been accomplished, there is still need of continued effort along all these lines of work, and the need of help from every possible source to complete the task.

We therefore urge the Presbytery through its individuals and its churches to keep these facts in mind and make now greater efforts to aid in this, one of the important services we can render.

In view of the fact that all that should be done cannot be done without the co-operation of the people and the churches, be it therefore resolved: That, whereas the work of the American Bible Society in translating, publishing, and distributing the Bible is of greatest importance to the life of the church and the salvation of souls and the whole missionary enterprise:

1. That we express our hearty endorsement of the activities of the Society in its efforts to make the Bible more generally the common possession of humanity.

2. That in as much as Sunday, December 6, 1936, has been designated as Universal Bible Sunday, ministers and churches represented in this body take advantage of the co-operation offered by the Society in furnishing assistance, and plan carefully for a worthy observance of the day.

Respectfully submitted,

L. SMITH, Chairman.

Rev. D. H. Dulin, of Effingham, S. C., has accepted calls from the Sardis group, and will move to this field October 1st. Three men have visited the Barbecue group, two of the three turned the group down, and the other was not satisfactory to all the churches of the group.

Miss Betty Ficquitt was employed for three months to work among the young people on Rev. Dixon McDonald's field. Her work was highly satisfactory, as she increased the attendance of the young people on church services about two-fold. The appeal made through the columns of the "Presbyterian News" for a special fund of $1,000.00 with which to secure a permanent worker in this field has resulted in about $10.00.

The Committee on Moral and Social Welfare made a report which was received as information and the following recommendations were adopted:

REPORT ON MORAL AND SOCIAL WELFARE

Recommendations:

1. That all organizations within the churches be urged to arrange for periods for the study of the report of the General Assembly's Committee on Moral and Social Welfare as adopted in 1936.

2. That continued emphasis be laid upon the fuller acceptance of Jesus Christ as the Saviour of men and the Lord of all life as the basis of all our thinking on questions of moral and social welfare.

3. (a) That Fayetteville Presbytery approve the five recommendations following the section on "The Threat of War." (Assembly's Minutes, 1936, P. 97).

(b) That every Christian face the possibility of his own nation being involved in war, and realizing that the spirit of Christ's teaching is opposed to the spirit of worldly ambition, greed and fear, prepare his soul for trial and pray God for strength and for the gift to see clearly his duty as through the eyes of Christ.

Respectfully submitted,
A. J. McKELWAY, Chairman.

The Committee on State of Religion made the following report which was adopted:

REPORT ON STATE OF RELIGION

Your Committee would call the attention of Presbytery to the following facts:

1. The Sabbath is becoming more and more a day set apart for selfish purposes rather than a day for glorifying God.

2. Family religion is being neglected in such a fashion that one may almost say that for the most part it has ceased to exist.

3. There seems to be a lack of conviction on the part of many church members relating to questions of moral and ethical conduct, so that in many cases there is no line of demarcation between the Christian and non-Christian in daily living. Many have confused legal and moral laws.

4. Loss of vitality in religion has led to little growth in church membership, and some churches report no growth at all. This lack of religious zeal is reflected in the gifts of the churches which have not kept up with the blessings of prosperity which have been poured out upon our people.

Recommendations:

1. That ministers, elders and deacons be an example to their people in examining themselves to see if they are being true to their Christ in carrying out the commission which He has given unto them in His life and teaching.

2. That use be made of the pulpit and in pastoral visitation in promoting family worship in the congregations.

3. That September 27th be observed as Sabbath Observance Day where it is feasible, and if not, some day during the Fall months when the attention of the people may be called to the use to which the Sabbath may be put for the glory of God.

Respectfully submitted,
M. P. CALHOUN, Chairman.

Ample opportunity was given to all who wished to speak to this matter. Several members of the church responded, there appearing still a very pronounced and decided division in the church.

The congregation was dismissed and the Commission met in executive session. Since there appeared to the Commission no hope of a settlement of the difficulties within the church under the existing conditions, the Commission voted unanimously, but with deep regret and great reluctance, to dissolve the Hope Mills Church.

The Commission directed that all funds belonging to the Hope Mills Church be turned over to the Treasurer of Fayetteville Presbytery; that the Sessional Records of said church be turned over to the Stated Clerk of the Presbytery; and that all other properties belonging to the Hope Mills Church be turned over to the Trustees of the Presbytery. REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS

We wish to express our appreciation to Rev. W. S. Golden and his people for a delightful meeting of Presbytery. Every effort has been made to minister to our comfort and convenience and make the meeting thoroughly enjoyed by all.

We would especially mention Mrs. Lelia Cox, pianist, and the local choir, who led us in the worship of music; the Woman's Auxiliaries of Carthage, Union and Eureka Churches, who served such delicious meals to the Presbytery; the co-operation of the other denominations of the community in entertaining the ministers and elders; and the two splendid addresses of Rev. John M. Wells of Sumter, S. C.

Respectfully submitted,
J. A. McARTHUR, Chairman.

The Treasurer of Presbytery was instructed to send Dr. Wells a check covering his expenses in coming to Presbytery.

The Stated Clerk reported that all the Commissioners to the 1936 General Assembly had filed their written reports with him. All the Commissioners with the exception of one attended all the sessions of the Assembly and were commended for their diligence. Dr. D. S. Currie was providentially prevented from attending any part of the Assembly.

It was ordered that the names of those having been Commissioners to the General Assembly for the last ten years be printed on the dockets for the meeting of Presbytery at which the Commissioners to the next Assembly are to be elected.

The Moderator appointed the followiing Special Committee to recommend such changes in the Manual as are necessary or seem advisable under the new arrangement for the meetings of Presbytery: Rev. S. H. Fulton, Chairman; Rev. John B. Reily and Mr. Mac Cameron.

An invitation from the St. Pauls Church for the next stated meeting of Presbytery was accepted.

The Special Committee on Publicity for the Cause of Home Missions made the following report which was adopted:

REPORT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE

Realizing that there is an emergency situation in Home Missions confronting our Presbytery that calls for emergency decision and action, we recommend:

Recommendations:

1. That Presbytery authorize the Home Mission Committee to launch a campaign to inform the churches of the Presbytery's Home Mission task.

2. That the Home Mission Committee be authorized to prepare a booklet on the "Task of Home Missions in Fayetteville Presbytery."

3. That funds to the amount of $100.00 be provided the Committee by the Treasurer of the Presbytery for publication of the booklet.

4. That Presbytery urge all our churches to use this booklet as a basis of study of Home Missions this Fall, in all departments of our organization that all our people may know the actual need of this important Cause.

5. That the Committee on Religious Education co-operate with the Committee on Home Missions in giving place for the presentation of Presbytery's needs in its Fall District Conferences.

6. That our Committee on Stewardship also be asked to cooperate with the Home Mission Committee in raising adequate funds for this Cause.

7. That the Home Mission Committee be requested to send letters to all our churches announcing an emergency campaign for greater interest and offerings for Home Missions in the Presbytery, calling on ministers and church officers to co-operate in making the campaign a spiritual and financial success.

8. That the Home Mission Committee ask the Woman's Auxiliary also to aid in getting this Cause before the women of the church, requesting local Auxiliaries to make a special study of our Home Mission needs.

9. Attention is called to the interesting fact that although this Presbytery actually contributed something like $38,000.00 to Benovolences last year, and although 12 1-2 per cent was due our Committee on Home Missions in Fayetteville Presbytery, the Committee actually received only about $2,500.00. Therefore, we would call upon our ministers and elders to see to it that their church treasurers send 12 1-2 per cent to our Home Mission Treasurer.

Respectfully submitted,

E. L. BARBER, Chairman.

Presbytery directed that the next Presbyterial sermon as provided for in the report of the Nominating Committee be preached at the Spring meeting of Presbytery.

The Committee on the Ministers' Annuity Fund made the following report which was adopted:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MINISTERS' ANNUITY FUND

Your Committee on the Ministers' Annuity Fund, which was appointed at the adjourned meeting of Presbytery held in Fayetteville, N. C., on May 5th, 1936, respectfully reports:

1. The Committee, consisting of Rev. W. S. Golden, McKay McKinnon, Dr. D. S. Currie, and Charles G. Rose, Chairman, met in the home of the Chairman on January 20th, 1937. After full discussion, the Committee decided:

a. That, in their opinion, a committee of four was too small to put on the campaign for the Ministers' Annuity Fund in this Presbytery;

b. That the Moderator of the Presbytery be requested to appoint additional members to the committee, subject to the approval of Presbytery; and that Rev. R. L. Alexander, Moderator, of Lumberton, N. C., be a member of the committee; and,

c. That a meeting of the larger committee be held in the First Presbyterian Church, in Fayetteville, N. C., on February 12th, 1937.

2. In accordance with the request of the committee, Rev. R. L. Alexander, Moderator of Fayetteville Presbytery, appoint the additional members of the committee, so that the present committee now consists of: Rev. W. S. Golden, Rev. R. L. Alexander, Rev. Eugene Alexander, Rev. A. W. Dick, Mr. W. R. Sutherland, Mr. Edgar Hall, Mr. J. Talbot Johnson, Dr. P. P. McCain, Mr. A. T. McLean, Mr. McKay McKinnon, Dr. D. S. Currie, Mr. W. M. Shaw, Mr. J. M. Wilson, and Mr. Charles G. Rose.

3. This Committee met at the First Presbyterian Church in Fayetteville, N. C., on February 12th, and the Ministers' Annuity Fund was fully discussed; and it was decided that the campaign for this important work of the church should be handled largely by county organizations, and not entirely by Presbytery's Committee; and the representatives from each county in the Presbytery were asked to later recommend a chairman for each county, who was a layman, and a pastor as assistant chairman. It was also decided that the Chairman be requested to ask Dr. Henry H. Sweets, of Louisville, Ky., to address a meeting of the Pastors, Elders, Deacons, and other parties interested, to be held in the First Presbyterian Church, in Fayetteville, N. C., on Tuesday, March 23rd, 1937.

4. Upon the recommendation of the members of the Committee, the following Chairmen and Assistant Chairmen have been recommended from the various counties:

Hoke County: Mr. Edgar Hall of Raeford, Chairman; Rev. W. M. Fairley, Assistant Chairman.

Robeson County: Mr. W. B. Townsend, of Red Springs, Chairman; Rev. M. P. Calhoun, Assistant Chairman.

Scotland County: Mr. Edwin Morgan, of Laurel Hill, Chairman; Rev. S. H. Fulton, Assistant Chairman.

Cumberland County: Mr. W. A. West, of Fayetteville, Chairman; Rev. J. B. Reily, Assistant Chairman.

Moore County: Mr. M. C. McDonald, of West End, Chairman; Rev. R. G. Matheson, Assistant Chairman.

Harnett and Johnston Counties: Mr. J. W. Purdie, of Dunn, Chairman; Rev. C. M. Gibbs, Assistant Chairman.

5. The Committee and several of the County Chairmen and Assistant Chairmen met at a supper meeting, at the First Presbyterian Church, in Fayetteville, N. C., on Friday evening, March 12th, 1937. At this meeting plans were perfected to get the information to pastors, laymen and other persons interested, of the meeting to be held in Fayetteville, N. C., on March 23rd, 1937, to hear Dr. Henry H. Sweets; it was further recommended that, in allotting to the various churches the quota of the Ministers' Annuity Fund, the quota be figured for each church by adding to the Pastor's salary paid for the year ending March 31st, 1936, 66 2-3 per cent of the salary. The total amount asked for by the Ministers' Annuity Fund for Fayetteville Presbytery is $100,153.00.

6. At the first meeting of the larger Committe, held on February 12th, 1937, Charles G. Rose, the Chairman appointed by Presbytery, for reasons which he explained to the Committee, asked to be relieved of the chairmanship of the campaign for the Ministers' Annuity Fund, and the Committee reluctantly concurred with Mr. Rose's request in the matter, and unanimously recommended that Mr. McKay McKinnon, of Maxton, N. C., be elected Chairman, and that Mr. Rose continue as a member of the Committee. Mr. McKinnon indicated that he would accept, if the appointment was approved by Presbytery.

7. A large number of Pastors, Elders, Deacons, Auxiliary Officials, and others, met in the First Presbyterian Church, in Fayetteville, N. C., at 11:00 o'clock, A.M., on Tuesday, March 23rd, and heard a very instructive address by Rev. Henry H. Sweets, D.D., of Louisville, Ky., who is in charge of the Ministers' Annuity Fund for the General Assembly.

8. The Committee recommends:

a. That the following Committee have complete charge of the campaign for the Ministers' Annuity Fund: Rev. W. S. Golden, Rev. R. L. Alexander, Rev. A. W. Dick, Rev. Eugene Alexander, Mr. W. R. Sutherland, Mr. Edgar Hall, Mr. J. Talbot Johnson, Mr. A. T. McLean, Dr. P. P. McCain, Mr. McKay McKinnon, Dr. D. S. Currie, Mr. W. M. Shaw, Mr. J. M. Wilson, and Mr. Charles G. Rose.

b. That Mr. McKay McKinnon, of Maxton, N. C., be named as Chairman of this Committee.

c. That the above named Chairmen and Assistant Chairmen for the various counties of Fayetteville Presbytery be appointed.

d. That, since the goal of Fayetteville Presbytery is $100,153.00, the quota of each church in the Presbytery be figured at 166 2-3 per cent of the Pastor's salary paid for the year ending March 31st, 1936.

Respectfully submitted,

CHARLES G. ROSE, Chairman.

The Executive Committees of Presbytery made the following reports which were adopted:

REPORTS OF PRESBYTERY'S EXECUTIVE COMMITTEES

I. Home Missions

Your Committee on Home Missions submits the following report:

At the present, four groups of churches are receiving aid from Presbytery's fund: Rev. Dixon McDonald's field—Spence, Wildwood, Providence and Berea; the group served by Rev. J. T. Echols—Cape Fear, Benson and Four Oaks; Rev. Eugene Alexander's field—Church of the Covenant, Flat Branch and Hebron; the field served by Rev. J. W. Crinkley—Bensalem, Spies and Eagle Springs.

There are fourteen churches in these fields and no mission points. Two hundred and forty regular services were held, and 31 professions of faith recorded. There were 14 additions to the church on profession of faith, and 12 by letter. No new Sunday Schools were organized. Thirteen Sunday Schools were maintained, one church on Rev. Eugene Alexander's field reporting no Sunday School. One church in the field served by Rev. J. T. Echols was repaired, as were one church and the manse in Rev. Dixon McDonald's group. Of the fourteen churches in the fields, all made the Every Member Canvass except one on Rev. Dixon McDonald's field. All churches in the fields of Messrs. Echols and Crinkley paid their apportionments in full, two out of three on Rev. Eugene Alexander's field, and none on Mr. McDonald's field.

Every church in the Presbytery is supplied regularly with services except Laurel Hill, which is not under the Home Mission Committee.

Rev. P. H. Biddle, of Cuba, Ala., moved into the Mt. Pisgah group in March, and arrangements for installation services have been made. The Leaflet Church will remodel the building soon, adding Sunday School rooms at the same time. The manse in this field has been repaired and is in excellent condition.

In response to the appeals for the Johnston County Building Fund, the sum of $28.00 was realized, and $45.85 on the Johnston County Special Fund.

Recommendations:

1. That $210.00 be apportioned to the Bensalem field.

2. That $200.00 be apportioned to the Elise Church by the Presbytery, and that application for $100.00 be made to the Synod's Committee on Home Missions. It is understood that the minister who supplies this church will teach Bible in Elise Academy.

3. That $150.00 be granted Rev. D. F. Blue's field.

4. That the Chairman of the Home Mission Committee be authorized to receive a deed to a lot in Johnston County upon which a mission church is to be built. This land is a gift to the church.

5. That the Synod's Committee be requested to grant to the mission work in this Presbytery the same amount as last year.

6. That the attention of the brethren be called to the fact that license tags for buses to be used exclusively in church work can be had for $1.00 now, instead of $40.00 a few years ago. The school buses now being operated will soon give place to those constructed of steel, making it possible for churches to purchase the buses and the tags for a small amount. The attendance on Sabbath Schools can be doubled in this way.

7. That Presbytery insist that those churches receiving aid through this Committee put into operation this year the Lord's Acre Plan, and that whether these churches make this trial of the plan or not will be considered in making apportionments for next year.

8. That Rev. D. D. MacBryde supply the Laurel Hill Church until the next regular meeting of Presbytery on terms agreeable to himself and the church, if the way be clear.

9. That $300.00 extra be given Rev. J. T. Echols and $150.00 to Rev. Dixon McDonald on account of illness in their families.

10. That $150.00 be apportioned to the erection of a tabernacle on the new mission site, if the way be clear.

11. That the pastoral relations existing between Rev. J. W. Crinkley and the Elise Church be dissolved.

Respectfully submitted,

A. R. McQUEEN, Chairman.

II. Stewardship

The Committee on Stewardship made a verbal report which was received as information and the following recommendations were adopted:

1. That the Presbyterial tax of the Spence Church be reduced to $1.00 annually.

2. That the Presbyterial tax of Berea Church be increased to $2.00 annually.

3. That the Presbyterial tax of Lakeview Church be reduced to $5.00 annually.

Respectfully submitted,

EUGENE ALEXANDER, Chairman.

III. Religious Education

Your Committee on Religious Education with sincere gratitude to God for His blessing upon the work during the past year, presents to the Presbytery the following report of its activities in its various departments, together with recommendations which we trust will be acted upon most prayerfully and with every confidence that they will be carried out. We wish to present, as a part of our report, not to be printed in the Minutes but merely as information, a general statement from our Assembly's Committee of Religious Education and Publication.

Recommendations:

1. That every congregation, Sunday School, auxiliary and young people's organization definitely include the benevolent work of the Assembly's Religious Education for its full benevolent percentage.

2. That pastors be asked to feature in connection with the installation, a consecration service for all church teachers, officers, and leaders, so as to magnify and uphold the teaching work of the Church as a spiritual task demanding only the finest type of spiritual leadership.

3. That Presbytery express its conviction that every church, Sunday school and individual having long overdue accounts with the Presbyterian Committee of Publication make some arrangements for a settlement of these in order that the credit record of our churches and leaders may not be impaired.

4. That every church be urged to send 1 per cent of its benevolent gifts to the Synod's Treasurer, Rev. E. L. Barber, Aberdeen, N. C.

5. That Presbytery endeavor to have the Session of each local church, realizing that it is directly chargeable with the responsibility for the Christian nurture of its people, either itself or through some appointed committee, to make a careful study of the Religious Education Work which is being carried on, and map out some simple constructive plan for enlarging and making more effective its teaching ministry.

Respectfully submitted,
E. L. BARBER, General Chairman.

A. Young People's Division:

Examination of the reports of 93 churches reveals the following facts:

1. Forty-eight churches report organized young people's work. Of this number, there are 20 young people's organizations, 8 intermediates, 18 combined with young people and intermediates and four Christian Endeavor Societies.

2. Nine churches report they have no organization.

3. Thirty-six churches made no report.

Recommendations:

1. That two Conferences be held at Flora Macdonald College: Intermediate (ages 12, 13, 14), June 17-23; Senior Young People (ages 15 up), June 23-30.

2. That pastors be urged to send their best young people to the Conferences.

3. That a two-day Institute for Ministers be held in conjunction with the Senior Young People's Conference, June 28, 29; the program to be arranged under the direction of the Committee on Religious Education.

Respectfully submitted,

S. H. FULTON, Chairman.

B. Children's Division:

At this season of the year, our Church is naturally planning for week-day activities in the Children's Division of the Church. There were between thirty and forty Vacation Church Schools conducted in Fayetteville Presbytery last Summer. Realizing the splendid opportunity afforded in such schools for Biblical instruction, and realizing that many of our churches had no such school last year, your Committee urgently recommends:

Recommendations:

1. That every pastor in the Presbytery make an earnest effort to have a Vacation Church School in every Church in his field, unless something better can be substituted. A worker will be available in the Presbytery for those without leadership, the local community entertaining, no other expense.

Respectfully submitted,

MALCOLM CALHOUN, Chairman.

C. Leadership Training Division:

Several churches in our Presbytery held Leadership Training Classes of some sort. In the Maxton, Laurinburg, Lillington and Fayetteville Churches, Leadership Training Classes were conducted by our Synod's Director of Religious Education, Dr. J. O. Mann.

Recommendations:

1. That churches strive constantly to improve the teaching in their church courts.

2. That in so far as possible ministers stimulate leadership training through special classes and also through mid-week prayer services.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES APPLEBY, Chairman.

D. Organization and Extention Division:

Recommendations:

1. That every pastor and session survey their opportunities for outpost Sunday Schools and wherever practicable organize and maintain schools.

2. We suggest that transportation where such will be found necessary or practicable, be provided such that every child may be provided Sunday School opportunities.

3. We recommend to the officers and congregations the Lord's Acre Plan in providing a plan by which every one may have a greater part in the financial goals of our church.

Respectfully submitted,
NEILL McINNIS, Chairman.

IV. Woman's Work

The Committee on Woman's Work, Dr. J. B. Black, Chairman, made a report which was received as information.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON ASSEMBLY'S WORK

Rev. R. G. Matheson, General Chairman.

The Permanent Committee on Assembly's Work made reports which were in part received as information and in part adopted. The parts adopted with the recommendations are as follows:

I. Foreign Missions

Recommendations:

1. That our churches make a special effort this year to reenforce our thinning missionary line.

2. That churches assume, wherever practicable, definite responsibility for definite parts of the Foreign Mission work.

3. That all churches, societies, and individuals be urgently reminded that the Foreign Mission Executive Committee is the only authorized agency for the administration of our church's Foreign Mission work. (To send Foreign Mission contributions to missionaries on the field, or for objects outside the Committee's program, deprives the Committee of its due and needed support and hinders its providing adequately for the work entrusted to it by the Assembly).

4. That all Sunday Schools and Young People's organizations be urged this year to co-operate in the special Missionary Education Program on Africa, and to make real self-denial gifts toward raising the full budget of our African Mission.

5. That the theme of the Fall meeting of Fayetteville Presbytery be: "Foreign Missions," and that if possible our Executive Secretary of Foreign Missions, Dr. C. Darby Fulton, be engaged to address the Presbytery at that time.

6. That all our church organizations use the Foreign Mission Season, January 1st to February 6th, for studying world missions and that the special Foreign Mission Week of Prayer and Self-Denial, January 30th to February 6th, be observed in every church.

Respectfully submitted,
MALCOLM CALHOUN, Chairman.

II. Assembly's Home Missions

Recommendations:

1. That the period, October 10th to November 14th, 1937, be set apart as the annual season of Home Mission Study, using the official text book, "Other Men Labored," and that the week of November 7-14 be designated as the annual Home Mission Week with a special thank offering for Assembly's Home Missions in all the churches.

2. That June be observed as the Assembly's Home Mission month with the use of educational programs in the various departments of the church.

Respectfully submitted,
G. F. KIRKPATRICK, Chairman.

3. That Candidate David A. Bowles be allowed to change his course so as to require only one Bible language, which is the recommendation of the President of Union Theological Seminary.

4. That the Sessions of the churches be urged to use all proper diligence and care to assist the Executive Committee in collecting past due student loans, so that the money may be available for other worthy students.

Respectfully submitted,
W. S. GOLDEN, Chairman.

That Presbytery, understanding that the Rockfish Mills, Inc., is willing to exchange the corner lot now vacant at the intersection of Patterson Avenue and Harrison Street for the lot formerly occupied by the old Presbyterian Church, also understanding that the lot to be received from the Rockfish Mills, Inc., is now encumbered by the bonded indebtedness of the Rockfish Mills, Inc., does hereby instruct the Trustees of the Presbytery to make the above named exchange with the Rockfish Mills, Inc., and obtain the best title possible, and that this be consummated at the earliest possible date.

The Communion of the Lord's Supper was celebrated, Rev. R. L. Alexander and Rev. M. P. Calhoun presiding.

A Memorial of Dr. G. E. Moorehouse was read by Rev. L. A. McLaurin and was adopted by a rising vote. It is as follows:

REV. GEORGE ERNEST MOOREHOUSE

Dr. George Ernest Moorehouse was born in Glasgow, Scotland, August 2, 1861, the son of John Sherard and Clarice Moorehouse. He died February 6, 1937. He began preaching at the early age of eighteen, his first work being in the city of London. In 1896 he came to Canada, entered the University of Toronto and later Chicago University where he received the degree of Ph.D.

Dr. Moorehouse served churches in Michigan, Minnesota, Kansas, Oregon, Louisiana, and Florida before coming to North Carolina. While at St. Petersburg, Fla., he led the congregation in the erection of a splendid house of worship.

In 1915 Dr. Moorehouse began his work in Lumberton, N. C. It was under his leadership that the congregation united in the erection of the fine building in which we meet today. He continued in the work here for thirteen years until he retired from active work, because of failing health, in 1928. His active ministry had covered a period of nearly fifty years.

Dr. Moorehouse spent the last nine years of his life in Laurinburg where he was a regular worshiper in the Lord's house. Through these years he continued an active attendant at meetings of his Presbytery.

Dr. Moorehouse was a defender of the faith, a preacher of the true gospel of Christ as interpreted by the standards of our church and a man of strong convictions as to methods of carrying on the work of the church.

He was a good Presbyter, regular in attendance, doing faithfully the work assigned. His reports, thoughtfully prepared, always won the attention, and frequently the commendation, of his brethren.

On June 7, 1898, Dr. Moorehouse married Miss Frances F. Hellier, who survives with their only daughter, Mrs. Carl B. Craig of Suffolk, Virginia.

The names of the Ruling Elders who had died during the last church year were read by the Stated Clerk. It was ordered that these be inscribed on a page in the Minutes of the Presbytery and Presbytery engaged in a prayer of thanksgiving for their services and in behalf of their families. (See the Memorial Page).

The minutes of this session were read and approved.

Presbytery adjourned with the benediction to meet in the Ashpole Church, Rowland, N. C., on July 13, 1937, at 10:00 A.M.

J. M. LEMMON, Moderator,
W. J. HUNEYCUTT, Permanent Clerk.
Attest: C. B. GIBBS, Stated Clerk.

BENEVOLENT CONTRIBUTIONS

The following is the percentage of distribution of the Benevolent Funds for the year beginning April 1, 1937, as approved by Presbytery, with the names of the Treasurers to whom the funds are to be sent. The percentage is to be calculated on the basis of the total receipts for the Benevolent Budget and should be distributed at least once each quarter. The churches are urged by Presbytery to carefully observe this schedule of apportionments and thereby equalize the Benevolent Funds among the Causes.

Respectfully submitted,

A. R. McQUEEN, Chairman.

Reports of Permanent Committees.—The Permanent Committees on Presbytery's Work submitted the following reports which were adopted:

REPORTS OF PERMANENT COMMITTEES

I. On State of Religion

Recommendations:

1. That the Committee on the State of Religion be merged with the Committee on Social and Moral Welfare inasmuch as the work of these committees necessarily overlap.

2. That the personnel of the present Committee on Social and Moral Welfare constitute the personnel of the merged committee.

Respectfully submitted,

MALCOLM CALHOUN, Chairman.

II. Report on Temperance

Recommendations:

1. We urge all our Church people to practice total abstinence.

2. That as members of the Church we seek to provide through our Church and State agencies adequate scientific instructions on the subject of alcoholic beverages.

3. That all Christian citizens use the ballot to bring about an adequate legislative solution of this complex menacing situation.

4. That all the pastors in our Presbytery read to their congregations from the report of the Assembly's Committee on Moral and Social Welfare, Section B., page 108, "The Liquor Menace."

Respectfully submitted,

A. D. CARSWELL, Chairman.

III. Report on Social and Moral Welfare

Your Committee would first call attention to the Report of the General Assembly's Committee on Social and Moral Welfare as it appears in the General Assembly's Minutes of 1937. This report is comprehensive, definite, and challenging, prepared with humility and courage. This Committee urgently commends this report to the faithful study of both ministry and membership of our churches with the prayer that each study may shake us out of our complacent toleration of crying social evils in our midst and for which we are responsible in proportion to our passive acquiesence of them.

Your Committee notes with gratitude to God an increasing sense of responsibility on the part of our church as a whole to the task of interpreting and applying the truth of the one Christian gospel to those less individual, but none the less vital, areas of life which we are accustomed to speak of as social and moral. There is less and less tendency for our church to be divided into two irreconcilable groups defined as those of the evangelistic gospel and those of the social gospel, and more and more understanding that there are not two gospels but one; that the evangel is not complete with the interpretation of the gospel in relation and the application of that gospel to every area of intercourse between man and man and that the ideals of social redemption are impossible without the inward reformation and rebirth of the individuals who comprise society.

We recommend:

Recommendations:

1. That Fayetteville Presbytery request our Publication Committee to make available in convenient form and at nominal price the 1937 Report of the Assembly's Committee on Social and Moral Welfare, with its recommendations approved by the General Assembly, for study by our Church and all its organizations.

2. That in the study of this report and its recommendations we make the approach in a spirit of heart searching humility as to our own share of guilt in the continuance of necessary social relations to which we personally and as communities are liable.

Respectfully submitted,

A. J. McKELWAY, Chairman.

IV. Report on Printed Minutes

Your Committee has compared a corrected copy of the Printed Minutes of the January and April meetings of Presbytery, 1937, with the written minutes and finds a true copy has been made. The Committee recommends that the printed copy be accepted as the official Minutes of Presbytery.

J. M. LEMMON, Chairman.

III. On Home Missions

Your Committee on Home Missions submits the following report for the six months ending September 30, 1937:

The following named groups of churches receive financial aid from the Presbytery and are therefore under the care of the Committee on Home Missions: Sardis, Bunnlevel, Westminster and Palestine, Rev. D. H. Dulin, Pastor; Bensalem, Spies and Eagle Springs, Rev. J. W. Crinkley, Pastor; South Fayetteville, Comfort, Campbellton, and Gilmore Memorial, Rev. D. F. Blue, Jr., Pastor; Benson, Four Oaks and Cape Fear, Rev. J. T. Echols, Pastor; Spence Chapel, Providence, Wildwood and Berea, Rev. Dixon McDonald, Pastor.

In these 18 churches, 327 preaching services were held. There were 40 professions of faith, 42 additions on profession of faith, 13 additions by letter. One Sabbath School was organized on Mr. McDonald's field, and one on Mr. Dulin's field, and Sabbath Schools maintained in all the churches. One church building on Mr. Crinkley's field was repaired. Two churches and the manse on Mr. Blue's field were repaired. All the churches made the Every Member Canvass, and Bensalem, Spies, Eagle Springs and Benson paid their apportionments in full.

A promising mission has been established in Johnson County, about twelve miles east of Benson, where a tabernacle has been erected at a cost of about $80.00, of which amount $72.26 was paid from the Special Fund for Johnson County work. Since this work was started about two months ago, the average attendance on Sunday School has been 97. A car was secured by Rev. L. A. McLaurin at a cost of one cent per mile for every mile traveled in the work, and the services of Miss Margaret Stevens, a student at Flora Macdonald College, were secured for six weeks. If an all time worker could be secured, this point would be developed rapidly.

Your Committee greatly appreciates the special aid received from the Red Springs Church and individual members of that congregation, from the Maxton Church and from other friends of the work.

Recommendations:

1. That the work at Naomi be transferred to Rev. S. H. Fulton. This work at present is being done by the Rev. W. M. Fairley, and this transfer is being made at his suggestion.

2. That $100.00 be deducted from the amount due the Presbytery by Eagle Springs Church on condition that the church pay the remainder by December 31, 1938.

Respectfully submitted,
A. R. McQUEEN, Chairman.

Report on Assembly's Work—The Permanent Committee on Assembly's Work, Rev. R. G. Matheson, General Chairman, made reports which were in part received as information and in part adopted. The parts adopted with the recommendations are as follows:

2. That the Assembly's Training School as a worthy cause for Christian liberality be heartily commended to local churches, Woman's Auxiliaries, Sunday Schools, and individuals.

3. That pastors and officers in the local church, ordained and unordained, be urged to be alert to discover the most promising young people in their church who seem called to full-time service in the lay work of the church, and to bring to their attention the opportunities for training in this work offered by the Assembly's Training School.

4. That it be recommended to church sessions that they lend their encouragement and help to lay workers in the church, both volunteer and full-time, to attend the January term at the Assembly's Training School in order that they may be better prepared for their work.

Respectfully submitted,
J. F. MENIUS, Chairman.

The Memorial was adopted by a rising vote of Presbytery and Presbytery was led in prayer by Dr. McQueen in thanksgiving for the consecrated life of this servant and for God's blessing on the family of this departed brother. The Memorial is as follows:

REV. H. M. DIXON

The Reverend Henderson McCammie Dixon, son of Hugh and Margaret Hoey Dixon, was born in Mecklenburg County, North Carolina, September 19, 1859. He received his college training at Davidson College and the University of North Carolina, graduating from the latter institution in 1885. In the fall of the same year, he entered Princeton Theological Seminary, graduating in 1888. He was ordained evangelist by the Presbytery of Charleston, South Carolina, on April 21, 1889, where he worked as evangelist until 1891.

In 1891, Mr. Dixon was called to the pastorate of the Monroe Presbyterian Church, Monroe, N. C. Later he held pastorates at Allendale, S. C., and McColl, S. C. On October 10, 1907 he was received into Fayetteville Presbytery and became the pastor of Philadelphus and Lumber Bridge Churches. In the same year he was called by the Southern Presbyterian College, now Flora Macdonald College, to the chair of Moral Science and Bible, which he held acceptably until 1923, when he resigned on account of ill health.

On August 4, 1890, Mr. Dixon was happily married to Miss Caroline Victoria Hammond, of Augusta, Georgia, who, with one son and four daughters, survives him.

He died on Sunday, September 5, 1937, at his home at Beech Island, Georgia, and was laid to rest in the Beech Island Cemetery on Monday, September 6, Rev. Marvin M. McFerrin, of Augusta, Georgia, officiating.

Mr. Dixon was a discerning student of the Scriptures, an able and forceful preacher, and an effective teacher of the Bible in the class-room. Perhaps his greatest work for the Master's Kingdom in this Presbytery was his long and faithful service in this latter capacity, where he taught the Word of the Lord which liveth and abideth forever to hundreds of students, who are in turn living and teaching it in churches, homes and schools.

Presbyterial Communion—Presbytery observed the Communion of the Lord's Supper, Rev. M. P. Calhoun and Rev. Eugene Alexander, presiding.

Minutes Read—The minutes of today's sessions were read and approved.

Adjournment—Presbytery adjourned with singing, prayer and the benediction, to meet in the Maxton Church, January 11, 1938, at 10:00 A. M.
